Register of Commissioned and Warrant Officers of the United States Navy and Reserve Officers on Active Duty United States. Navy, 1978-10 American and British Poetry Harriet Semmes Alexander, 1984 Innovators David W. Galenson, 2025-01-21 Some innovators are luminous shooting stars think Pablo Picasso Albert Einstein Sylvia Plath Bob Dylan Steve Jobs who make bold leaps early and suddenly then lose their creativity Others are late bloomers Paul Cezanne Charles Darwin Virginia Woolf Alfred Hitchcock Warren Buffett who show little early promise but spend long periods doggedly pursuing distant goals and attain greatness in old age By analyzing the careers of scores of great innovators this book reveals systematic differences in the motivations and methods of these two types and their very different patterns of creativity over the life cycle The result is a new and deeper unified understanding of the sources of human creativity Register of Commissioned and Warrant Officers of the United States Naval Reserve , The Last Ocean Nicci Gerrard, 2019-08-13 From the award winning journalist and author a lyrical raw and humane investigation of dementia that explores both the journeys of the people who live with the condition and those of their loved ones After a diagnosis of dementia Nicci Gerrard s father John continued to live life on his own terms alongside the disease But when an isolating hospital stay precipitated a dramatic turn for the worse Gerrard an award winning journalist and author recognized that it was not just the disease but misguided protocol and harmful practices that cause such pain at the end of life Gerrard was inspired to seek a better course for all who suffer because of the disease The Last Ocean is Gerrard s investigation into what dementia does to both the person who lives with the condition and to their caregivers Dementia is now one of the leading causes of death in the West and this necessary book will offer both comfort and a map to those walking through it While she begins with her father s long slip into forgetting Gerrard expands to examine dementia writ large Gerrard gives raw but literary shape both to the unimaginable loss of one s own faculties as well as to the pain of their loved ones Her lens is unflinching but Gerrard honors her subjects and finds the beauty and the humanity in their seemingly diminished states In so doing she examines the philosophy of what it means to have a self as well as how we can offer dignity and peace to those who suffer with this terrible disease Not only will it aid those walking with dementia patients The Last Ocean will prompt all of us to think on the nature of a life well lived A Critical Introduction to Twentieth-Century American Drama: Volume 3, Beyond Broadway C. W. E. Bigsby, 1985-05-02 The final volume of Christopher Bigsby s critical account of American drama in the twentieth century Register of the Commissioned and Warrant Officers of the United States Navy and Marine Corps and Reserve Officers on Active Duty , 1984 The Interior Castle Ann Hulbert, 2013-10-09 An important moment in American literary history takes life in this stunning biography of Jean Stafford one of the most successful admired and troubled of the brilliant and influential midcentury circle of writers and critics that included Allen Tate Caroline Gordon Peter Taylor Delmore Schwartz Randall Jarrell and Robert Lowell Stafford s first husband Ann Hulbert shows us how Stafford raised in

Colorado the daughter of a failed writer of Westerns came of literary age in the East yet fiercely maintained her connection with her provincial background forging the unique style that marked her highly acclaimed first novel Boston Adventure her Masterpiece The Mountain Lion her third novel The Catherine Wheel and the stories she published in The New Yorker and elsewhere which were honored in 1970 with a Pulitzer Prize We follow Stafford through the early experiences to which she returned again and again in her fiction and which helped shape her disenchanted vision her father's sudden loss of his fortune her shame as an adolescent living in a boardinghouse in Boulder run by her mother her aesthetic experimentation as a member of the intellectually maverick Barbarians at the University of Colorado her exciting but troubling Wanderjahr in Nazi Germany where she watched civilization crumbling We see her take her place as a forceful attractive witty yet also insecure woman among a group of spirited young writers who were learning from and challenging their older mentors the increasingly powerful Southern critics and the Partisan Review circle in New York With her marriage to Lowell at twenty four she embarked on a feverishly creative but ill fated course that held auguries of his and his fellow poets tragic paths she struggled with Catholicism confronted domestic violence battled with alcoholism and mental instability and throughout it all wrote formally impeccable fiction And we see her as she finds some happiness with her third husband the writer A J Liebling part of the New Yorker world that had become her home in the late 1940s Throughout we are made aware of Stafford's constant search for a bastion of order a safe place an escape from the unsettling sense of vulnerability that engulfed her an interior castle from which to approach her life and her art
