River Underground An Anthology Of Nevada Fiction:

The River Underground Shaun Timothy Griffin, 2001 Short stories and exciting excerpts from Nevada writers offer a sampler of literary talent from the Silver State Few readers outside Nevada are aware of the richness and diversity of the state's literary community or of the number of nationally respected writers who make the state their home and often the subject matter of their work Editor Shaun T Griffin in this compelling anthology of contemporary fiction from Nevada makes a very convincing case that the state's wealth runs to far more than glitz and gold Here we find a delightful and long forgotten story by the doyen of Nevada writers Robert Laxalt a moving story by Adrian C Louis a Native American from Lovelock who has won national acclaim for his powerful fiction and poetry about reservation life and excerpts from work by best selling writers Teresa Jordan Steven Nightingale Douglas Unger and Richard Wiley Settings range from rural Nevada to rural post revolutionary China from the excitement of Las Vegas to a Basque immigrant household in Carson City from the hills of Appalachia to the Pacific during World War II Characters include a pair of Mormon teenagers trying to escape the moral rigors of their faith a fugitive Shoshone Indian trying to preserve the ways of his ancestors against the pressures of history an immigrant family in Las Vegas coping with the father's final illness a trio of escaped prisoners bent on revenge and an aging African American jazz musician and more Here is work by writers whose names are known to readers of fine fiction everywhere and work by talented newcomers for whom this is a first publishing venue but surely not the last Editor Griffin has provided for each selection a brief biographical sketch of the author and some comments on the qualities of the piece that prompted its inclusion in the anthology As a collection of fiction this is exciting reading provocative often moving sometimes startling in its brilliance It demonstrates unequivocally that writing and writers are flourishing in Nevada and that the state's literary community is remarkably abundant in talent creativity and the range of its voices and concerns

Underground Rivers Richard J. Heggen, 2021-01-01 Underground rivers in science history the arts and any number of sightings elsewhere On the move Aitor Ibarrola-Armendariz, Jon Ortiz de Urbina Arruabarrena, 2016-07-29 This volume brings together a selection of the papers and round tables delivered at the 39th AEDEAN Conference held at the University of Deusto in November 2015 The essays in On the Move Glancing Backwards to Build a Future in English Studies often begin with typically academic gestures such as retrieving a classic text and finding new ways of studying its genre or characterization or remarking how certain ungrammatical constructions have gone frequently unnoticed even in well known texts for various reasons or entangling oneself in contentions about the adequacy of dissecting a literary text or linguistic problem by using innovative analytical tools In all cases though there is the intention of putting forth certain views and notions that will help future scholars to deal in a better light with the dilemmas regularly encountered in literary linguistic and cultural studies The book opens with three essays by professors Bartholomae Pullum and R o who demonstrate not only their mastery in their respective subjects but also their ability to tailor their contents to multifarious audiences The next two sections represent the main body of the e book with nearly forty contributions on both literature and cultural studies Part II and language and linguistics Part III These short academic pieces are a representative showcase of the research being done lately in the different areas of expertise The last section of the volume gathers together the results of four research projects dealing with such engaging topics as postcolonial crime fiction or forgotten texts by Anglo writers about the Spanish Civil War It is hard to think of any potential reader schooled in English Studies who will not find something suitable to their interests and tastes in this volume
