Reality Television Richard M. Huff, 2006-06-30 Reality programming a broad title for unscripted shows that involve non actors is really an updated version of a classic television genre that had its first successes decades before The Real World or Survivor made their premieres NBC launched Try and Do It a show in which audience members attempted to complete tasks such as whistling with a mouthful of crackers in 1949 In the 1950s Queen for a Day crowned the most down trodden of its four contestants draping her in a sable trimmed robe and granting a previously declared wish The wild success reality television has achieved of late has pushed the envelope of such programming ever further away from the genre's
