God Saw That It Was Good, Not Perfect Hulisani Ramantswana,2024-12-20 The reversal of creation to a non functional state is understood to be symbolic of God s judgement whereas its restoration symbolizes hope A firm understanding of the crucial theological topic of creation is essential for comprehending the canonical story and redemptive history present in Genesis 1 3 Yet how has the traditional progressive reading of these chapters formed our understanding of the goodness of creation in relation to perfection and functionality Considering the broader canonical context Dr Hulisani Ramantswana challenges the standard interpretation of these chapters and argues that the goodness of creation does not imply perfection but instead infers its functionality Proposing an alternative reading he contends the hope in a new heaven and new earth suggests a radical transformation of the good creation instead of merely a restoration Through analyzing the formula of approval in Genesis 1 3 he considers the impact this reframing of goodness might have on the doctrine of creation and how it aids in comprehending our position in a creation that is flawed by evil Stimulating and thought provoking those interested in cultivating a deeper understanding creation and re creation in the canonical perspective will appreciate this study
