River To Rivet A Manifesto:

River to Rivet Douglas Messerli, 1984      The Dance of the Intellect Marjorie Perloff, 1996 Must poetic form be as Yeats demanded full sphere like single or can it accommodate the impurities Yeats and his Modernist generation found so problematic Sixty years later these are still open questions questions to which Marjorie Perloff addresses herself in the essays collected here The first group of essays deals with Pound s own poetics as that poetics related to two of his great contemporaries Stevens and Joyce as well as to the visual arts of his day The second group deals with the more technical aspects of verse and prose In the last four essays Perloff takes up broader issues including the current pessimism about the state of poetry and the work of experimental poets and conceptual poets      Opposing Poetries: Readings Hank Lazer, 1996 Explains to structural engineers some of the basic equations for analyzing and designing buildings that were devised at the end of the 19th century but were so unmanageably complex to solve that they were displaced by approximation techniques until the recent advent of electronic computer Heyman engineering U of Cambridge warns that some of the equations turn out not to fit reality as close as future occupants of buildings might prefer and explains how to use them and in what context Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      New Directions 55 James Laughlin, 1991      The Voyages and Manifesto of William Fergusson, A Surgeon of the East India Company 1731-1739 Derek L. Elliott, 2021-03-03 This volume brings to publication for the first time the manuscript of William Fergusson a Scottish ship s surgeon who sailed for the East India Company in the 1730s Written in 1767 while in retirement Fergusson s diaries are the memories of his youth spent travelling the world during his apprenticeship They detail the four voyages he took the first a passage from Scotland to England with a lading in Ireland and three others to the East calling at ports in the Atlantic southern Africa Arabia India and Southeast Asia before reaching as far as China Almost nothing is known of Fergusson and none of his other writings are known to survive Remaining evidence suggests that he was an average man of his class who travelled the well plied trade routes of European merchant capitalism While many logbooks of these voyages survive comparatively few accounts were written by the men who sailed them Fewer still ever come to light Fergusson s manuscript offers a rare new source on what were by then the relatively routine voyages of the East India Company s early trading network providing a treasure trove of comments on the politics economics societies and religious beliefs and practices he witnessed along the way Originally titled Journals of my Voyages Manifesto the name suggests Fergusson s manuscript offers far more than the insights usually contained in contemporary travelogues In his manifesto readers will discover Fergusson s impassioned polemics on natural religion devotional enthusiasm just governance all while he implores the principles of rationality and reason It is truly a manifesto of Enlightenment thought As such it also provides a unique example of how those who sailed for the East India Company during the early modern era participated in a global intellectual exchange of ideas Fergusson wrote his private memories in twenty two small bound booklets all of which have been transcribed and annotated to guide the reader These are presented here along with a critical introduction that contextualises the complex eighteenth century world into which Fergusson voyaged including elements of his role as a ship's surgeon the Indian Ocean trading and political environment and the ideas of the Enlightenment he so passionately expressed Researchers interested in the histories of ideas medicine early modern colonialism maritime merchant empires as well as historians of Africa and Asia will find much new information to explore within the pages of this volume      Maxims from My Mother's Milk/hymns to Him Douglas Messerli,1988

Letters from Hanusse Joshua Haigh,2000 This volume is the third in The Structure of Destruction Douglas Messerli's exploration of evil the twentieth century Through a series of letters Haigh recounts his involvement in the early 1960s with a cult like group of two married couples as they share a house and sexual favours and later go underground in Paris The story intertwines the lives of figures real and fictional to explore the awful heritage and destructive actions of individuals and the culture as a whole in the late twentieth century      Sagetrieb ,1982      Along Without Douglas Messerli,1993 Volume 1 of the trilogy The Structure of Destruction this film in which the characters speak poetry is a saga with parallels with AIDS and Smiles of a Summer Night Littoral Books a playful and profound filmscript poem play in which a startling array of found texts interwoven with the poet's own words and stage directions creates a narrative as suspenseful as it is poetic Marjorie Perloff

The PIP Anthology of World Poetry of the 20th Century Douglas Messerli,2000 The fifth volume of this acclaimed anthology features the work of innovative poets of southern California This gathering of 28 poets does not write a particular kind of poetry but as individuals they have worked together through a series of intersecting ideas and interests to create some of the best writing of contemporary poetry contradicting many of the simplistic notions of people outside of the region In his introduction editor Douglas Messerli provides a complete history of the loosely knit group and the interrelationships within it
