Public Record Office, 1871 Studies in Scholasticism Marcia L. Colish, 2024-10-28 Spanning thirty years the papers brought together in this volume reflect three of Professor Colish s interests as a historian of medieval scholastic thought The first group of studies represent investigations that flowed into and out of the research on Peter Lombard d 1161 and his contemporaries that culminated in her book Peter Lombard 1994 Following the publication of that work she next sought to discover how Peter s theology became mainstream Paris theology in the period between Lombard s death and the early 13th century resulting in the second group of papers in this collection Finally the last two papers offer reflections on broader interpretive issues considering ways in which medievalists ought to reconsider their general understanding of the story lines of high medieval intellectual history Blackstone's commentaries St. George Tucker, 1996 Monumenta juridica Twiss, 1871 Converting Verse David Ungvary, 2024 Converting Verse provides a fresh account of the ways Christian poets in the late Roman world especially those in the outlying provinces of Gaul reinvented Latin poetry s purpose and power during the turbulent fifth century a period that witnessed barbarian incursions the rise of monasticism and the collapse of the Western Roman Empire itself The Two Isabellas of King John Kristen McQuinn, 2021-10-30 King John of England was married to two women Isabella of Gloucester and Isabelle of Angoul me The two women were central to shaping John and his reign each in her own way molding the king and each other over their lives Little is known about Isabella of Gloucester and she has largely become an historical footnote Isabelle of Angoul me has a reputation as a witch and poisoner However both were products of their time victims and pawns of the powerful men whose voices overwrote the experiences of women By examining these two very different women through a modern feminist lens The Two Isabellas offers new insight into one of England's lesser known queens and a different interpretation of one of its least popular kings In The Two Isabellas of King John Kristen McQuinn offers new and intriguing insights into two of England's important yet little understood queen consorts the wives of King John Taking a feminist light McQuinn brightly shines it on both England's least well known consort Isabella of Gloucester his first wife and one of its least popular Isabelle of Angoulême his child bride Lists and Indexes Great Britain. Courts of Love, Castles of Hate Aubrey Burl, 2011-11-08 The figure of the Troubadour combines the ideals of knighthood with the inspiration of the poet and musician and created a cultural explosion which influenced the whole course of Western art and civilisation Burl traces the story from the birth of the first Troubadour in 1071 to the execution of the last Cathar Good Man in 1231 and the close of the distinctive southern French culture that had given rise to it The tale incorporates the Crusades to the Holy Lands and the Albigensian Crusades through the Languedoc and the regular incursions from the English In telling his story of the Troubadours and their song he brings to life the world of medieval Languedoc The author is acknowledged as an authority on the Troubadours one of the most evocative subjects in history

Public Record Office, 1921 The Cambridge Companion to Medieval Women's Writing Carolyn Dinshaw, David Wallace, 2003-05-22 The Cambridge Companion to Medieval Women's Writing seeks to recover the lives and particular experiences of medieval women by concentrating on various kinds of texts the texts they wrote themselves as well as texts that attempted to shape limit or expand their lives The first section investigates the roles traditionally assigned to medieval women as virgins widows and wives it also considers female childhood and relations between women The second section explores social spaces including textuality itself for every surviving medieval manuscript bespeaks collaborative effort It considers women as authors as anchoresses dead to the world and as preachers and teachers in the world staking claims to authority without entering a pulpit The final section considers the lives and writings of remarkable women including Marie de France Heloise Joan of Arc Julian of Norwich Margery Kempe and female lyricists and romancers whose names are lost but whose texts survive Monumenta Juridica, 1871 The Church in Ancient Society Henry Chadwick, 2001-12-14 The Church in Ancient Society provides a full and enjoyable narrative history of the first six centuries of the Christian Church Ancient Greek and Roman society had many gods and an addiction to astrology and divination This introduction to the period traces the process by which Christianity changed this and so provided a foundation for the modern world the teaching of Jesus created a lasting community which grew to command the allegiance of the Roman emperor Christianity is discussed in relation to how it appeared to both Jews and pagans and how its Christian doctrine and practice were shaped in relation to Graeco Roman culture and the Jewish matrix Among the major figures discussed are Tertullian Clement of Alexandria Origen

Constantine Julian the Apostate Basil Ambrose and Augustine Following a chronological approach Henry Chadwick's clear exposition of important texts and theological debates in their historical context is unrivalled in detail In particular theological and ecclesial texts are examined in relation to the behaviour and beliefs of people who attended churches and synagogues Christians did not find agreement and unity easy and the author displays a distinctive concern for the factors theological personal and political which caused division in the church and prevented reconciliation The emperors however began to foster unity for political reasons and to choose monotheism Finally the Church captured the society

Women In Dark Age And Early Medieval Europe c.500-1200 Helen Jewell,2006-10-04 The period 1200 1550 opened in a time of population expansion but went on to suffer the demographically cataclysmic effects of the plague beginning with the Black Death of 1347 51 The period dawned with a confident papacy and the Albigensian crusade against heretics and ended with the Catholic church torn apart by the Protestant Reformation Huge challenges were affecting society in various ways but they did not always affect men and women in the same ways Helen M Jewell provides a lively survey of western European women's activities and experiences during this timeframe The core chapters investigate The function of women in the countryside and towns The role of women in the ruling and landholding classes Women within the context of religion This practical centre of the book is embedded in an analysis of the gender theories inherited from the earlier Middle Ages which continued to underpin laws which restricted women's activity an education system which offered them inferior institutional provision and a church which denied them ministry Three individuals who vastly exceeded these expectations crashing through the glass ceilings of their day are brought together in a fascinating final chapter Combining a historiographical survey of trends over the last thirty years with more recent scholarship this is as indispensable introduction for anyone with an interest in women's history from the late Medieval period through to the Reformation
