Key Concepts in Postcolonial Literature Gina Wisker,2006-11-14 Key Concepts in Postcolonial Literature provides an overview of the main themes issues and critical perspectives that have had the greatest effect on postcolonial literatures Discussing historical cultural and contextual background it contains selected work of some of the major writers from this period Modernism after Postcolonialism Mara de Gennaro,2020-11-24 A polemical reaction against a trend in global modernist studies which still privileges European and Anglophone texts Existing studies of literary modernism generally read Anglophone Atlantic texts through the lens of critical theories emanating from Europe and North America In Modernism after Postcolonialism Mara de Gennaro undertakes a comparative Anglophone Francophone study invoking theoretical frameworks from Gayatri Spivak douard Glissant Fran oise Verg s Michel Rolph Trouillot Dipesh Chakrabarty and others Examining transnational poetics of comparison that contest the comparative practices of colonialist racist and ethno nationalist discourses the book treats these poetics as models for a creolist critical method of reading one that searches out unpredictable mutually generative textual relations obscured by geographic and linguistic divides In each chapter de Gennaro pairs a canonical English language modernist writer Gertrude Stein T S Eliot E M Forster Virginia Woolf with a postcolonial writer Aim Cesaire Glissant Patrick Chamoiseau J M Coetzee Edwidge Danticat interpreting major works of prewar and interwar modernism in light of postcolonial and Francophone literature cultural theory and historiography Read together these texts suggest a turn sometimes subtle or conflicted in earlier Atlantic modernist texts while usually more overt in later Caribbean and postcolonial texts toward comparative forms marked by irresolution and a wavering sense of authority With the rise of world literature and global modernist studies it becomes all the more pressing to examine how comparative forms can alert us to unspoken and misrecognized relations while also confronting us with the difficulty of representing the Other By bringing into relation these ostensibly unconnected often discrepant texts de Gennaro challenges entrenched territorial habits of literary meaning An aspirationally nonterritorial comparative literature she argues diverges not only from Eurocentric formalist approaches but also from global comparatists that emphasize incommensurabilities to the point of eliding significant textual and contextual connections Drawing on interdisciplinary postcolonial efforts especially in the social sciences to deterritorialize categories of identity culture and community Modernism after Postcolonialism dispenses with outdated modernist and postcolonial paradigms to reveal how the anxious inconclusive comparisons of transnational modernist poetics can call us to imagine new solidarities across bounded territories
