Lost World Of The Kalahari:

The Lost World of the Kalahari Laurens Van der Post, 1958 An account of the author's search for the vanishing Bushmen of South Africa The Lost World of the Kalahari with "The Great and the Little Memory" a New Epilogue Laurens Van der Post, 1963 The Lost World of the Kalahari, 1996 The Lost World of the Kalahari Laurens Van der Post, 1988 Seventy five stunning color photographs have been added as well as an epilogue by the author The Lost World of the Kalahari. (New Edition with Illustrations.) Laurens Van der Post, 1961 Loneliness and Time Mark Cocker, 1992 Refreshing original and eminently readable The Literary Review Loneliness and Time is a pioneering study of travel writing as a literary form and of travel as a cultural phenomenon Mark Cocker offers a fertile mixture of biography history and literary criticism in his portraits of some of the most prominent twentieth century British explorer writers including Wilfred Thesiger Laurens van der Post Gavin Maxwell and Lawrence Durrell and of the places Greece Tibet that obsessed them In scrutinizing the deep drives that impelled these men to the outer reaches Cocker makes clear the immensely powerful idea of the journey as quest as pilgrimage and how it has come to carry mythological and spiritual import In each portrait the journey's meaning is unearthed layer by layer and we see not only how it operates in the lives of the travelers themselves but its importance to the modern industrial and largely secular societies from which these figures emerge Cocker shows how foreign landscapes and their inhabitants have been used by travel writers as a means to self definition as well as a source of image fantasy even self image Loneliness and Time illuminates the appeal of travel the desire to explore the unfamiliar and the strange that captivates us all BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved San Representation Keyan Tomaselli, Michael Wessels, 2017-12-22 The San or Bushmen of southern Africa have exerted a fascination over generations of writers and scholars from novelists and anarchists to ethnologists and geneticists and also occupy a special place in the popular imagination as the First People and the contemporary remnant of spiritual and natural man The ways in which particular groups of people from southern Africa have been traditionally categorised and positioned as objects of scrutiny by a range of academic disciplines is increasingly being contested and questioned There is a growing awareness of the cultural economic and genetic entanglement of the peoples of the region This book examines how San and Khoe people are represented by others as well as by those who identify as San or Khoe The book interrogates the ways in which disciplines through their methodologies and ways of authorising knowledge not only discover or reveal knowledge but produce it in ways that involve complex and often ambiguous relationships with power structures and forms of intellectual symbolic and cultural capital One major trend that emerges is that the San and Khoe can no longer be seen as people of the past but have to be acknowledged as contemporary and socially situated individuals and communities who are increasingly contesting the representations which others have imposed on them This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Arts A Journal of South North Cultural and Media Studies SPIRITUAL BELIEFS 2018 HENRY

Hitchcock,2023-11-08 This book presents a critical review of the ethics of conservation related resettlement We examine what has become known as the parks versus people debate also known as the new conservation debate which has pitted indigenous and other local people against nation states and social scientists against ecologists and conservationists for the past several decades Aiming to promote biodiversity conservation and habitat preservation some biologists park planners and conservation organizations have recommended that indigenous and other people should be removed from protected areas Local people for their part have argued that residents of the areas that were turned into protected areas national parks game reserves and monuments had managed them in productive ways for generations and that they should have the right to remain there and to use natural resources as long as they do so sustainably This position is often supported by indigenous rights organizations and social scientists especially anthropologists There are also some conservation oriented NGOs that have policies involving a more human rights oriented approach aimed at poverty alleviation sustainable development and social justice The book discusses biodiversity conservation indigenous peoples those who are ethnic minorities and who are often marginalized politically and protected areas those categories of land set aside by nation states that have various kinds of rules about land use and residence The focus initially is on case studies from protected areas in the United States including Yellowstone National Park Yosemite National Park and Glacier National Park and on national monuments and historical parks where resettlement took place We then consider issues of coercive conservation in southern Africa including Hwange National Park Zimbabwe the Central Kalahari Game Reserve Botswana Etosha National Park and Bwabwata National Park Namibia and Kgalagadi Transfrontier Park South Africa and Botswana All of these cases involved involuntary resettlement at the hands of the governments In the book we consider some of the social impacts of conservation forced resettlement CfR many of which tend to be negative After that we assess some of the strategies employed by indigenous peoples in their efforts to recover rights of access to protected areas and the cultural and natural resources that they contain Examples are drawn from cases in Asia Africa and South America Conclusions are provided regarding the ethics of conservation related resettlement and some of the best practices that could be followed particularly with regard to indigenous peoples

