Rebuilding Iraq Actions Needed To Improve Use Of Private Security Providers:

Rebuilding Iraq William Solis (au), David Cooper (au), 2005-11 The U S is spending billions of dollars to reconstruct Iraq while combating an insurgency that has targeted military 2 the U S military 3 U S agencies assessed the costs of using private security providers on reconstruction contracts Includes recommendations to the Secretaries of Defense State the Admin U S Agency for International Development USAID Charts tables Iraq Reconstruction United States. Congress. House. Committee on Oversight and Government Reform, 2008 Hard Lessons: the Iraq Reconstruction Experience Stuart W. Bowen, 2009-05 A combination of poor planning weak oversight and greed cheated U S taxpayers and undermined American forces in Iraq and Afghanistan U S taxpayers have paid nearly 51 billion for projects in Iraq including training the Iraqi army and police and rebuilding Iraq s oil electric justice health and transportation sectors Many of the projects did not succeed partly because of violence in Iraq and friction between U S officials in Washington and Iraqi officials in Baghdad The U S gov t was neither prepared for nor able to respond quickly to the ever changing demands of stabilizing Iraq and then rebuilding it This report reviews the problems in the war effort which the Bush admin claimed would cost 2 4 billion Charts and tables Iraqi Reconstruction United States. Congress. House. Committee on Oversight and Government Reform, 2007

Private Security Firms Standards, Cooperation, and Coordination on the Battlefield United States. Congress. House. Committee on Government Reform. Subcommittee on National Security, Emerging Threats, and International Relations, 2007 Private security firms standards, cooperation, and coordination on the battlefield : hearing ,

Terrorism , 2009 Private Actors and Security Governance Alan Bryden, Marina Caparini, 2006 The privatization of security understood as both the top down decision to outsource military and security related tasks to private firms and the bottom up activities of armed non state actors such as rebel opposition groups insurgents militias and warlord factions has implications for the state s monopoly on the legitimate use of force Both top down and bottom up privatization have significant consequences for effective democratically accountable security sector governance as well as on opportunities for security sector reform across a range of different reform contexts This volume situates security privatization within a broader policy framework considers several relevant national and regional contexts and analyzes different modes of regulation and control relating to a phenomenon with deep historical roots but also strong links to more recent trends of globalization and transnationalization Alan Bryden is deputy head of research at the Geneva Centre for the Democratic Control of Armed Forces DCAF Marina Caparini is senior research fellow at the Geneva Centre for the Democratic Control of Armed Forces DCAF Handbook of Defence Politics Isaiah (Ike) Wilson III, James Forest, 2011-03-28 Issues of defence politics and policy have long been at the forefront of political agendas and defining of international affairs However the dramatic changes to the global system that have taken place since the end of the Cold War and parrrticularly since the terror attacks on the USA on 11 September 2001 have amplified the world s attention toward political and policy issues of national regional and global security The focus of this volume is on examining the fundamental causes of and defence policy responses to this new post 9 11 security environment Edited by Isaiah Ike Wilson III and James J F Forest of the US Military Academy West Point USA this volume is international in scope with pieces written by experts in the field offering a collection of up to date and balanced insights on key contemporary issues of concern to defence policymakers The book will be an invaluable reference tool for academics and students researchers in international relations policymakers media professionals and government officials

Betraying Our Troops Dina Rasor,Robert Bauman,2007-05-01 In this shocking expos two government fraud experts reveal how private contractors have put the lives of countless American soldiers on the line while damaging our strategic interests and our image abroad From the shameful war profiteering of companies like Halliburton KBR to the sinister influence that corporate lobbyists have on American foreign policy Dina Rasor and Robert H Bauman paint a disturbing picture Here they give the inside story on troops forced to subsist on little food and contaminated water on officers afraid to lodge complaints because of Halliburton s political clout on millions of dollars in contractors bogus claims that are funded by American taxpayers Drawing on exclusive sources within government and the military the authors show how money and power have conspired to undermine our fighting forces and threaten the security of our country
