Robert Bresson A Spiritual Style In Film:

Robert Bresson Joseph Cunneen, 2004-04-19 Although Robert Bresson is widely regarded by movie critics and students of the cinema as one of the greatest directors of the twentieth century his films are largely unknown and are rarely shown in the English speaking world Nonetheless Susan Sontag has called Bresson the master of the reflective mode in film Martin Scorsese suggested that a young filmmaker should ask Is it as tough as Bresson Is meaning as ruthlessly pared down as direct as unflinching in its gaze at aspects of life I might feel more comfortable ignoring Questions that every reader of this book and every viewer of Bresson s films will also ask Joseph Cunneen s book now in paperback introduces Bresson s movies to a broader audience assesses thirteen of his most significant films in the context of detailed plot summaries vivid descriptions of characters and settings and perceptive jargon free insights into the director s execution intention and technique Each of these films in its own way illustrates what Joseph Cunneen calls Bresson s spiritual style Though not necessarily focused on the explicitly religious they illustrate two complementary principles on the negative side the rejection of what the director called photographed theater with its artificiality and dependence on celebrity performers On the more positive side as Bresson himself expressed it the conviction that The supernatural is only the real rendered more precise real things seen close up

Robert Bresson Joseph E. Cunneen, 2003 Introducing Bresson s movies to a broad audience this volume assesses his work in the context of detailed plot summaries vivid descriptions of characters and settings and perceptive jargon free insights into the director s execution intention and technique

The Bressonians Codruța Morari, 2017-07-01 How should we understand film authorship in an era when the idea of the solitary and sovereign auteur has come under attack with critics proclaiming the death of the author and the end of cinema The Bressonians provides an answer in the form of a strikingly original study of Bresson and his influence on the work of filmmakers Jean Eustache and Maurice Pialat Extending the discourse of authorship beyond the idea of a singular visionary it explores how the imperatives of excellence function within cinema s pluralistic community Bresson s example offered both an artistic legacy and a creative burden within which filmmakers reckoned in different often arduous and altogether compelling ways

Bresson and Others Bert Cardullo, 2009 A number of writers have attempted to capture Robert Bresson s style as well as his substance with such terms as minimalist austere ascetic elliptical autonomous pure even gentle Most famously Paul Schrader once called Bresson s films transcendental while Susan Sontag described them as spiritual Both these critics thus extended in anglicized form a tendency that had early been dominant in Bresson criticism in France the attempt made by such Catholic writers as Andre Bazin Henri Agel Roger Leenhardt and Amedee Ayfre to understand Bresson s work in religious terms seeing his camera as a kind of god and the material world as paradoxically a thing of the spirit That attempt in Sontag s essay led to the introduction of Bresson to the New York based avant garde of the 1960s and 1970s whose films such as Richard Serra s Hand Catching Lead 1968 for one show the influence of the French director s severe reductivist style Jean Luc Godard of course needed no such critical introduction to Robert Bresson for in his iconoclasm and integrity in his rejection of the Gallic Cinema du Papa as well as in his embrace of film as an independent art Bresson was one of the heroes of the young directors who constituted the French New Wave in the early 1960s So much so that Godard was moved to say in Cahiers du cinema in 1957 that Bresson is French cinema as Dostoyevsky is the Russian novel and Mozart is German music The result is that Bresson has undeniably influenced a slew of contemporary European filmmakers including Chantal Akerman Olivier Assayas Laurent Cantet Alain Cavalier Jean Pierre and Luc Dardenne Claire Denis Jacques Doillon Bruno Dumont Michael Haneke Benoit Jacquot and Maurice Pialat not to speak of his influence on Asian and American cinema Bresson and Others Spiritual Syle in the Cinema is an attempt to document this influence through essays on fifteen international directors who followed in Bresson s wake who in fact may have influenced him Carl Dreyer or who contemporaneously worked veins similar to those found in Bresson s films Ingmar Bergman Yasujiro Ozu These essays are preceded by an introduction to the cinema of Robert Bresson and followed by film credits a bibliography of criticism and an index The subject of Bresson and Others then may specifically be Bressonian cinema but in a general sense it could also be said to be spirit and matter or film and faith

Film, Lacan and the Subject of Religion Steve Nolan, 2009-09-23 In their study of religion and film religious film analysts have tended to privilege religion Uniquely this study treats the two disciplines as genuine equals by regarding both liturgy and film as representational media Steve Nolan argues that in each case subjects identify with a represented other which joins them into a narrative where they become participants in an ideological reality Finding many current approaches to religious film analysis lacking Film Lacan and the Subject of Religion explores the film theory other writers ignore particularly that mix of psychoanalysis Marxism and semiotics often termed Screen theory that attempts to understand how cinematic representation shapes spectator identity Using translations and commentary on Lacan not originally available to Screen theorists Nolan returns to Lacan's contribution to psychoanalytic film theory and offers a sustained application to religious practice examining several priest films and real life case study to expose the way liturgical representation shapes religious identity Film Lacan and the Subject of Religion proposes an interpretive strategy by which religious film analysts can develop the kind of analysis that engages with and critiques both cultural and religious practice
