Reaching Children In War Sudan Uganda:

Reaching Children in War Cole P. Dodge, Magne Raundalen, 1991 Culture, Religion, and the Reintegration of Female Child Soldiers in Northern Uganda Bård Mæland, 2010 Bård Mæland is Professor of Systematic Theology at the School of Mission and Theology in Stavanger Norway where he also serves as the President Mæland previously served as a chaplain and researcher in the Norwegian Defence Forces He is the author of many books and scholarly articles within interreligious hermeneutics systematic theology and military ethics His previous book is Enduring Military Boredom 2009 Mæland is the founding editor of The Journal of Military Ethics Book Jacket Psychiatry and Decolonisation in Uganda Yolana Pringle, 2018-12-06 This open access book investigates psychiatry in Uganda during the years of decolonisation It examines the challenges facing a new generation of psychiatrists as they took over responsibility for psychiatry at the end of empire and explores the ways psychiatric practices were tied to shifting political and development priorities periods of instability and a broader context of transnational and international exchange At its heart is a question that has concerned psychiatrists globally since the mid twentieth century how to bridge the social and cultural gap between psychiatry and its patients Bringing together archival research with oral histories Yolana Pringle traces how this question came to dominate both national and international discussions on mental health care reform including at the World Health Organization and helped spur a culture of experimentation and creativity globally As Pringle shows however the history of psychiatry during the years of decolonisation remained one of marginality and ultimately in the context of war and violence the decolonisation of psychiatry was incomplete Internally Displaced, Refugees and Returnees from and in the Sudan Desirée Nilsson, 2000 Liguria is another country They do things differently there particularly when it comes to food Lucio Galletto grew up in Liguria at the eastern end of the Riviera di Levante coast of the rising sun He didn't realize how special his region was until he fell in love with an Australian girl and traveled 12 000 kilometers to be with her In 2008 Lucio and writer David Dale along with photographer Paul Green returned to the birthplace of ravioli and pesto and wild greens pie to investigate how the cooking of Lucio's region had evolved during his 25 year absence They found a new breed of chefs farmers and fishermen adapting traditions to the environmental concerns of the 21st century Still using the wonderful array of local herbs vegetables and seafood they apply a lighter touch and a more adventurous spirit In this stunningly photographed book Lucio brings us the fruits of his travels 180 delicious recipes that respect the experience of the past and anticipate the demands of the future dishes that are fun to cook beautiful to look at a pleasure to share and kind to the body And importantly that pay homage to the sunny Riviera di Levante from which Lucio's culinary journey began This book was the winner of the 2008 Gourmand Award for Best Italian Cuisine Book Australian Category and the 2009 Cordon d'Or Cuisine Award for Best Illustrated Culinary Book Children and War James Marten, 2002-08-24 Children have always been involved in warfare This text shows that they have contributed to home front war efforts and that war time experiences have always affected the ways children of war perceive themselves and their societies The Sociology of Childhood William A. Corsaro, 2005 The provision of many amusing examples from Corsaro's own research experience with children make his book a thoroughly enjoyable read as well as a valuable critical sociological analysis of childhood Sociology The Sociology of Childhood is the Second Edition of a text that has been universally acclaimed as the best book on the subject available today It is the only text that thoroughly covers children and childhood from a sociological perspective The second edition retains the same quality coverage of social theories of childhood the consideration of children and childhood in historical and cultural perspective children's peer cultures from preschool through preadolescence and the social problems of children The book has been updated to include new research information and discussions on the latest social indicators regarding children in the United States and around the world Key Features New chapter on up to date methods of research for studying children New chapters on theory cultural change and children's peer cultures New section on children's rights including a description and discussion of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child Updated chapter on the Future of Childhood addresses current policy debates and changing demographics related to children in today's societies Contains many examples of children's actual play and behavior Provides photographs and charts that capture the complexity and diversity of children's lives The Sociology of Childhood is highly recommended for use as the core text in courses on the sociology of children and childhood as well as for parents teachers and other adults interested in the social lives and development of children It can also be used in early education child development and child psychology courses and as a supplemental text in the area of family studies William A Corsaro is the Robert H Shaffer Class of 1967 Endowed Professor of Sociology at Indiana University Bloomington where he teaches courses on the sociology of childhood childhood in contemporary society and ethnographic research methods Corsaro is the author of Friendship and Peer Culture in the Early Years 1985 and We're Friends Right Inside Kids Culture 2003 He was a Fulbright Senior Research Fellow in Bologna Italy in 1983-84 and a Fulbright Senior Specialist Fellow in Trondheim Norway in 2003 His research has been featured on NPR the BBC in London and in the New Yorker Africa Jeremy I Levitt, 2008-03-31 The principal aim of this work is to provide a forum for leading international lawyers with experience and interest in Africa to address a broad range of intellectual challenges concerning the contribution of African states and peoples to international law As such the volume addresses orthodox topics of international law such as jurisdiction and intervention but tackles them from an African perspective and seeks to ask whether in each case the African perspective is unique or affirms existing arrangements of international law The book cannot come at a more important time While international legal discourse has been captured by the challenge of terrorism since September 11 2001 there are clear signs that other issues are returning to the fore Political interest in Africa has undergone a global revival and the OAU has been transformed into the African Union Infrastructural challenges along with those taking place in regional contexts have effectively mapped a new politico legal landscape for Africa This and more is explored and the key normative questions are addressed in a series of essays by leading Africanist scholars This is a remarkable collection of essays that clearly and concisely demonstrates that Africa has and will continue to play a major role in fashioning new norms of international law and policy and contribute to its progressive development by affirming existing norms Professor Levitt is to be commended for having the vision leadership and intellectual prowess to produce this excellent text The book signals a major shift from the study of Africa as a basket case to a normative market place Akua Kuenyehia Vice President International Criminal Court Professor Levitt s work Africa Mapping New Boundaries in International Law is pathbreaking in the true sense of that word Through old and new voices it excavates the singular contributions of Africa to a discipline that is marked by Eurocentrism and imperial aspirations The authors taking their cue from the indefatigable and insightful Professor Levitt establish beyond a shadow of a doubt the enormity of the normative contributions that Africa has made to international law The book must therefore be seen as a defining contribution to the multiculturalization of international law It is for this reason that Professor Levitt is among the most important American academics working and thinking in international law today Makau Mutua Interim Dean SUNY Distinguished Professor State University of New York Buffalo Law School

