River Line A Play:

Actors on Red Alert Anthony Slide,1999 The anti Communist hysteria that began in the 1930s was further empowered in 1938 when the House of Representatives established the House Committee on UnAmerican Activities Soon thereafter the creation of the blacklist in the late 1940s brought the Hollywood film and television community into the fold Provocatively capturing the controversy and sentiments surrounding this period of political imbalance Actors on Red Alert explores the repercussions of the blacklist through career interviews with five prominent actors and actresses Natya ,1962 The Play about My Dad Boo Killebrew,2018-06-27 Dad Could you start But you know like it s you just talking It s not easy putting on a play It s even harder when your dad is the lead character he s playing himself and even though you re the professional playwright and he s the emergency surgeon he keeps trying to rewrite your script After Hurricane Katrina swept through her home town Boo was determined to write a play about it But she never imagined it would be this hard THE RIVER LINE. BY CHARLES MORGAN. Charles Morgan,1949 Dramatic Critic Charles Morgan,2013-05-20 Charles Morgan was the dramatic critic of The Times for most of the years between 1922 and 1939 The reviews for this small selection are taken from thousands written for The Times and from his weekly articles for the New York Times on the London theatre Morgan was widely regarded as the most influential critic of his day His fellow critic James Agate wrote When Morgan is on form he has us all beat Though most were written overnight for the following day s paper they were given space allowed to no modern critic Beautifully written they bring to life many of the great actors and actresses and the dramatists old and new as the theatre moved from the frivolous Twenties into the shadow of another war and towards the modern theatre of today As they mirror the development of English theatrical taste in the inter war years they are as much a delight to read both witty and erudite as they are an important historical record A Bookman's Catalogue Vol. 2 M-End T. Bose,R. N. Colbeck,2011-11-01 The Colbeck collection was formed over half a century ago by the Bournemouth bookseller Norman Colbeck Focusing primarily on British essayists and poets of the nineteenth century from the Romantic Movement through the Edwardian era the collection features nearly 500 authors and lists over 13 000 works Entries are alphabetically arranged by author with copious notes on the condition and binding of each copy Nine appendices provide listings of selected periodicals series publications anthologies yearbooks and topical works Paul Scofield Garry O'Connor,2002-02-02 Scofield however is adamantly not a celebrity actor As guardian of his craft and integrity he has kept himself most carefully out of the limelight This in fact is the first full biography of him Garry O Connor highly respected for his theatrical biographies presents a richly drawn fully dimensional portrait of the great actor O Connor interviewed the intensely private Scofield himself as well as many of the actors and directors he has worked with including Simon Callow Trevor Nunn Richard Eyre and Peter Hall The result is a biography of one of the past century s most remarkable and enigmatic icons BOOK JACKET Creative Canada ,1971-12-15 Did he ever play Hamlet Has she worked in television What was the title of his first novel Under whom did she study How many children has he Answers to such questions about contemporary Canadian artists have often been difficult even impossible to find This series has been created to provide the answers it covers creative and performing artists who have contributed as individuals to the culture of Canada in the twentieth century Each volume in the series presents a cross section of many different kinds of artists authors of imaginative works artists and sculptors musicians performers composers conductors and directors and performing artists in ballet modern dance radio theatre television and motion pictures directors designers and producers in theatre cinema radio television and the dance choreographers and for cinema cartoonists and animators Within each category of art is included a selection of those who have achieved national and international recognition those who have been recognized locally and some now deceased who markedly influenced their contemporaries locally nationally or internationally This is not a critical compilation rather it is an objective and factual reference work for those interested in contemporary Canadian culture Information was collected by painstaking research in a wide variety of sources and wherever possible it has been verified by the artist to make each entry as accurate and comprehensive as possible

Alumnae Theatre Company: Nonprofessionalizing Theatre in Canada Robin C. Whittaker, Metropolitan Philadelphia Steven Conn, 2006-06-28 The Philadelphia region has witnessed virtually every major political economic and social transformation of American life Having once been an industrial giant the region is now struggling to fashion a new identity in a postindustrial world Looking at the region through the wide lens of its culture and history Metropolitan Philadelphia moves seamlessly between past and present Displaying a specialist's knowledge of the area as well as a deep personal connection to his subject Conn examines the shifting meaning of the region's history the utopian impulse behind its founding the role of the region in creating the American middle class the regional watershed and the way art and cultural institutions have given shape to a resident identity Impressionistic and beautifully written Metropolitan Philadelphia will be of great interest to urbanists and at the same time accessible to the wider public intrigued in the rich history and cultural dynamics of this fascinating region What emerges from the book is a wide ranging understanding of what it means to say I'm from Philadelphia
