Realism And Imagination In Ethics:

Realism and Imagination in Ethics Sabina Lovibond,1991-01-08 Feminist Interpretations of David Hume Anne Jaap Jacobson,2010-11-01 These essays cover a diversity of subjects in Hume s work They discuss his theory of knowledge his conception of human inquiry and the human mind his views on our knowledge of the external world and the future his treatments of the passions emotions and virtue his conception of moral education and his views on aesthetics and religion and his historical work The Cambridge Companion to Wittgenstein Hans Sluga,David G. Stern,2018 Updated edition of this important book charting the development of Wittgenstein s philosophy of the mind language logic and mathematics

The Cambridge Companion to Wittgenstein Hans D. Sluga,David G. Stern,1996-10-28 The essays in this volume address central themes in Wittgenstein s writings on the philosophy of mind language logic and mathematics Rationalism, Realism, and Relativism Robert L. Arrington,2019-05-15 During the 1970s and 1980s the field of ethics underwent a profound change in perspective from noncognitivism to cognitivism regarding moral judgments and reasoning Although metaethical noncognitivism had been the predominant point of view during the previous three decades a series of attacks had undermined its authority by the 1970s and it gave way to the cognitivist belief that moral judgments have truth values This book provides a descriptive and critical guide to the often bewildering scene that resulted from these controversies in contemporary moral epistemology Encyclopedia of Ethics Lawrence C. Becker,Charlotte B. Becker,2013-10-18 The editors working with a team of 325 renowned authorities in the field of ethics have revised expanded and updated this classic encyclopedia Along with the addition of 150 new entries all of the original articles have been newly peer reviewed and revised bibliographies have been updated throughout and the overall design of the work has been enhanced for easier access to cross references and other reference features New entries include Cheating Dirty hands Gay ethics Holocaust Journalism Political correctness and many more Feminist Interpretations of Richard Rorty Marianne Janack,2010-01-01 A discussion of issues raised by Richard Rorty s engagement with feminist philosophy Includes essays about the relevance for feminism of pragmatism philosophy rhetoric realism and liberalism Provided by publisher Christian Ethics and Commonsense Morality Kevin Jung,2014-11-27 Christian Ethics and Commonsense Morality goes against the grain of various postmodern approaches to morality in contemporary religious ethics In this book Jung seeks to provide a new framework in which the nature of common Christian moral beliefs and practices can be given a new meaning He suggests that once major philosophical assumptions behind postmodern theories of morality are called into question we may look at Christian morality in quite a different light On his account Christian morality is a historical morality insofar as it is rooted in the rich historical traditions of the Christian church Yet this kind of historical dependence does not entail the evidential dependence of all moral beliefs on historical traditions It is possible to argue for the epistemic autonomy of moral beliefs according to which Christian and other moral beliefs can be justified independently of their historical sources The particularity of Christian morality lies not in its particular historical sources that also function as the grounds of justification but rather in its explanatory and motivational capacity to further articulate the kind of moral knowledge that is readily available to most human beings and to enable people to act upon their moral knowledge

Rhetorical Spaces Lorraine Code, 2013-03-07 The arguments in this book are informed at once by the moral political implications of how knowledge is produced and circulated and by issues of gendered subjectivity In their critical dimension these lucid essays engage with the incapacity of the philosophical mainstream's dominant epistemologies to offer regulative principles that guide people in the epistemic projects that figure centrally in their lives In its constructive dimension Rhetorical Spaces focuses on developing productive case by case analyses of knowing other people in situations where social political inequalities create asymmetrical patterns of epistemic power and privilege

Morality and Moral Theory Robert B. Louden, 1992-05-28 Contemporary philosophers have grown increasingly skeptical toward both morality and moral theory Some argue that moral theory is a radically misguided enterprise that does not illuminate moral practice while others simply deny the value of morality in human life In this important new book Louden responds to the arguments of both anti morality and anti theory skeptics In Part One he develops and defends an alternative conception of morality which he argues captures more of the central features of both Aristotelian and Kantian ethics than do other contemporary models and enables the central importance of morality to be convincingly reaffirmed In Louden's model morality is primarily a matter of what one does to oneself rather than what one does or does not do to others This model eliminates the gulf that many anti morality critics say exists between morality's demands and the personal point of view Louden further argues that morality's primary focus should be on agents and their lives rather than on right actions and that it is always better to be morally better i.e. it is impossible to be too moral Part Two presents Louden's alternative conception of moral theory Here again he draws on the work of Aristotle and Kant showing that their moral theories have far more in common than is usually thought and that those features that they share can be the basis for a viable moral theory that is immune to the standard anti theory objections Louden reaffirms the necessity and importance of moral theory in human life and shows that moral theories fulfill a variety of genuine and indispensable human needs