The A to Z of Human Rights and Humanitarian Organizations Robert F. Gorman, Edward S. Mihalkanin, 2009-09-02 While the idea of human rights and humanitarian assistance has ancient roots evidence can be seen in such examples as the Ten Commandments the Bhagavad Gita and the teachings of Confucius and Socrates it wasn't until the 1800s that the first modern humanitarian and human rights organizations came to be The 19th century saw the beginning of the abolitionist movement the forming of a variety of women's suffrage organizations the formation and consolidation of national labor unions and the founding of the Red Cross This was followed by the inextricably intertwined story of war persecution violence and the growth of human rights and humanitarian organizations in the 20th century Bearing witness to some of the most horrific and blatant violations of human dignity the 20th century also beheld the first sustained global efforts to promote human rights at the international level The A to Z of Human Rights and Humanitarian Organizations follows major developments in the arena of human rights including the emergence of terrorism and international responses to it the establishment of an international criminal court the evolution of regional human rights bodies in Africa Europe and Latin America and the proliferation of new non governmental organizations and foundations dedicated to the promotion of human rights This is accomplished through a chronology an introduction appendixes photographs a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries covering many of the key treaties agreements and definitions of human rights concepts important humanitarian organizations whether private governmental national or international and significant persons and events This realistic assessment of the advances in protection of human rights and the major difficulties still facing them is an excellent tool for students practitioners and libraries

