Reassessing Gender And Achievement Questioning Contemporary Key Debates:

Reassessing Gender and Achievement Becky Francis, Christine Skelton, 2005 This text draws together the findings and arguments from the vast array of material available on this topic in order to provide a comprehensive and clear overview of the various debates about and explanations for gender and achievement Reassessing Gender and Achievement Becky Francis, Christine Skelton, 2005-11-22 Challenging current theories about gender and achievement this book assesses the issues at stake and analyses the policy drives and changing perceptions of gender on which the gender and achievement debates are based This new topical book guides the reader through the different theories and approaches drawing together and reviewing work on gender and educational performance The authors also highlight the continuing problems experienced by girls in terms of achievement and classroom interaction The subjects covered include perspectives on gender and achievement the construction of gender and achievement in education policy evaluating boys underachievement the future for boys and girls raising achievement What works in the classroom Teachers education professionals and students engaged in teacher training will welcome the editors objective yet critical expertise Encyclopedia of Gender and Society Jodi O'Brien, 2009 Provides timely comparative analysis from internationally known contributors The SAGE Handbook of Gender and Education Christine Skelton, Becky Francis, Lisa Smulyan, 2006-10-23 The Handbook of Gender and Education brings together leading scholars on gender and education to provide an up to date and broad ranging guide to the field It is a comprehensive overview of different theoretical positions on equity issues in schools The contributions cover all sectors of education from early years to higher education curriculum subjects methodological and theoretical perspectives and gender identities in education Each chapter reviews syntheses and provides a critical interrogation of key contemporary themes in education This approach ensures that the book will be an indispensable source of reference for a wide range of readers students academics and practitioners The first section of the Handbook Gender Theory and Methodology outlines the various feminist perspectives on researching and exploring gender and education The section critiques the notion of gender as a category in educational research and considers recent trends evident especially in the gender and underachievement debates to locate gender difference solely within biology This section provides the broad background upon which the issues and debates in the other sections can be situated Section two Gender and Education considers the differing ways in which gender has been shown to impact upon the opportunities and experiences of pupils students teachers and other adults in the different sectors of education It also includes a chapter on single sex schooling Section three Gender and School Subjects comprises chapters that cover gender issues within the teaching and learning of particular school subjects for example maths literacy and science It also includes topics such as sex education and assessment The chapters in section four Gender identity and educational sites address up to date issues which have a long history in terms of explorations into gender and educational opportunities More recent inclusions in the debates such as disability sexuality and masculinities are discussed alongside the more traditional concerns of race social class and femininities The final section Working in Schools and Colleges illuminates the working lives of teachers and academics The chapters cover such topics as school culture career progression and development and the gendered identities of professionals within educational institutions The contributors to this book have been selected by the editors as authorities in their specific area of gender and education and are drawn from the international scholarly community

Educational Inequalities Kalwant Bhopal,Uvanney Maylor,2013-11-07 While there is considerable literature on social inequality and education there is little recent work which explores notions of difference and diversity in relation to race class and gender This edited text aims to bring together researchers in the field of education located across many international contexts such as the UK Australia USA New Zealand and Europe Contributors investigate the ways in which dominant perspectives on difference intersectionality and institutional structures underpin and reinforce educational inequality in schools and higher education They emphasize the importance of international perspectives and innovative methodological approaches to examining these areas and seek to locate the dimensions of difference within recent theoretical discourses with an emphasis on race class and gender as key categories of analysis Routledge International Handbook of Schools and Schooling in Asia Kerry J. Kennedy,John Chi-Kin Lee,2018-05-11 This comprehensive handbook is the ultimate reference work providing authoritative and international overviews of all aspects of schools and schooling in Asia Split into 19 sections it covers curriculum learning and assessment private supplementary tutoring special education gender issues ethnic minority education and LGBTQI students in Asian schools The volume displays the current state of the scholarship for schools and schooling in Asia including emerging controversial and cutting edge contributions using a thematic approach The content offers a broad sweep of the region with a focus on theoretical cultural and political issues as well as identifying educational issues and priorities such as curriculum assessment teacher education school leadership etc all of which impact students and learning in multiple ways The Routledge International Handbook of Schools and Schooling in Asia brings together experts in each area to contribute their knowledge providing a multidimensional and rich view of the issues confronting the region s school and education systems Chapters 34 35 36 37 and 38 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Boys and Their Schooling John Whelen,2011-04-28 This book presents an ethnographic study of the experiences of teenage boys in an Australian high school It follows a group of thirteen to fifteen year olds over a period of more than two years and seeks to understand why so many boys say they hate school yet enjoy being with one another in their daily confrontations with the formal school The study acknowledges the ongoing significance of the boys debate to policy makers and the media and therefore to teachers and parents but moves it on from issues of gender construction and the panic about achievement to the broader question of what it is to experience being schooled as a boy in the new liberal educational environment

Gender in Learning and Teaching Carol Taylor,Chantal

Amade-Escot, Andrea Abbas, 2019-04-30 Gender in Learning and Teaching brings together leading gender and feminist scholars to provide a unique collection of international research into learning and teaching Through dialogues across national traditions and boundaries the authors provide new insights into the relations between feminist scholarship of pedagogy gender and didactics and offer in depth accounts that critically investigate how gender relations are enacted contested and analysed at the level of the classroom the curriculum and the institution Drawing on original research the chapters explore gender dynamics in relation to student teacher interactions gendered classroom practices curriculum content and knowledge formation in different subjects The book includes accounts of innovative approaches to curriculum development to address gender inequality It includes new theoretical frameworks and methodological approaches which provide fresh insights into gendered practices including intersectionality new material feminism epistemic gender positioning and cultural anthropology The chapters span all education phases from early years to higher education This book makes a compelling case for the continuing relevance of feminist pedagogy and the urgent need for strategies to address gender inequalities in the classroom and beyond It will be of great interest to academics and postgraduate students in the fields of theory philosophy and feminist politics of learning and teaching education and didactics feminism and pedagogy sociology and the arts

International Studies in Educational Inequality, Theory and Policy Richard Teese, Stephen Lamb, Marie Duru-Bellat, 2007-06-03 Inequality is a marked and persistent feature of education systems both in the developed and the developing worlds Major gaps in opportunity and in outcomes have become more critical than in the past thanks to the knowledge economy and globalization More and more populations both rich and poor depend on successful use of school and on gaining post school qualifications But access to high quality schooling success at school and chances of higher education all remain socially divided with implications for economic opportunities personal growth and civic and community development What causes these divisions in how education systems work Have decades of public investment brought about at least some improvements even if major gaps remain If not what are the barriers the social processes which have frustrated the efforts of government The pursuit of equity as a goal of public policy is examined in this book through a series of national case studies covering many different global contexts from the wealthiest to some of the poorest nations on earth What have we learnt from the policy experience globally Do we know more today than yesterday about the origins of social inequality Are our policies better framed better designed to tackle inequality And which way forward What does the evidence suggest in terms of future approaches and emphasis This work is published in three volumes which together form a 3 volume set

Equality in the Primary School Dave Hill, Leena Helavaara Robertson, 2011-11-24 Drawing on a wealth of knowledge from a diverse group of contributors this volume addresses the importance of going beyond equal opportunities The contributors provide a compelling argument for promoting equality in primary schools Issues covered include social class race gender sexual orientation disability and special educational needs with reference to all subjects taught at primary school
