pregnant infertility IVF pregnancy and birth Fathers-To-Be Handbook Patrick M. Houser, 2007 The Chautauquan, 1912 Russian Magic Tales from Pushkin to Platonov, 2012-12-06 She turned into a frog into a lizard into all kinds of other reptiles and then into a spindle In these tales young women go on long and difficult quests wicked stepmothers turn children into geese and tsars ask dangerous riddles with help or hindrance from magical dolls cannibal witches talking skulls stolen wives and brothers disguised as wise birds Half the tales here are true oral tales collected by folklorists during the last two centuries while the others are reworkings of oral tales by four great Russian writers Alexander Pushkin Nadezhda Teffi Pavel Bazhov and Andrey Platonov In his introduction to these new translations Robert Chandler writes about the primitive magic inherent in these tales and the taboos around them while in the afterword Sibelan Forrester discusses the witch Baba Yaga This edition also includes an appendix bibliography and notes Translated by Robert Chandler and Elizabeth Chandler With Sibelan Forrester Anna Gunin and Olga Meerson The Dream Stalker Margaret Coel, 1998-09-01 New York Times bestselling author Margaret Coel's acclaimed Wind River mysteries shouldn't be missed by anyone interested in either new trends in mystery writing or contemporary American Indian culture She's a master at both Tony Hillerman With promises of new jobs and millions in revenue the Wind River Reservation agrees to use their land for a nuclear storage site But Arapaho attorney Vicky Holden is not willing to let this happen And with help from Father John O Malley she sets out to protect the land and her people But someone involved wants to keep Vicky and anyone else who stands in the way quiet When a man is murdered and two attempts are made on Vicky's life she knows the stakes have been raised Now Vicky and Father John must search through false promises and misguided dreams to find the truth of this harrowing crime and restore the true spirit and dreams of the Arapaho Angel of Oblivion Maja Haderlap, 2016-08-30 Haderlap is an accomplished poet and that lyricism leaves clear traces on this ravishing debut which won the prestigious Bachmann Prize in 2011 The descriptions are sensual and the unusual similes and metaphors occasionally change perspective unexpectedly Angel of Oblivion deals with harrowing subjects murder torture persecution and discrimination of an ethnic minority in intricate and lyrical prose The novel tells the story of a family from the Slovenian minority in Austria The first person narrator starts off with her childhood memories of rural life in a community anchored in the past Yet behind this rural idyll an unresolved conflict is smouldering At first the child wonders about the border to Yugoslavia which runs not far away from her home Then gradually the stories that the adults tell at every opportunity start to make sense All the locals are scarred by the war Her grandfather we find out was a partisan fighting the Nazis from forest hideouts Her grandmother was arrested and survived Ravensbrück As the narrator grows older she finds out more Through conversations at family gatherings and long nights talking to her grandmother she learns that her father was arrested by the Austrian police and tortured at the age of ten to extract information on the whereabouts of his father Her grandmother lost her foster daughter and many friends and relatives in Ravensbrück and only escaped the gas chamber by hiding inside the camp itself The narrator begins to notice the frequent suicides and violent deaths in her home region and she develops an eye for how the Slovenians are treated by the majority of German speaking Austrians As an adult the narrator becomes politicised and openly criticises the way in which Austria deals with the war and its own Nazi past In the closing section she visits Ravensbrück and finds it strangely lifeless realising that her personal memories of her grandmother are stronger Illuminating an almost forgotten chapter of European history and the European present the book deals with family dynamics scarred by war and torture a dominant grandmother a long suffering mother a violent father who loves his children but is impossible to live with And interwoven with this is compelling reflection on storytelling the narrator hoping to rid herself of the emotional burden of her past and to tell stories on behalf of those who cannot

Gipsy Smith, His Life and Work Gipsy Smith,1908 Deliver Us from Evil Lawrence Waddington,2011-05 A young American Catholic priest Father Frank Morello volunteers to assist a seriously ill and elderly colleague working in a foreign country Arriving in an impoverished nation Father Morello does not foresee the tumult he would confront and the challenges it brings to his vocation The tempestuous Sister Carmona in charge of a religious Order of women welcomes Father Morello to the village of San Carlos and he slowly gains the respect and devotion of the people But a brutal and treacherous dictator dominates the country who sensing the charismatic priest as a threat stages Father Morello's arrest In a sham trial a judge sentences the priest to prison Incarcerated injured and beaten by guards Father Morello encounters another inmate the former popular mayor of the city who seeks revenge for the murder of his brother ordered by the dictator Together the two escape and flee to the capitol city where friends conceal them Their plight lights the fire of revolution among the citizenry Sister Carmona urges Father Morello to lead the country in its fight for freedom but his conscience and vows as a priest reject violence Torn between his faith and his dedication to the people Father Morello must resolve a moral dilemma before the country implodes
