Radical Poetics and Secular Jewish Culture Stephen Paul Miller, Daniel Morris, 2010 This collection of essays is the first to address this often obscured dimension of modern and contemporary poetry the secular Jewish dimension Editors Daniel Morris and Stephen Paul Miller asked their contributors to address what constitutes radical poetry written by Jews defined as secular and whether or not there is a Jewish component or dimension to radical and modernist poetic practice in general These poets and critics address these questions by exploring the legacy of those poets who preceded and influenced them Stein Zukofsky Reznikoff Oppen and Ginsberg among others collective effort It appears at a moment in which Israelis not only must confront their Arab neighbors but must deal with one another as Jews possessing radically different views on the present and future of the Jewish tradition With this seventh volume of the series the Israeli Sociological Society has turned its attention to religion an area that for many years has been of high importance but low profile in Israeli affairs and in the wider Middle Eastern context Chapters and contributors include Jewish Civilization Approaches to Problems of Israeli Society by Shmuel N Eisenstadt Life Tradition and Book Tradition in the Development of Ultraorthodox Judaism by Menachem Friedman Religious Kibbutzim Judaism and Modernization by Aryeh Fishman The Religion of Elderly Oriental Jewish Women by Susan Sered and Hanukkah and the Myth of the Maccabees in Ideology and in Society by Eliezer Don Yehiya The increasing presence of religious activism in contemporary Israel side by side with subtle changes in the religion of Israeli Sephardim makes the topic of religion essential for an understanding of Israel and much of the Middle East generally Israeli Judaism is a significant work and will be of interest to theologians philosophers sociologists anthropologists and political theorists
