Technology and Enterprise Development Sanjaya Lall, Giorgio Barba Navaretti, Simon Teitel, Ganeshan

Wignaraja, 2016-07-27 The process of capability development is central to industrialization but the current literature focuses on the advanced developing countries This book based on a World Bank sponsored study of enterprise development in Ghana is the first to examine in detail how firms in least developed countries in Africa acquire technological capabilities It analyses why Ghanaian firms are generally relatively uncompetitive why some firms are better than others and how the structural adjustment is affecting manufacturing development Modernization and the Crisis of Development in Africa Jeremiah I.

Dibua, 2017-11-28 In this book Jeremiah I Dibua challenges prevailing notions of Africa's development crisis by drawing attention to the role of modernization as a way of understanding the nature and dynamics of the crisis and how to overcome the problem of underdevelopment He specifically focuses on Nigeria and its development trajectory since it exemplifies the crisis of underdevelopment in the continent He explores various theoretical and empirical issues involved in understanding the crisis including state class gender and culture often neglected in analysis from an interdisciplinary radical political economy perspective This is the first book to adopt such an approach and to develop a new framework for analyzing Nigeria's and Africa's development crisis It will influence the debate on the development dilemma of African and Third World societies and will be of interest to scholars and students of race and ethnicity modern African history class analysis gender studies and development studies Enterprise and Economic Development in Africa Dina M. Entrepreneurship and Enterprise Development in Africa Daniel Agyapong, Rosemond Boohene, 2024-03-14

Entrepreneurship and Enterprise Development in Africa presents a timely and compelling account of African entrepreneurship shedding light on the critical part it plays in the continent's economic growth and development It explores the various challenges opportunities and success stories that define the African entrepreneurial landscape and highlights the ingenuity and determination of the continent's entrepreneurial minds Africa's Choices Michael Barratt Brown, 2019-05-20 This book provides an account of actual African experience and African criticisms It is designed to examine the actual viability of the World Bank's structural adjustment strategies for Africa all of which were designed to encourage export led growth Development Centre Studies Development is back OECD Development Centre, 2002-10-08 The Organisation's Development Centre was founded in 1962 as one means to study and to try to confront the problems of comparative development and to relate them to experiences in the more advanced economies This book provides a compendium of that experience Innovation For Sustainability Mammo Muchie, Angathevar Baskaran, 2013-12-29 The innovation system theory has to deal with climate change as it generates the intellectual tools to promote development A unified innovation system theory that integrates the eradication of threats to nature with the promotion of development is critically important to advance an original pedigree and trajectory of epistemology Africa must learn and appreciate the costs to itself from the way Europe industrialised It can neither follow nor imitate the European pattern of industrialisation It has to include in its own development agenda both the meeting of social needs and choosing a path of development that would not bring ecological harm in the process The African innovation system has to evolve in a nature protecting rather than hurting system in addition social needs must be met rather than exacerbating the social inequalities path of development Public Management and Sustainable Development in Nigeria Robert Dibie, 2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2003 How was public policy and economic development in Nigeria affected under the period of military control between 1966 and 1999 What is the nature and scale of change that Nigeria will have to undergo in order to achieve its current development goals Initially providing a history of Nigeria along with a framework for understanding the nature scope and magnitude of the military and public management problems within the country this timely and rewarding book addresses both of these questions It analyzes the institutions that make and implement public policy in the Nigerian political arena and examines the route that Nigeria could take in order to enhance its public management capacities Although the specific focus is on Nigeria the mode of analysis used is transferable to a wide variety of developing nations The book will foster an understanding among scholars development planners military officers and policy makers of the tasks and challenges facing Nigeria and many sub Saharan African nations in the twenty first century The Future of Entrepreneurship in Africa Robert Hinson, Doreen Nyarko Anyamesem Odame, Kojo Kakra Twum, Patient Rambe, Paul Agu Igwe, David Gamariel Rugara, 2023-08-22 This book focuses on entrepreneurial development and the development of small businesses in Africa The central idea of this book is that entrepreneurial development and small business development are connected Entrepreneurship is lauded as an engine of growth economic development and job creation with small businesses often contributing to new job creation Also entrepreneurship and small business development are the heart of many countries economies The decision to focus on entrepreneurial development and small business development is that first there is a consensus that most entrepreneurial activities are aimed at creating small new ventures Second countries that give special attention to entrepreneurship stand a chance of industrialization Third Africa has been reported as having a rich entrepreneurial landscape as the continent's wealthiest individuals generated their wealth as trailblazing entrepreneurs Fourth small scale entrepreneurs and businesses form the backbone of economic activities across the continent A motivation to focus on entrepreneurial and small business development is the generally accepted view that start ups in Africa are growing calling for understanding into how to enhance productivity efficiencies and application of new technologies The book aims to enhance the understanding of stakeholders business owners governments practitioners to overturn challenges such as inadequate start up capital competition lack of employees with the right skills and low use of technology The ability to develop entrepreneurship in Africa and the role of small medium enterprises cannot be underestimated The promotion of entrepreneurship in Africa is crucial as it creates jobs provides decent livelihoods and contributes to GDP Most entrepreneurial initiatives in developing economies entail identifying opportunities and new venture creation It is worth recognizing that most new ventures created take the form of small businesses and the entrepreneurial processes involve entrepreneurs knowledge and skills identifying opportunities involvement in setting up a business and managing the business The various aspects of this book focus on many entrepreneurial activities that are undertaken on the African continent This book is focused on African countries since there is a reason to be optimistic about the prospects for growth and entrepreneurship To achieve entrepreneurial success in African countries the African Development Bank 2021 proposes that there must be a link between macro and firm level characteristics that will serve as the mix of entrepreneurship in societies This book therefore considers some macro level factors such as education training and skills development technological developments government programs and entrepreneurial challenges and opportunities At the firm level this book focuses on entrepreneurial initiatives such as branding and marketing

Climate Change and the Agenda for Research Ted Hanisch, 2019-04-23 This book presents essays that address the most strategic questions and challenges to scientists and policymakers on the important subject of climate change based on issues discussed at the 1992 Earth Summit It considers how best to meet the challenge that atmospheric pollution poses worldwide
