Bulletin of the Medford Public Library Medford Public Library (Medford, Mass.),1927 Deity and Domination David Nicholls,2003-09-02 Religion and politics are necessarily related declared Ronald Reagan while addressing an ecumenical prayer breakfast of 17 000 people in Dallas But how are they connected Many popular images of God King Lord and Judge are essentially political while concepts of might majesty dominion and power are used of both God and the state This ambitious and original work explores the relations between these images and their political context through the analogy between divine and civil government and considers what images of God may legitimately be employed by Christians in the twentieth century David Nicholls suggests that religious conceptions have often affected political thinking theological rhetoric child of political experience may also be mother of political change Drawing upon politics theology history sociology anthropology and literary criticism this important new book will be essential reading for all concerned with the relation between Christianity and politics Contested Truths Daniel T. Rodgers,1998 This is a witty erudite and original synthesis which in spite of its brevity gives density and connectedness to two centuries of American political thought Knights of the Golden Rule Peter J. Frederick,2014-07-15 This is a book about American intellectuals as would be social reformers and what happens to them in the arena of practical politics Specifically it examines the lives of ten highly idealistic Christian socialist and anarchist intellectuals of the 1890s who were profoundly influenced indeed inspired by the prophetic social messages and exemplary lives of Tolstoy Mazzini and Ruskin The ten Americans including ministers journalists professors and poets were constantly thwarted in their efforts to apply the Golden Rule and the ethics of Jesus not only to the socioeconomic institutions of their society but to their own lives as well These ten Christian knights rode high on clouds of words carrying swords of good intentions tilting at windmills often of their own despair As a result they paid the price as Emerson said of being too intellectual This is indeed a story of noble dreams frustration agonizing self doubts and ultimately of failure Peter J Frederick develops his argument by comparing and contrasting the intellectuals in pairs examining the many forms frustrated activism can take His study emerges as a critique of the Social Gospel movement from a New Left perspective implicitly it is a critique of the contemporary New Left approached with empathetic understanding Ethical decisive action he concludes is essential not only for effective reform but for the psychic well being of the intellectual