Contested Terrains And Constructed Categories George Clement Bond, 2018-02-19 Contested Terrains and Constructed Categories brings together intellectuals from a variety of fields backgrounds generations and continents to deepen and reinvigo rate the theoretical and intellectual integrity of African studies Building on recent debate within African studies that has revolved around the role of Africanists in the United States as gatekeepers of knowledge about Africa and Africans this volume of interdisciplinary essays focuses on the contested character of the production of knowledge itself In every chapter case studies and ethnographic materials drawn from such regions as South Africa Mozambique Zimbabwe the Malagasy Republic Angola Ghana and Senegal demonstrate the application of theory to concrete situations

Child soldiers in international law Matthew Happold, 2022-12-20 Now available as an eBook for the first time this 2005 title in the Melland Schill series asks Can the use of children as soldiers be effectively regulated at an international level Child soldiers in international law examines how international law has developed to deal with this problematic and emotive issue Happold looks at the rules restricting the recruitment of children into armed forces rules which though important are often flouted but also at the wider legal issues arising from child soldiering to what extent can child soldiers be held criminally liable for their conduct How should they be treated when captured How are states obliged to demobilise and reintegrate them into their societies It also identifies a move away towards enforcement through the prosecution of those who recruit child soldiers and proposals for Security Council sanctions against governments and groups who breach their international obligations by using children in armed conflicts This study will be essential reading for those concerned with public international law human rights and the United Nations and peacekeeping

Who's Afraid of Children? Helen Brocklehurst, 2017-03-02 Brocklehurst s impressive work breaks new ground in normative international political theory It develops a new theoretical framework which exposes how children are present in international relations and security practices using an empirical and comparative assessment of the role of children and youth in a range of conflicts including Nazi Germany Mozambique South Africa Northern Ireland the Cold War and the British Empire The author argues powerfully that concepts of children are partial and contained through their construction as non political Global in scope this book is a timely and important contribution given the growing visibility of children in international relations evident after September 11 The political and ethical question at the heart of this book is will international relations dare to catch up

The Legal Regime of the International Criminal Court José Doria, Hans-Peter Gasser, M. Cherif Bassiouni, 2009 This impressive and unique collection of essays covers important aspects of the legal regime of the International Criminal Court ICC The volume begins with an analysis of the historical development of the ICC the progressive development of international humanitarian and international criminal law by the ad hoc Tribunals and the work of mixed national international jurisdictions The legal and institutional basis of the ICC is then dealt with in detail including the organs of the ICC war crimes crimes against humanity and crimes of aggression modes of liability before the ICC and defences before the ICC Part III focuses on the court at work including its procedural rules criminal proceedings at the ICC penalties and appeal and revision procedures Part IV deals with the relationship of the ICC with states and international organizations The contributors are established scholars in the field of international criminal and humanitarian law many of whom are practitioners in the various tribunals The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children's Issues Worldwide Irving Epstein,2007-12-30 From the skyrocketing AIDS rate in Haiti to the oppressive pollution in industrial China from the violent street culture of Nigeria to the crippling poverty in Nicaragua from child trafficking in Thailand to child marriages in India this jam packed six volume set explores all these issues and more in an unprecedented look at the world s children at the dawn of the 21st century In recent years while many countries have enjoyed a higher standard of living and improved working conditions others have been torn apart by war and incapacitated by famine and are struggling to improve life for their children and their future Recent concern over the world s children has resulted in a global attempt to define what constitutes an acceptable childhood New attention has been paid not only to healthcare and secondary education but also to the right to play and increased access to technology The UN s codification of children s rights has done much to expand our understanding of what is needed for healthy growth and development of children and youth Organized by region The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children s Issues Worldwide is the first globally focused set of this magnitude offering extensive up to date coverage of these critical issues Original chapters accessibly synthesize current data on key topics including education play and recreation child labor family health laws and legal status religious life abuse and neglect and growing up in the 21st century The Power of Resistance Rowhea M. Elmesky,Carol Camp Yeakey,Olivia C. Marcucci,2017-10-13 This book is guided through the powerful ideological frameworks of culture and social reproduction and looks specifically to the role of schooling as a vehicle for catalysing change
