Congress. Senate. Committee on Finance, 1992 You May Get Sold but Don'T Sell My Country Mohammed D. Hussain, 2011-06-23 This book contains details of how tyranny has risen in Bangladesh the country that was founded in 1971 with the principle of democracy It hopes to answer why and how the hopes and aspirations of our people have been ruined due to corrupt politicians intellectuals and bureaucrats It hopes to answer why and how the evil totalitarian took place and how the current tyranny has been strengthened in such a horrific stage that the peace loving people cant express their opinion under the ferocity of Sheikh Hasina In my writings I have described the historical background of our country up to the modern tyrannical era which shouldnt exist anywhere on the face of the planet in the twenty first century In my writings I have described how such an atrocious regime has been strengthened and why shouldnt they be forgiven Freedom and liberty are the utmost universal values that no human being can sacrifice In this book I have passionately written my views based on the real scenarios of Bangladesh and mixed with some essays and poems Knowing all about the risks I believe that to live as human beings we cant surrender to any dictator or oppressive regime Surrendering to them will strengthen the evils and we must restrain them by any means No evil regime should represent any country or a nation or deny the very fundamental rights of their people And Bangladesh is not an exception My main objective in writing this book is to protect the people of our country Bangladesh and its sovereignty God bless Bangladesh and the entirety of mankind Mohammed D Hussain

Super-calender , 1916 Most Favored Nation Status for the People's Republic of China United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on Human Rights and International Organizations, 1992 Éirinn & Iran go Brách Mansour Bonakdarian, 2023-12-05 This book analyzes particular patterns of nationalist self configuration and nationalist uses of memory counter memory and historical amnesia in Ireland from roughly around the time of the emergence of a broad based non sectarian Irish nationalist platform in the late eighteenth century the Society of United Irishmen until Ireland s partition and the founding of the Irish Free State in 1922 In approaching Irish nationalism through the particular historical lens of Iran this book underscores the fact that Irish nationalism during this period and even earlier always utilized a historical paradigm that grounded Anglo Irish encounters and Irish nationalism in the broader world history a process that I term worlding of Ireland In effect Irish nationalism was always politically and culturally cosmopolitan in outlook in some formulations even in the case of many nationalists who resorted to insular and narrowly defined exclusionary ethnic and or religious formulations of the Irish nation Irish nationalists as nationalists in many other parts of the world recurrently imagined their own history either in contrast to or as reflected in the histories of peoples and lands elsewhere even while claiming the historical uniqueness of the Irish experience Present in a wide range of Irish nationalist political cultural and historical utterances were assertions of past and or present affinities with other peoples and lands The Iran-United States Claims Tribunal Rahmatullah Khan,1990 The Iran United States Claims Tribunal is arguably the most significant arbitral institution of the twentieth century Although the completion of its last few cases could take a long time the Tribunal s impressive work must be made available now as a guide to the resolution of ongoing disputes and for future tribunals The Tribunal has by this point disposed of well over 98 percent of its caseload Little more remains for its participants to learn but the Tribunal shows no signs of fading away Both of the two States Parties for different reasons see greater advantage in the Tribunal s prolongation than in its elimination The authors have succeeded in dealing with all of the most deserving Tribunal subjects Moreover their intimate involvement in and knowledge of the Tribunal ensure that their book is a fascinating important and indispensable contribution to the literature of International Law This is a definitive book on a monumental event in the law and in history at the close of a century The Iran United States Claims Tribunal was awarded the ASIL Certificate of Merit Psychology and Social Responsibility Sylvia Staub,Paula Green,1992-06 This book brings together for the first time many if the leading writers and thinkers from the psychological and mental health fields Contributes include Robert Jay Lifton Joanna Macy Roger Walsh and others The White Possessive Aileen Moreton-Robinson,2015-05-15 The White Possessive explores the links between race sovereignty and possession through themes of property owning property being property and becoming propertyless Focusing on the Australian Aboriginal context Aileen Moreton Robinson questions current race theory in the first world and its preoccupation with foregrounding slavery and migration The nation she argues is socially and culturally constructed as a white possession Moreton Robinson reveals how the core values of Australian national identity continue to have their roots in Britishness and colonization built on the disavowal of Indigenous sovereignty Whiteness studies literature is central to Moreton Robinson s reasoning and she shows how blackness works as a white epistemological tool that bolsters the social production of whiteness displacing Indigenous sovereignties and rendering them invisible in a civil rights discourse thereby sidestepping thorny issues of settler colonialism Throughout this critical examination Moreton Robinson proposes a bold new agenda for critical Indigenous studies one that involves deeper analysis of how the prerogatives of white possession function within the role of disciplines When Everyone Wins: From Inequality to Cooperation David Gray,2014-09-10 David Gray a longtime professor of psychology makes the case that everything run smoother when everyone is a winner What Blood Won't Tell Ariela J. Gross,2010-05-01 Unearthing the legal history of racial identity Gross s book examines the paradoxical and often circular relationship of race and the perceived capacity for citizenship in American society The Motherless Child in the Novels of Pauline Hopkins Jill Bergman,2012-12-17 Well known in her day as a singer playwright novelist and editor of the Colored American Magazine Pauline Hopkins 1859 1930 has been the subject of considerable scholarly attention over the last twenty years Nevertheless her novels have not received their critical due The Motherless Child the first book length study of Hopkins s major fictions fills this critical gap offering a sustained analysis of motherlessness in Contending Forces Hagar s Daughter Winona and Of One Blood

Prefiguring Postblackness Carol Bunch Davis, 2015-11-23 Prefiguring Postblackness explores the tensions between cultural memory of the African American freedom struggle and representations of African American identity staged in five plays between 1959 and 1969 during the civil rights era Through close readings of the plays their popular and African American print media reviews and the cultural context in which they were produced Carol Bunch Davis shows how these representations complicate narrow ideas of blackness which often limit the freedom struggle era to Martin Luther King s nonviolent protest and cast Malcolm X s black nationalism as undermining the civil rights movement s advances These five plays strategically revise the rhetoric representations ideologies and iconography of the African American freedom struggle subverting its dominant narrative This revision critiques racial uplift ideology s tenets of civic and moral virtue as a condition of African American full citizenship The dramas also reimagine the Black Arts movement s restrictive notions of black authenticity as a condition of racial identity and their staged representations construct a counter narrative to cultural memory of the freedom struggle during that very era In their use of a postblack ethos to enact African American subjectivity the plays envision black identity beyond the quest for freedom anticipating what blackness might look like when it moves beyond the struggle The plays under discussion range from the canonical Lorraine Hansberry s A Raisin in the Sun and Amiri Baraka s Dutchman to celebrated yet understudied works Alice Childress s Wine in the Wilderness Howard Sackler s The Great White Hope and Charles Gordone s No Place to Be Somebody Finally Davis discusses recent revivals showing how these 1960s plays shape dimensions of modern drama well beyond the decade of their creation
