Road Through The Rain Forest Living Anthropology In Highland Papua New Guinea:

Road through the Rain Forest David Hayano, 1990-01-01 On the remote steep slopes of the grassland and rain forests of Highland Papua New Guinea live the Awa subsisting on root crops and raising domestic pigs Like many cultures the Awa must deal with and find solutions to the problems of human social existence inevitable and rapid culture change interpersonal squabbles lying and deceit adultery sorcery and unexpected death They wait ambivalently for the building of a road that would put them in direct contact with the encroaching world of trade stores outdoor markets schools and the government station In the middle of this walks an anthropologist who learns that fieldwork is first and foremost about understanding lives both his and theirs This book is a personal narrative that provides an intimate glimpse of the actual conduct of fieldwork among diverse individuals with remarkably distinct views of their own culture It is an account of intertwined lives of living anthropology and a road of hope and promise despair and tragedy

Globalization and Papua New Guinea: Ancient Wilderness, Paradise, Introduced Terror and Hell Falk Huettmann, 2023-04-26 This book aims to present a reality view for Papua New Guinea based on many years of first hand field work and research accounts It further assesses sustainability in the light of 47 000 years of a self sustained type of civilization without bad global impacts This book contrasts the modern sustainable development failures from the colonial times onwards as promoted by the western world namely Australia the UK EU and the U S as well as Japan and now China in times of globalization Trump ism and royal governance Papua New Guinea is still part of the British Dominion and of the Antarctic Treaty etc This assessment and book is the first of its kind also employing modern data analysis Landscape Ecology principles patterns and processes telecoupling and Geographic Information Systems GIS with Open Access data focusing on ecological economics marxism socialism and contrasting it with current capitalism and neoliberalism that Papua New Guinea is fully exposed to Throughout the 31 book chapters various aspects are covered how a further insistence on the new Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and so called Development Aid will result in unwanted side effects and perverse outcomes for Papua New Guinea and for the world in times of wider global change and unprecedented man made crisis

The Ending of Tribal Wars Jürg Helbling, Tobias Schwoerer, 2021-03-24 All over the world and throughout millennia states have attempted to subjugate control and dominate non state populations and to end their wars This book compares such processes of pacification leading to the end of tribal warfare in seven societies from all over the world between the 19th and 21st centuries It shows that pacification cannot be understood solely as a unilateral imposition of state control but needs to be approached as the result of specific interactions between state actors and non state local groups Indigenous groups usually had options in deciding between accepting and resisting state control State actors often had to make concessions or form alliances with indigenous groups in order to pursue their goals Incentives given to local groups sometimes played a more important role in ending warfare than repression In this way indigenous groups in interaction with state actors strongly shaped the character of the process of pacification This volume's comparison finds that pacification is more successful and more durable where state actors mainly focus on selective incentives for local groups to renounce warfare offer protection and only as a last resort use moderate repression combined with the quick establishment of effective institutions for peaceful conflict settlement Engaging with Capitalism Fiona McCormack, Kate Barclay, 2013-05-14 The volume addresses how capitalism has been very effective in generating wealth and technological innovation but has also been associated with social inequity and environmental damage Its inherent flaws have been highlighted by the escalation of ecological problems arising from growth oriented capitalism and various economic crises Steel to Stone Jeffrey L. Clark, 2000 Overall Clark provides a compelling picture of a contemporary Melanesian culture at the critical point at which the Wiru people are interpreting invoking and reinventing their history in the context of a developing nation state Jacket In the Shadow of the Palms Sophie Chao, 2022-05-02 With In the Shadow of the Palms Sophie Chao examines the multispecies entanglements of oil palm plantations in West Papua Indonesia showing how Indigenous Marind communities understand and navigate the social political and environmental demands of the oil palm plant As Chao notes it is no secret that the palm oil sector has destructive environmental impacts it greatly contributes to tropical deforestation and is a major driver of global warming Situating the plant and the transformations it has brought within the context of West Papua's volatile history of colonization ethnic domination and capitalist incursion Chao traces how Marind attribute environmental destruction not just to humans technologies and capitalism but also to the volition and actions of the oil palm plant itself By approaching cash crops as both drivers of destruction and subjects of human exploitation Chao rethinks capitalist violence as a multispecies act In the process Chao centers how Marind fashion their own changing worlds and foreground Indigenous creativity and decolonial approaches to anthropology Duke University Press Scholars of Color First Book Award recipient Handbook of Ethnography Paul Atkinson, 2001-03-22 This handbook provides a critical guide to the past present and future of ethnography Two-party Line Jane Carter Goodale, Ann Chowning, 1996 This honest glimpse into the nature of ethnographic fieldwork revolves around letters written by the author to illustrate the daily adventures of learning to understand a largely unknown culture through participant observation and interactive discourse Circulations Courtney Handman, 2025 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more In Circulations Courtney Handman examines the surprising continuities in the ways that modernist communications discourses shaped both colonial and decolonial projects in Papua New Guinea Often described as a place with too many mountains and too many languages to be modern Papua New Guinea was seen as a space of circulatory primitivity where people things and talk could not move Colonial missionaries and administrators and even anticolonial delegations of the United Nations Trusteeship Council argued that this circulatory primitivity could be overcome only through the management of communication infrastructures bureaucratic information flows and the introduction of English

Innovatively bringing together analyses of radios airplanes telepathy bureaucracy and lingua francas Circulations argues for the critical role of communicative networks and communicative imaginaries in political processes of colonialism and decolonization worldwide Azan on the Moon Till Mostowlansky,2017-05-04 Azan on the Moon is an in depth anthropological study of people s lives along the Pamir Highway in eastern Tajikistan Constructed in the 1930s in rugged high altitude terrain the road fundamentally altered the material and social fabric of this former Soviet outpost on the border with Afghanistan and China The highway initially brought sentiments of disconnection and hardship followed by Soviet modernization and development and ultimately a sense of distinction from bordering countries and urban centers that continues to this day Based on extensive fieldwork and through an analysis of construction mobility technology media development Islam and the state Till Mostowlansky shows how ideas of modernity are both challenged and reinforced in contemporary Tajikistan In the wake of China s rise in Central Asia people along the Pamir Highway strive to reconcile a modern future with a modern past Weaving together the road a population and a region Azan on the Moon presents a rich ethnography of global connections
