Plays From Black Africa:

Plays from Black Africa Fredric Michael Litto, 1968 Plays from Black Africa Fredric M. Litto, 1968 Black Africa V. Klima, K.F. Ruzicka, P. Zima, 2012-12-06 In October 1972 our Czech written book Literature of Black Africa was published in Prague presenting a survey of an extensive field. The publication which was signed at that time by all three authors differed from most contemporary introductions to the study of African literatures in a threefold way: a) The authors attempted to cover various literary efforts in the area roughly delimited by Senegal in the west, Kenya in the east, Lake Chad in the north and the Cape in the south. We were well aware even at that time that neither technically nor linguistically would it be possible to cover all literary efforts within that area. We did try however to include in our survey both the literatures and literacies written in the Indo-European languages: English, French, Portuguese and in at least several of the major African languages of the area. We did not attempt an exhaustive description but wished rather to show the mutual relationships which emerge if the literatures of this area written either in the major languages or in the African languages are studied not as isolated phenomena but as mutually complementary features. b) As two of us were linguists and one was a literary historian we did not limit our analysis of the developing literacies and literatures to the purely cultural and literary aspects. Our intention was to deal where and if it was relevant not only with the process of African literary development but also with the simultaneous complementary The Black Theatre Movement in the United States and in South America Olga Barrios Herrero, 2011-11-28 El creixement dels moviments sociopolítics entre els anys seixanta i noranta als Estats Units i a Sudàfrica va establir els fermes fonaments sobre els quals amb una força i ímpetu sense precedents es va forjar el teatre negre d'aquests anys. Forma i contingut van sorgir a l'una del compromís polític i artístic adoptat per aquests artistes contra l'imperialisme, el colonialisme i el racisme occidentals. Per primera vegada en la història el teatre negre dels Estats Units i de Sudàfrica analitzava i valorava les arrels negres per a poder il·luminar la recerca d'un futur de llibertat. No obstant això, el context sociopolític i les circumstàncies específiques de cada país han generat igualment els trets distintius del teatre afro nord-americà i negre sud-africà inclosos les diferències de gènere manifestos en ramificacions artístiques totalment heterogènies i múltiples. The Black Theatre Movement in the United States and in South Africa Olga Barrios, 2008 El creixement dels moviments sociopolítics entre els anys seixanta i noranta als Estats Units i a Sudàfrica va establir els fermes fonaments sobre els quals amb una força i ímpetu sense precedents es va forjar el teatre negre d'aquests anys. addressing how race in Early Modern England functioned not only as a marker of human identity but also as an a priori constituent of human subjectivity Chapman argues that Blackness is the marker of social death that allows for constructions of human identity to become transmutable based on the impossibility of recognition and incorporation for Blackness into humanity Using dramatic texts such as Othello Titus Andronicus and other Early Modern English plays both popular and lesser known the book shifts the binary away from the currently accepted standard of white non white that defines otherness in the period and examines race in Early Modern England from the prospective of a non black black antagonism The volume corrects the Afro pessimist assumption that the Triangle Slave Trade caused a rupture between Blackness and humanity By locating notions of Black inhumanity in England prior to chattel slavery the book positions the Triangle Trade as a result of rather than the cause of Black inhumanity It also challenges the common scholarly assumption that all varying types of human identity in Early Modern England were equally fluid by arguing that Blackness functioned as an immutable constant Through the use of structural analysis this volume works to simplify and demystify notions of race in Renaissance England by arguing that race is not only a marker of human identity but a structural antagonism between those engaged in human civil society opposed to those who are socially dead It will be an essential volume for those with interest in Renaissance Literature and Culture Shakespeare Contemporary Performance Theory Black Studies and Ethnic Studies Marxist Theory, Black/African Specificities, and Racism Babacar Camara, 2010-12-01 This book sheds a radical light on the issue of race showing that social and racist discourses are ideological and political mystifications masking exploitation It deals with substantive issues that have the potential to enhance our understanding how Marxist theory can be quite useful in interpreting the race paradigm Multicultural Play Therapy Dee C. Ray, Yumiko Ogawa, Yi-Ju Cheng, 2022-04-28 Multicultural Play Therapy fills a wide gap in the play therapy literature Each chapter helps expand play therapists cultural awareness humility and competence so they can work more effectively with children of diverse cultures races and belief systems The unique perspectives presented here provide play therapists and advanced students with concrete information on how to broach issues of culture in play therapy sessions parent consultations and in the play therapy field at large The book includes chapters on multiple populations and addresses the myriad cultural background issues that emerge in play therapy and the contributors include authors from multiple races ethnicities cultural worldviews and orientations Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, 2009 Black Africans in Renaissance Europe T. F. Earle, K. J. P. Lowe, 2005-05-26 This highly original book opens up the almost entirely neglected area of the black African presence in Western Europe during the Renaissance Covering history literature art history and anthropology it investigates a whole range of black African experience and representation across Renaissance Europe from various types of slavery to black musicians and dancers from real and symbolic Africans at court to the views of the Catholic Church and from writers of African descent to Black African criminality Their findings demonstrate the variety and complexity of black African life in fifteenth and sixteenth century Europe and how it was affected by firmly held preconceptions relating to the African continent and its inhabitants reinforced by Renaissance ideas and conditions Of enormous importance both for European and American history this book mixes empirical material and theoretical approaches and addresses such issues as stereotypes changing black African identity and cultural representation in art and literature

Black Theatre Paul Carter Harrison, Victor Leo Walker (II.), Gus Edwards, 2002-11-08 Generating a new understanding of the past as well as a vision for the future this path breaking volume contains essays written by playwrights scholars and critics that analyze African American theatre as it is practiced today Even as they acknowledge that Black experience is not monolithic these contributors argue provocatively and persuasively for a Black consciousness that creates a culturally specific theatre This theatre rooted in an African mythos offers ritual rather than realism it transcends the specifics of social relations reaching toward revelation The ritual performance that is intrinsic to Black theatre renews the community in Paul Carter Harrison's words it reveals the Form of Things Unknown in a way that binds cleanses and heals
