Legends of the Fire Spirits Robert Lebling, 2010-07-30 An energy a pulse form of quantum physics perhaps alive at the margins of sleep or madness and more often in the whispering of a single unwelcome thought The Economist According to Islamic tradition Allah created three types of beings angels made of light humans made of earth and jinn made of smokeless fire Supernatural shape shifting intelligent and blessed with free will and remarkable powers jinn have over the ages been given many names demon spirit ghouel genie ifrit and shaitan Neither human nor immortal they roam the earth inhabiting dark and empty places luring humans to their deaths or demonically possessing them if harmed or offended Despite the fact they cannot be seen jinn are said to be strangely human like marrying bearing children forming communities and tribes eating sleeping playing and facing judgement like any other human They are ever present partners in the human experience causing endless mischief providing amazing services and sometimes inducing sheer terror Believed in by hundreds of millions of people throughout the world and from all faiths jinn have played a particularly central role in the literature culture and belief systems of the Middle East and the Islamic world Legends of the Fire Spirits explores through time and across nations the enduring phenomenon of the jinn From North Africa to Central Asia from the Mediterranean to sub Saharan Africa and beyond this riveting often chilling yet reasoned book draws on long forgotten ancient testimonies medieval histories colonial records anthropologist s reports and traveller s tales to explore the different types of jinn their behaviour society culture and long history of contact with humankind It documents their links with famous figures in history such as King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba and illustrates the varied and vivid portrayals of jinn in world literature In essence Legends of the Fire Spirits demonstrates the colourful diversity of human culture and the durability of faith and is a magnificent and indispensable portrayal of the rich folklore of the Islamic world Going Places

Broadly this book is about the Arabian desert as the locus of exploration by a long tradition of British travellers that includes T E Lawrence and Wilfred Thesiger more specifically it is about those who since 1950 have followed in their literary footsteps In analysing modern works covering a land greater than the sum of its geographical parts the discussion identifies outmoded tropes that continue to impinge upon the perception of the Middle East today while recognising that the laboured binaries of East and West desert and sown noble and savage have outrun their course Where however only a barren legacy of latent Orientalism may have been expected the author finds instead a rich seam of writing that exhibits diversity of purpose and insight contributing to contemporary discussions on travel and tourism intercultural representation and environmental awareness By addressing a lack of scholarly attention towards recent additions to the genre this study illustrates for the benefit of students of travel literature or indeed anyone interested in Arabia how desert writing under the emerging configurations of globalisation postcolonialism and ecocriticism acts as a microcosm of the kinds of ethical and emotional dilemmas confronting today s travel writers in the world s most extreme regions Literature of Travel and Exploration
