Roberte Ce Soir Pierre Klossowski,1969 The Delirium of Praise Eleanor Kaufman,2003-05-01 The laudatory essay in which one author praises the work of another is frequently characterized as an unimportant even uncritical mode of writing But as Eleanor Kaufman argues in The Delirium of Praise this mode of exchange is serious and substantial enough to merit scholarly attention By not conforming to standard practices of critical discourse laudatory essays give new status to supposedly inferior forms of communication and states of being including chatter silence sickness imbalance and absence of work and emphasize affective states or emotions such as joy friendship and longing The Delirium of Praise examines a group of five twentieth century French intellectuals Georges Bataille Maurice Blanchot Michel Foucault Gilles Deleuze and Pierre Klossowski and their laudatory essays about each other Structured as a circular series of exchanges the book examines pairings of two thinkers with respect to a given theme The exchange between Bataille and Blanchot takes up the themes of chatter and silence with regard to the novelist Louis Ren des For ts the Blanchot Foucault exchange explores friendship and impersonality through the lens of Jacques Derrida the Foucault Deleuze exchange considers absence of work d soeuvement and the obscure French philosopher Jacques Martin the Deleuze Klossowski exchange revolves around the question of the sick body and the person of Nietzsche and the final exchange between Klossowski and Bataille focuses on imbalanced economies and the writings of the Marquis de Sade Where the praise is most excessive approaching delirium Kaufman locates a powerful thought energy that pushes the laudatory essay to its limits In her conclusion she presents this unique mode of thought exchange as a form of intellectual hospitality Kaufman uncovers a suspension of subjectivity of personality even of place and time that is both articulated in the laudatory essays and enacted by them Her examination of this neglected mode as practiced by five important French thinkers offers a unique perspective on twentieth century intellectual history

The Logic of Gilles Deleuze Corry Shores,2020-10-15 French philosopher Gilles Deleuze wrote two logic books Francis Bacon The Logic of Sensation and The Logic of Sense However in neither of these books nor in any other works does Deleuze articulate in a formal way the features of the logic he employs He certainly does not use classical logic And the best options for the non classical logic that he may be implementing are fuzzy intuitionist and many valued These are applicable to his concepts of heterogeneous composition and becoming affirmative synthetic disjunction and powers of the false In The Logic of Gilles Deleuze Basic Principles Corry Shores examines the applicability of three non classical logics to Deleuze s philosophy by building from the philosophical and logical writings of Graham Priest the world s leading proponent of dialetheism Through so doing Shores argues that Deleuze s logic is best understood as a dialetheic paraconsistent many valued logic The Cinema of Ra l Ruiz Michael Goddard,2013-09-22 Ra l Ruiz while considered one of the world s most significant filmmakers by several film critics is yet to be the subject of any thorough engagement with his work in English This volume sets out on this task by mapping as fully as possible Ruiz s cinematic trajectory across more than five decades of prolific work up to his death in 2011 ranging from his earliest work in Chile to high budget European costume dramas culminating in Mysteries of Lisbon 2010 It does so by treating Ruiz's work with its surrealist magic realist popular cultural and neo Baroque sources as a type of impossible cinematic cartography mapping real imaginary and virtual spaces and crossing between different cultural contexts aesthetic strategies and technical media It argues that across the different phases of Ruiz's work identified there are key continuities such as the invention of singular cinematic images and the interrogation of their possible and impossible combinations

Apparitions, Daemons, and Emanations Charles Freeland, 2024-03-01 The book presents a new study of the visual arts and poetry in the work of three well known French writers and artists from the mid twentieth century Georges Bataille Pierre Klossowski and Henri Michaux Each was fiercely independent belonging to no school academy or political persuasion What do they have in common While the book's three central essays do not initially set out to establish comparisons between these writers common ground emerges a shared combat against culture a shared non representational artistic practice Their writing poetry and painting offer not a portrayal of things or ideas but rather an emanation or apparition of the unknown and the infinite one charged with deepening art's relation to life

Hospitality and Treachery in Western Literature James A. W. Heffernan, 2014-05-27 In works of Western literature ranging from Homer's Odyssey to Albee's Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf the giving and taking of hospitality is sometimes pleasurable but more often perilous Heffernan traces this leitmotiv through the history of our greatest writings including Christ's Last Supper Macbeth's murder of his royal guest and Camus's short story on French colonialism in Arab Algeria By means of such examples and many more this book considers what literary hosts hostesses and guests do to as well as for each other In doing so it shows how often treachery rends the fabric of trust that hospitality weaves

The Intoxication of Destruction in Theory, Culture and Media Erin K. Stapleton, 2025-10-01 This book examines the desire for and intoxication with destruction as it appears in cultural objects and representation arguing that all cultural and aesthetic value is fundamentally predicated on its own fragility as well as the living transience of those who make and encounter it Beginning with a philosophy of expenditure after Georges Bataille each chapter maps different operations of destruction in media and culture These operations are expressed and located in representations of human extinction and explosive architecture in execution and in eroticism and in media and digital archives which constitute a further destabilization of the notion of destruction in the dynamic between aspirational immortality and material volatility embedded in the archival systems of digital cultures

Antonin Artaud Edward Scheer, 2014-04-04 This resource collects for the first time some of the best criticism on Artaud's life and work from writers such as Jacques Derrida Julia Kristeva Maurice Blanchot Herbert Blau Leo Bersani and Susan Sontag Antonin Artaud was one of the most brilliant artists of the twentieth century His writing influenced entire generations from the French post structuralists to the American beatniks He was a key figure in the European cinema of the 1920s and 30s and his drawings and sketches have been displayed in some of the major art galleries of the Western world Possibly best known for his concept of a theatre of cruelty his legacy has been to re define the possibilities of live performance Containing some of the most intellectually adventurous and emotionally passionate writings on Artaud this book is essential reading for Artaud scholars working in arts disciplines including theatre film philosophy literature and fine art Jacques Derrida: Basic Writings Barry Stocker,2020-10-28 One of the most influential and controversial thinkers of the twentieth century Jacques Derrida s ideas on deconstruction have had a lasting impact on philosophy literature and cultural studies Jacques Derrida Basic Writings is the first anthology to present his most important philosophical writings and is an indispensable resource for all students and readers of his work Barry Stocker s clear and helpful introductions set each reading in context making the volume an ideal companion for those coming to Derrida s writings for the first time The selections themselves range from his most infamous works including Speech and Phenomena and Writing and Difference to lesser known discussion on aesthetics ethics and politics Melancholy, Love, and Time Peter G. Toohey,2010-03-11 Ancient literature features many powerful narratives of madness depression melancholy lovesickness simple boredom and the effects of such psychological states upon individual sufferers Peter Toohey turns his attention to representations of these emotional states in the Classical Hellenistic and especially the Roman imperial periods in a study that illuminates the cultural and aesthetic significance of this emotionally charged literature His probing analysis shows that a shifting representation of these afflicted states and the concomitant sense of isolation from one s social affinities and surroundings manifests a developing sense of the self and self consciousness in the ancient world This book makes important contributions to a variety of disciplines including classical studies comparative literature literary and art history history of medicine history of emotions psychiatry and psychology Peter Toohey is Professor and Department Head of Greek and Roman Studies at the University of Calgary Canada
