New German Filmmakers:

New German Cinema Thomas Elsaesser, 1989 The aim of this study of contemporary German cinema is to set the significant films and film makers in their proper context The author explains the nature of the German film industry the cultural inheritance of its film makers and the social and political climate within which they work New German Cinema James C. Franklin, 1986 New German Cinema Julia Knight, 2004 Comprising a discussion of Alice in the Cities The Bitter Tears of Petra von Kant Heimat and The American Friend Julia Knight's study examines the American dominance of German film the framework of European art cinema and how German cinema engages with contemporary German reality The New German Cinema John Sandford, 1982-08-21 Examining the New German Cinema as a whole Sandford provides a film by film study of seven directors locating their achievements within a frame of developments in television drama documentaries and the political history of contemporary Germany itself He also surveys the thematic concerns that dominate or are notably absent from these films From publisher description Women and the New German Cinema Julia Knight, 1992-06-17 There were virtually no women film directors in Germany until the 1970s today there are proportionally more than in any other film making country<sup>6</sup> and their work has been extremely influential Directors like Margarethe von Trotta Helma Sanders-Brahms Ulrike Ottinger and Helke Sander have made a huge contribution to feminist film culture but until now critical consideration of New German Cinema in Britain and the United States has focused almost exclusively on male directors such as Rainer Werner Fassbinder and Wim Wenders In Women and the New German Cinema Julia Knight examines how restrictive social economic and institutional conditions have compounded the neglect of the new women directors Rejecting the traditional auteur approach she explores the principal characteristics of women's film making in the 1970s and 1980s in particular the role of the women's movement the concern with the notion of a feminine aesthetic women's entry into the mainstream and the emergence of a so called post feminist cinema This timely and comprehensive study will be essential reading for everyone concerned with contemporary cinema and feminism New German Film Timothy Corrigan, 1983 The New German Cinema Caryl Flinn, 2004-02-09 This study of New German cinema identifies different styles of historical remembrance in which music participates New German Cinema and Its Global Contexts Marco Abel, Jaimey Fisher, 2025-01-14 Contributors explore these films transnational circuits of production distribution and exhibition as well as how the films were made and received thereby inviting us to reexamine the roots of what New German Cinema was and imagine what it might yet become Deterritorializing the New German Cinema John E. Davidson, 1993 The A to Z of German Cinema Robert C. Reimer, Carol J. Reimer, 2010-04 Outlining the richness of German film The A to Z of German Cinema covers mainstream alternative and experimental film from 1895 to the present through a chronology introductory essay appendix of the 100 most significant German films a bibliography and hundreds of cross New German Filmmakers Klaus Phillips, 1984 West German Filmmakers on Film Eric Rentschler, 1988 This collection by West German film directors provides a dramatic and comprehensive overview of the New German Cinema and its history which since the 1960s has been marked by crisis and confrontation Battling against political and aesthetic constraints the filmmakers represented here demand that film not be a narrow defined means of escape or distraction nor a diminishing of historical events or memory and not a reduction of human and artistic experience No serious observer of new German film can ignore the obstinate defiant and utopian visions reflected in this unique collection the first of its kind to appear in any language

Postwall German Cinema Mattias Frey,2013 Since the fall of the Berlin Wall there has been a proliferation of German historical films These productions have earned prestigious awards and succeeded at box offices both at home and abroad where they count among the most popular German films of all time Recently however the country s cinematic take on history has seen a significant new development the radical style content and politics of the New German Cinema With in depth analyses of the major trends and films this book represents a comprehensive assessment of the historical film in today s Germany Challenging previous paradigms it takes account of a postwall cinema that complexly engages with various historiographical forms and above all with film history itself

Women Filmmakers Jacqueline Levitin,Judith Plessis,Valerie Raoul,2016-02-29 This wide ranging volume of new work brings together women filmmakers and critics who speak about what has changed over the past twenty years Including such filmmakers as Margarethe von Trotta Deepa Mehta and Pratibha Parmar and such critics as E Ann Kaplan this comprehensive volume addresses political artistic and economic questions vital

Historical Dictionary of German Cinema Robert C. Reimer,Carol J. Reimer,2019-07-15 The History of German film is diverse and multi faceted This volume can only suggest the richness of a film tradition that includes five distinct German governments Wilhelmine Germany the Weimar Republic the Third Reich the Federal Republic of Germany West Germany and the German Democratic Republic East Germany s well as a reunited Germany two national industries Germany and Austria and a myriad of styles and production methods Paradoxically the political disruptions that have produced these distinct film eras as well as and the natural inclination of artists to rebel and create new styles allow for construction of a narrative of German film Disjuncture generates distinct points of separation and yet also highlights continuities between the ruptures This second edition of Historical Dictionary of German Cinema contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 200 cross referenced entries on directors actors films cinematographers composers producers and major historical events that greatly affected the direction and development of German cinema This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about German cinema

Nation and Identity in the New German Cinema Inga Scharf,2008-06-30 This book investigates the construction of national identity in films of the New German Cinema using for the first time an explicitly cultural studies methodology

Alexander Kluge Tara Forrest,2012 Alexander Kluge is best known as a founding member of the New German Cinema His work however spans a diverse range of fields and over the last fifty years he has been active as a filmmaker writer and television producer This work features scholarly essays plus articles stories and interviews involving Kluge from back cover Filmmakers on Film, 2023-08-24

This book bridges the gap between film theory and filmmakers thoughts and poetics and proposes a new way to address and elaborate film theory It brings together primary sources by filmmakers themselves drawing on their films interviews books texts and manifestos Divided into three parts the book covers the main aspects of this approach Part one discusses the concepts of author and filmmaker Part two evaluates the creative processes of a broad range of filmmakers including V ctor Gaviria Colombia Kleber Mendon a Filho Brazil Jean Luc Godard and Agn s Varda France Abbas Kiarostami Iran Pa Ranjith India Andy Warhol USA Maya Deren Ukraine USA and Nuri Bilge Ceylan Turkey The final part examines filmmakers various techniques particularly the use of multi images after dialectical images and the use of sound as a sensorial and narrative tool This curated selection of writings with contributors from a range of countries including the USA UK India China Portugal Brazil Belgium and New Zealand reflects the global perspective of this new approach The volume also discusses the ways in which filmmakers influence each other the spectator as seen by filmmakers and ways to critically address a filmography that takes into account filmmakers other than the director From Hitler to Heimat Anton Kaes, 1989 Examines changing attitudes among Germans as evident in films of the modern German era leading away from guilt and atonement and seeking national identity Television, Tabloids, and Tears Jane Shattuc, 1995 I am Biberkopf Rainer Werner Fassbinder declared aligning himself with the protagonist of his widely seen television adaptation of Berlin Alexanderplatz The statement provoked an unprecedented national debate about what constituted an acceptable German artist and who has the power to determine art More than any recent German director Fassbinder embodied this debate and Jane Shattuc shows us how much this can tell us not just about the man and his work but also about the state of culture in Germany It is fascinating in itself that Fassbinder a highly controversial public f
