Road Is Wider Than Long Getty:

The photobook world Paul Ernest Michael Edwards, 2023-02-28 This volume sets out to challenge and ultimately broaden the category of the photobook It critiques the popular art market definition of the photobook as simply a photographer's book proposing instead to show how books and photos come together as collective cultural productions Focusing on North American British and French photobooks from 1920 to the present the chapters revisit canonical works by Claudia Andujar and George Love Mohamed Bourouissa Walker Evans Susan Meiselas and Roland Penrose while also delving into institutional digital and unrealised projects illegal practices DIY communities and the poetic impulse They throw new light on the way that gendered racial or colonial assumptions are resisted Taken as a whole the volume provides a better understanding of how the meaning of a photobook is collectively produced both inside and outside the art market

Photopoetry 1845-2015 Michael Nott, 2018-05-31 From amateur experiments in scrapbooks and stereographs to contemporary photobook collaborations between leading practitioners poets and photographers have created an art form that continues to evolve and deserves critical exploration Photopoetry 1845 2015 a Critical History represents the first account of this challenging and diverse body of work Nott traces the development of photopoetic collaboration from its roots in 19th century illustrative practices to the present day Focusing on work from the UK and US he examines how and why poets and photographers collaborate and explores the currents of exchange and engagement between poems and photographs on the page The book not only considers canonical figures but brings to light forgotten practitioners whose work questioned and shaped the relationship between word and image Photopoetry 1845 2015 a Critical History provides a new lens through which to explore poetry photography and the spaces between them

The Publishers Weekly, 2003 Aperture, 2003 Doing Diversity Differently in a Culturally Complex World Megan Watkins, Greg Noble, 2021-10-07 Doing Diversity Differently in a Culturally Complex World explores the challenges facing multicultural education in the 21st century It argues that the ideas fashioned in 1970s multiculturalism are no longer adequate for the culturally complex world in which we now live Much multicultural education celebrates superficial forms of difference and avoids difficult questions around culture in an age of transnational flows and hybrid identities Megan Watkins and Greg Noble explore the understandings of multiculturalism that exist amongst teachers parents and students They demonstrate that ideas around culture and identity don't match the complexities of the social contexts of schooling in migrant based nations such as Australia the UK the USA Canada and New Zealand Doing Diversity Differently in a Culturally Complex World draws on comprehensive research undertaken in Australian schools It examines how a diverse range of schools address the challenges that superdiversity poses considering how the strengths and limitations of each school's approach reflect wider logics of traditional multiculturalism In contrast the authors argue for a transformative multiculturalism involving a critically reflexive approach to understanding the processes relations and identities of the contemporary world With a Foreword by Fazal Rivzi Emeritus Professor University of Illinois at Urbana

Thompson,2023-09-11 Every fall Dad and his buddies drove 200 miles to Jack Hochlander s tiny unheated Adirondack cabin centrally located in the middle of nowhere to hunt deer In 1957 Dad became part owner making him the happiest man on earth Now outside hunting season he brought my brothers and me along teaching us the ways of the woods and how not to cook We had an absolute blast As Dad said We don t have a lot of money but we have a lot of fun The cabin became my favorite place on earth too Given a choice I d take a weekend at the cabin over Christmas I can t wait for the day you fellas do the driving he d say sucking on a smoke steering his latest jalopy up the crumbling old roads I ll just relax look out the window and watch the woods go by I m really looking forward to that Twenty years later on his sixty third birthday February 6 1979 he got his wish but I was the only driver My brothers wisely chose not to come I thought we d have a great time snowshoeing swapping stories around the wood stove but I never factored in his drinking Saturday night drunk he challenged a group of reviled snowmobilers at the Deer Head Inn and barely escaped with his life So much for our glorious weekend After his untimely death at 73 his youngest son Graham took over the cabin That didn t last long directly across our road a huge new house was built spoiling our serenity wrecking our wilderness and Graham was gone now at long last the place was mine Like Dad I started bringing my kids up Would they feel the same magic Dad and I felt there years before The Sources of Surrealism Neil Matheson,2006 Surrealism is a particularly complex international movement embracing both the literary and the visual arts while lacking any single visual or literary style and this together with its long existence has served to generate a very substantial body of writings poetry novels essays theoretical writings manifestoes and other documents which might be considered as fundamental to any proper understanding of the movement The Sources of Surrealism is a comprehensive sourcebook documenting the origins and development of Surrealism internationally through a collection of 234 original documents The texts have been selected from across the whole range of Surrealist writing as well as including influential predecessors like Rimbaud and Lautreamont and contemporaries such as Raymond Roussel and Alfred Jarry Texts are published in English throughout with new translations provided for previously untranslated material The book addresses for the first time the neglected area of the relationship between Surrealism and popular culture including Surrealism s engagement with cinema and attempts to address the increased critical interest in what in the past were more neglected figures such as Michel Leiris and Georges Bataille Particular emphasis is given to the earlier documents and influences upon the Surrealist movement as well as to the period of its internationalism during the 1930s and the texts cover Surrealism in Britain and Belgium as well as France This fascinating collection presents what was most vital about this complex and often contradictory movement and serves as an essential reference book for scholars as well as stimulating reading for all those with a general interest in the subject
