Silent No More John Potter, 2022-08-08 Suicide is a leading cause of death More people die from suicide than in all of the combined wars conflicts and natural disasters across the globe Suicide is also an issue that few seem willing to discuss Suicide remains a hidden or taboo topic Stigma culture and theological misunderstanding are contributing factors to this reality Silent No More A Christian Response to Suicide examines how scripture spiritual practices and congregations can address suicide Religion spirituality is frequently listed as a strong protective factor against suicide Years of research studies and literature show that religion spirituality is even stronger when beliefs religious activity and community are engaged to support people at risk of suicide Religion spirituality must be fully integrated into suicide prevention plans and efforts if a total wellness approach of spirit mind and body are to be utilized The book also addresses that Christian congregations must have love soaked people who are ready to provide community and fellowship to hurting people inside and outside of the church doors The author concludes the book with seven steps that will enable congregations and churches leaders to help those who are at risk of suicide These strategies can make simple strides to address suicide and help hurting people in any community It is time for Christian communities to rejoin the battle against suicide Christianity has a rich legacy of caring for people in crisis historically having started hospitals mental health centers and compassionate care ministries There is a way for Christianity to regain its voice and care for people at risk of suicide It is time for Christians to be silent no more

The Late Novels of Eudora Welty Jan Nordby Gretlund, Karl-Heinz Westarp, 1998 The Late Novels of Eudora Welty offers readings of two of the works considered to be Welty's most exciting both in innovative technique and postmodern existential statement Fourteen new essays by internationally distinguished critics of Southern literature provide focused appraisals of Welty's last two novels Losing Battles 1970 a provocative experiment in narration and Pulitzer Prize winning The Optimist's Daughter 1972 a profound comment on our time

Many Peoples, One Land Alethea K. Helbig, Agnes Regan Perkins, 2000-10-30 Celebrating the wealth of quality multicultural literature recently published for children and young adults this valuable resource examines the fiction oral tradition and poetry from four major ethnic groups in the United States Each of these genres is considered in turn for the literature dealing with African Americans Asian Americans Hispanic Americans and

Native American Indians Taking up where their earlier volume This Land is Our Land left off Helbig and Perkins have teamed up once again to identify and expertly evaluate more than 500 multicultural books published from 1994 through 1999 Both considered authorities in the field of children s literature the two of them personally selected read and evaluated all the books included here Their insightful annotations help readers carefully consider both literary standards such as plot development characterization and style as well as cultural values as they are represented in these cited works Each entry also indicates the suggested age and grade level appropriateness of the work With the proliferation and ever increasing popularity of multicultural literature for children and young adults this sensitively written volume will serve as an invaluable collection development tool Teachers as well as librarians will find the comprehensiveness and organization of this bibliography helpful as a guide in selecting appropriate materials for classroom use Even students will find this book easy to use with its five indexes identifying works by title writer illustrator grade level and subject Public libraries and school media centers will find much use for Many Peoples One Land

Conversations with John A. Williams Jeffrey Allen

Tucker,2018-02-20 One of the most prolific African American authors of his time John A Williams 1925 2015 made his mark as a journalist educator and writer Having worked for Newsweek Ebony and Jet magazines Williams went on to write twelve novels and numerous works of nonfiction A vital link between the Black Arts movement and the previous era Williams crafted works of fiction that relied on historical research as much as his own finely honed skills From The Man Who Cried I Am a roman clef about expatriate African American writers in Europe to Clifford s Blues a Holocaust novel told in the form of the diary entries of a gay black jazz pianist in Dachau these representations of black experiences marginalized from official histories make him one of our most important writers Conversations with John A Williams collects twenty three interviews with the three time winner of the American Book Award beginning with a discussion in 1969 of his early works and ending with a previously unpublished interview from 2005 Gathered from print periodicals as well as radio and television programs these interviews address a range of topics including anti black violence Williams s WWII naval service race and publishing interracial romance Martin Luther King Jr growing up in Syracuse the Prix de Rome scandal traveling in Africa and Europe and his reputation as an angry black writer The conversations prove valuable given how often Williams drew from his own life and career for his fiction They display the integrity social engagement and artistic vision that make him a writer to be reckoned with

A Black Philadelphia Reader Louis J. Parascandola,2024-06-11

The relationship between the City of Brotherly Love and its Black residents has been complicated from the city s founding through the present day A Black Philadelphia Reader traces this complex history in the words of Black writers who were native to lived in or had significant connections to the city Featuring the works of famous authors including W E B Du Bois Harriet Jacobs Sonia Sanchez and John Edgar Wideman alongside lesser known voices this reader is an immersive and enriching composite portrait of the Black experience in Philadelphia Through fiction and nonfiction poetry and prose readers witness episodes of racial prejudice and gender inequality in areas like public health housing education policing criminal justice and public transportation And yet amid these myriad challenges the writers convey an enduring faith a love of family and community and a hope that Philadelphia will fulfill its promises to its Black citizens Thoughtfully introduced and accompanied by notes that contextualize the works and aid readers comprehension this book will appeal to a wide audience of Philadelphians and other readers interested in American African American and urban studies Sitting In The Fire Arnold Mindell,2014 Arnold Mindell Ph D shows how working with power rank revenge and abuse helps build sustainable communities Mindell is the co founder of processwork and author of numerous books including Quantum Mind The Deep Democracy of Open Forums and The Leader as Martial Artist He has appeared on national radio and television and works internationally with multi racial and highly conflicted groups
