Literature and the Language Arts, 2001 Literature and the Language Arts Edmund J. Farrell, 1997 Resources in Education, 2001 Independent Study That Works Geraldine Woods, 2022-03-29 Independent study programs aren't for the best students they are populated by students at their best Student disengagement from school is a trending concern and many schools have turned their attention to independent study programs as a way to nurture student motivation and creativity But where to begin Geraldine Woods offers a practical step by step guide based on her experience designing and directing the much admired independent study program at the Horace Mann School Under the supervision of teachers students embark on a remarkable variety of projects and become teachers themselves conducting seminars with their peers along the way to preparing their final product which could as easily be an interactive website or musical composition as a research paper Woods book details the nuts and bolts of the approach and shows how to customize it for a variety of age groups budgets and curricular requirements It is a gift to all educators including homeschooling parents who want to give students the freedom to pursue their interests The Administration and Supervision of Reading Programs Shelley B. Wepner, Joan T. Feeley, Dorothy S. Strickland, 2002 Now in its Third Edition this popular textbook offers valuable information about administering effective reading programs from the pre elementary through the college level All chapters have been revised to include the most current information trends and research and a new chapter has been added on college university reading programs Research in Education, 1974 ERIC Clearinghouse Publications, 1981 Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts, Volume II James Flood, Shirley Brice Heath, Diane Lapp, 2015-04-22 The Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts Volume II brings together state of the art research and practice on the evolving view of literacy as encompassing not only reading writing speaking and listening but also the multiple ways through which learners gain access to knowledge and skills It forefronts as central to literacy education the visual communicative and performative arts and the extent to which all of the technologies that have vastly expanded the meanings and uses of literacy originate and evolve through the skills and interests of the young A project of the International Reading Association published and distributed by Routledge Taylor Francis Visit <http://www.reading.org> for more information about International Reading Association books membership and other services Advancing English Language Education Wafa Zoghbor, Thomaï Alexiou, 2020-01-01 Advancing English Language Education Edited by Wafa Zoghbor Young Learners Testing and Assessment Teaching of Writing Skills Context Specific Issues in EFL Teaching Learning and Pedagogy Contributors Alessandro Ursic Alison Larkin Koushki Athanasios Karasimos Daria Grits David Rear Irshat Madyarov Ivan Ivanov James Milton Laila Khalil Larysa Nikolayeva Mariam Al Nasser Marianthi Serafeim Marielle Risse Marta Tryzna Mher Davtyan Michael M Parrish Nikita Berezin Nour Al Okla Peter Davidson Richard D Miller Syuzanna Torosyan Talin Grigorian Thoma Alexiou Wafa Zoghbor Zainab Rashed Aldhanhani Handbook of

Research on Teaching Diverse Youth Literature to Pre-Service Professionals Hartsfield, Danielle E.,2021-06-25

Perspectives and identity are typically reinforced at a young age giving teachers the responsibility of selecting reading material that could potentially change how the child sees the world This is the importance of sharing diverse literature with today s children and young adults which introduces them to texts that deal with religion gender identities racial identities socioeconomic conditions etc Teachers and librarians play significant roles in placing diverse books in the hands of young readers However to achieve the goal of increasing young people s access to diverse books educators and librarians must receive quality instruction on this topic within their university preparation programs The Handbook of Research on Teaching Diverse Youth Literature to Pre Service Professionals is a comprehensive reference source that curates promising practices that teachers and librarians are currently applying to prepare aspiring teachers and librarians for sharing and teaching diverse youth literature Given the importance of sharing diverse books with today s young people university educators must be aware of engaging and effective methods for teaching diverse literature to pre service teachers and librarians Covering topics such as syllabus development diversity social justice and activity planning this text is essential for university level teacher educators library educators who prepare pre service teachers and librarians university educators faculty adjunct instructors researchers and students

Teaching to Exceed the English Language Arts Common Core State Standards Richard Beach,Amanda Haertling Thein,Allen Webb,2012-06-25 As the new English Language Arts Common Core State Standards take hold across the United States the need grows for pre service and in service teachers to be ready to develop curriculum and instruction that addresses their requirements This timely thoughtful and comprehensive text directly meets this need It delineates a literacy practices and critical engagement curriculum framework for 6 12 English language arts education that explains and illustrates how the Standards highest and best intentions for student success can be implemented from a critical culturally relevant perspective that is firmly grounded in current literacy learning theory and research The first 6 12 English language arts methods text to be aligned with the Standards this book also addresses their limitations formalist assumptions about literacy learning limited attention to media digital literacies lack of attention to critical literacies and questionable assumptions about linking standards and text complexity to specific grade levels Specific examples of teachers using the literacy practices critical engagement curriculum framework in their classrooms shows how these limitations can be surpassed Features Moves the CCSS framework into a view that literacy is a contextualized social practice Challenges simplistic models that homogenize adolescent learners Adds the important element of critical literacy to English language arts classrooms Provides specific examples of teachers in action implementing these practices Interactive Companion Website with student and instructor resources The Website is designed to foster interactivity through participation in an online teaching planning simulation with a text video or case on one side of the screen and a chat box for instructors and students to share their reactions and planning ideas The Companion Website is linked to a wiki that serves as
