Rebels Rapture:

Rapture's Betrayal Candace McCarthy, 2014-01-02 She Learned Of Love In A Time Of War When patriotic Kirsten Van Atta found a Continental soldier lying wounded in the woodland path near her New Jersey colony home she knew she must do what she could for the Revolutionary cause and nurse him back to health It was a risky undertaking there were British soldiers in residence at the local tavern But the greatest threat came from the soldier himself His broad shouldered strength and russet brown eyes made her long to embark on desire s rapturous course though she knew little about Richard Maddox except that he would soon leave her He Risked His Life For A Dangerous Passion Richard Maddox owed his life to the blond blue eyed ministering angel who d found him when he was near death But could he trust her when spies were everywhere and his mission was so important And what would she think if she saw him in his Tory uniform The dangers were many but in the midst of the horror of war he could not deny himself the chance to sample the pleasures that Kirsten s lush flesh and tender touch promised 110 000 Words

Cities at War Mary Kaldor, Saskia Sassen, 2020-03-31 Warfare in the twenty first century goes well beyond conventional armies and nation states In a world of diffuse conflicts taking place across sprawling cities war has become fragmented and uneven to match its settings Yet the analysis of failed states civil war and state building rarely considers the city rather than the country as the terrain of battle In Cities at War Mary Kaldor and Saskia Sassen assemble an international team of scholars to examine cities as sites of contemporary warfare and insecurity Reflecting Kaldor's expertise on security cultures and Sassen's perspective on cities and their geographies they develop new insight into how cities and their residents encounter instability and conflict as well as the ways in which urban forms provide possibilities for countering violence Through a series of case studies of cities including Baghdad Bogot Ciudad Juarez Kabul and Karachi the book reveals the unequal distribution of insecurity as well as how urban capabilities might offer resistance and hope Through analyses of how contemporary forms of identity inequality and segregation interact with the built environment Cities at War explains why and how political violence has become increasingly urbanized It also points toward the capacity of the city to shape a different kind of urban subjectivity that can serve as a foundation for a more peaceful and equitable future
