Rebellion In Black Africa:

Rebellion in Black Africa Robert I. Rotberg, 1971 Rebellion in Black Africa Robert J. Rotberg, 1971 Rebellion in Black Africa. Edited and with an Introduction by Robert I. Rotberg Robert Irwin ROTBERG, 1971 Rebellion in Black Africa; Ed. and with an Intro Robert I. Rotberg, 1971 Routes of Passage: Rethinking the African Diaspora Ruth Simms Hamilton, 2006-11-09 Routes of Passage provides a conceptual substantive and empirical orientation to the study of African people worldwide The book addresses issues of geographical mobility and geosocial displacement changing culture political and economic relationships between Africa and its diaspora interdiaspora relations political and economic agency and social mobilization including cultural production and psychocultural transformation existence in hostile and oppressive political and territorial space and confronting interconnected relations of social inequality especially class gender nationality and race Black Africa versus Arab North Africa: The Great Divide Willie Moles, This work examines the gulf that exists in terms of relations between the Arab countries of North Africa and the predominantly black countries south of the Sahara desert Subjects covered include the hostility black people face in the North African countries and why the people in those countries don't even consider themselves to be Africans but consider themselves to be a part of the Middle East not Africa in spite of the fact that their countries are on the African continent The brutal treatment black Africans suffer in all the countries of North Africa Morocco Algeria Tunisia Libya and Egypt has caused severe strains on relations between the people of sub Saharan Africa and those in the northern part of the continent raising questions of how black Africans in sub Saharan Africa should respond and whether or not maintaining ties between the two is even worth it There is a great divide between Arab North Africa and Black Africa symbolised by the Sahara desert whose significance is more political than geographical The rift between the two is deeply rooted in history and the author contends that innovative and radical solutions may be necessary to address the problem including a decision by sub Saharan countries to sever ties with North African countries as they did with apartheid South Africa and at the same time accepting the fact that the gulf that exists between the two may be permanent As former Tanzanian President Julius Nyerere who was a close friend of Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser stated in a speech in 1997 not long before he dies two years later Africa south of the Sahara is on its own

Anti-Refugee Violence and African Politics Ato Kwamena Onoma, 2013-10-07 Using comparative cases from Guinea Uganda and the Democratic Republic of Congo this study explains why some refugee hosting communities launch large scale attacks on civilian refugees whereas others refrain from such attacks even when encouraged to do so by state officials Ato Kwamena Onoma argues that such outbreaks only happen when states instigate them because of links between a few refugees and opposition groups Locals embrace these attacks when refugees are settled in areas that privilege residence over indigeneity in the distribution of rights ensuring that they live autonomously of local elites The resulting opacity of their lives leads locals to buy into their demonization by the state Locals do not buy into state denunciation of refugees in areas that privilege indigeneity over residence in the distribution of rights because refugees in such areas are subjugated to locals who come to know them very well Onoma reorients the study of refugees back to a focus on the disempowered civilian refugees that constitute the majority of refugees even in cases of severe refugee militarization Decolonisation and Regional Geopolitics Lazlo Passemiers,2019-03-11 Decolonisation and Regional Geopolitics argues that as much as the Congo crisis 1960 1965 was a Cold War battleground so too was it a battleground for Southern Africa s decolonisation This book provides a transnational history of African decolonisation apartheid diplomacy and Southern African nationalist movements It answers three central questions First what was the nature of South African involvement in the Congo crisis Second what was the rationale for this involvement Third how did South Africans perceive the crisis Innovatively the book shifts the focus on the Congo crisis away from Cold War intervention and centres it around African decolonisation and regional geopolitics