Eranos Hans Thomas Hakl, 2014-09-11 Every year since 1933 many of the world's leading intellectuals have met on Lake Maggiore to discuss the latest developments in philosophy history art and science and in particular to explore the mystical and symbolic in religion The Eranos Meetings named after the Greek word for a banquet where the guests bring the food constitute one of the most important gatherings of scholars in the twentieth century The book presents a set of portraits of some of the century's most influential thinkers all participants at Eranos Carl Jung Erich Neumann Mircea Eliade Martin Buber Walter Otto Paul Tillich Gershom Scholem Herbert Read Joseph Campbell Erwin Schrodinger Karl Kereyni D T Suzuki and Adolph Portmann The volume presents a critical appraisal of the views of these men how the exchange of ideas encouraged by Eranos influenced each and examines the attraction of these esotericists towards authoritarian politics

Africanizing Knowledge Toyin Falola, 2017-11-30 Nearly four decades ago Terence Ranger questioned to what extent African history was actually African and whether methods and concerns derived from

Western historiography were really sufficient tools for researching and narrating African history Despite a blossoming and branching out of Africanist scholarship in the last twenty years that question is still haunting The most prestigious locations for production of African studies are outside Africa itself and scholars still seek a solution to this paradox They agree that the ideal solution would be a flowering of institutions of higher learning within Africa which would draw not only Africanist scholars but also financial resources to the continent While the focus of this volume is on historical knowledge the effort to make African scholarship more African is fundamentally interdisciplinary The essays in this volume employ several innovative methods in an effort to study Africa on its own terms The book is divided into four parts Part 1 Africanizing African History offers several diverse methods for bringing distinctly African modes of historical discourse to the foreground in academic historical research Part 2 African Creative Expression in Context presents case studies of African art literature music and poetry It attempts to strip away the exotic or primitivist aura such topics often accumulate when presented in a foreign setting in order to illuminate the social historical and aesthetic contexts in which these works of art were originally produced Part 3 Writing about Colonialism demonstrates that the study of imperialism in Africa remains a springboard for innovative work which takes familiar ideas about Africa and considers them within new contexts Part 4 Scholars and Their Work critically examines the process of African studies itself including the roles of scholars in the production of knowledge about Africa This timely and thoughtful volume will be of interest to African studies scholars and students who are concerned about the ways in which Africanist scholarship might become more African

The Voice of the Thunder Laurens Van Der Post, 2013-11-30 From the beginning Lauren Van Der Post has been aware of a dimension in life far longer and more significant than the outer eventfulness of everyday living His perception of life's mysterious power began with the Bushman the first people of his native Africa and grew in the universal imagery of dreams the fertile legends and stories of ancient civilization the intuitive teaching of prophets poets and other pioneers of human awareness In this book he has brought together two of his most deeply felt and far reaching essays and has extended their message with great imaginative insight exploring the potential in all men and women to acquire self knowledge and to live life according to its fundamental precepts

Anthropology and the Bushman Alan Barnard, 2020-05-18 The Bushman is a perennial but changing image The transformation of that image is important It symbolizes the perception of Bushman or San society of the ideas and values of ethnographers who have worked with Bushman peoples and those of other anthropologists who use this work Anthropology and the Bushman covers early travellers and settlers classic nineteenth and twentieth century ethnographers North American and Japanese ecological traditions the approaches of African ethnographers and recent work on advocacy and social development It reveals the impact of Bushman studies on anthropology and on the public The book highlights how Bushman or San ethnography has contributed to anthropological controversy for example in the debates on the degree of incorporation of San society within the wider political economy and on the validity of the case for indigenous rights as a special kind of human rights Examining the changing image of the Bushman Barnard provides a new contribution to an established anthropology debate Feather Fall Laurens Van Der Post,2013-11-30 This Van Der Post reader thematically organised to reflect the patterns and themes which have influenced his life and his writing distils the essence of the writer thinker spiritual guru and man of action This evocative and thought provoking selection combining short paragraphs and longer passages is chosen with love and insight from his published and some unpublished writings books introductions lectures essays and will give pleasure and inspiration to generations of readers the world over Selection of Poems Riemkje Jensma,Rosemary Mayo-Franklin,2010-01-27 The poems cover a period from 1962 2009 and the subjects are love war natural disasters nature animals obituaries adventure fairy tales honeymoons angels smugglers crocodiles and weird creatures Some poems are in rhyme and some in free verse All are memorable and inspirational The Lost World of the Kalahari William Graydon Tanner (Sr.),1984*
