Real Time Accelerating Narrative From Balzac To Zola:

Real Time David F. Bell, 2004 In Real Time David F Bell explores the decisive impact the accelerated movement of people and information had on the fictions of four giants of French realism Balzac Stendhal Dumas and Zola Nineteenth century technological advances radically altered the infrastructure of France changing the ways ordinary citizens and literary characters viewed time space distance and speed The most influential of these advances included the improvement of the stagecoach the growth of road and canal networks leading to the advent of the railway and the increasing use of mail and of the optical telegraph Citing examples from a wide range of novels and stories Bell demonstrates the numerous ways in which these trends of acceleration became not just literary devices and themes but also structuring principles of the novels themselves Beginning with both the provincial and the Parisian communications networks of Balzac Bell proceeds to discuss the roles of horses and optical telegraphs in Stendhal and the importance of domination of communication channels to the characters of Dumas whose Count of Monte Cristo might be seen as the ultimate fictional master of this accelerated culture Finally Bell analyzes the cinematic vision created by the arrival of the railroad as depicted by Zola in La B te Humaine

The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel Karen L. Taylor, 2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization The Cambridge Companion to Balzac Owen Heathcote, Andrew Watts, 2017-01-16 One of the founders of literary realism and the serial novel Honor de Balzac 1799 1850 was a prolific writer who produced more than a hundred novels plays and short stories during his career With its dramatic plots and memorable characters Balzac s fiction has enthralled generations of readers La Com die humaine the vast collection of works in which he strove to document every aspect of nineteenth century French society has influenced writers from Flaubert Zola and Proust to Dostoevsky and Oscar Wilde This Companion provides a critical reappraisal of Balzac combining studies of his major novels with guidance on the key narrative and thematic features of his writing Twelve chapters by world leading specialists encompass a wide spectrum of topics such as the representation of history philosophy and religion the plight of the struggling artist gender and sexuality and Balzac s depiction of the creative process itself French XX Bibliography

Allan H. Pasco,2016-10-04 Melding the fields of literature sociology and history this book develops analyses of the ten novels in Balzac s Sc nes de la vie de province Following the order of the novels projected in La Com die humaine Allan H Pasco investigates how Balzac used art as a tool of social inquiry to obtain startlingly accurate insights into the relationships that defined his turbulent society His repeated claim to be an historian of manners was more than an empty boast Though Balzac was first and foremost a great novelist he was also a trailblazing sociologist joining Henri de Saint Simon and the subsequent Auguste Comte in considering the relationships that represent society as an interacting interlocking web Using a methodology that combines close analysis with a broad cultural context Pasco demonstrates that Balzac s sociological vision was extraordinarily pertinent to both his and our days Literature and Cartography

Anders Engberg-Pedersen,2017-11-24 The relationship of texts and maps and the mappability of literature examined from Homer to Houellebecq Literary authors have frequently called on elements of cartography to ground fictional space to visualize sites and to help readers get their bearings in the imaginative world of the text Today the convergence of digital mapping and globalization has spurred a cartographic turn in literature This book gathers leading scholars to consider the relationship of literature and cartography Generously illustrated with full color maps and visualizations it offers the first systematic overview of an emerging approach to the study of literature The literary map is not merely an illustrative guide but represents a set of relations and tensions that raise questions about representation fiction and space Is literature even mappable In exploring the cartographic components of literature the contributors have not only brought literary theory to bear on the map but have also enriched the vocabulary and perspectives of literary studies with cartographic terms After establishing the theoretical and methodological terrain they trace important developments in the history of literary cartography considering topics that include Homer and Joyce Goethe and the representation of nature and African cartographies Finally they consider cartographic genres that reveal the broader connections between texts and maps discussing literary map genres in American literature and the coexistence of image and text in early maps When cartographic
