Annette Denton Livingston,2011-07-14 Sit a while and have a cup of hot tea while reading about my lifes journey from having no hope to the fullness of life and years of enjoying family friends and pets Perhaps you will be inspired to carry on with your own healing journey despite seemingly insurmountable obstacles Sometimes just reading about someone who has suffered the throngs of despair and somehow got out of it can be encouraging In this day and age so many people are being diagnosed with serious problems Have you looked into the face of a doctor who was saying to you Get your affairs in order There is no cure The thought no hope has a way of sinking in and taking one to depths unknown Years before my diagnosis I had already begun a search for something that would make me feel better I started with whole wheat bread and weight programs Later I tried the Reams biological theory of ionization vitamins and minerals and herbs enemas and colonics juicing and green drinks fasting raw foods and wheatgrass Next I tried chiropractic craniosacral therapy ayurvedic medicine massage acupuncture bad tasting teas magnets zappers kombucha tea ma rollers citrine stones music therapy and emotional freedom technique I found that the main therapies that work for me are reflexology qigong a macrobiotic eating plan and lifestyle hypnosis and prayer Do you have a desire to feel better Do you feel like life is passing you by Would you like to have more fullness of life

Floating along downstream will only leave us washed up on the bank or swallowed up in the current Remember that there are ways to help ourselves whether we are strong and healthy or whether we have given up There is always hope as long as there is breath

The Beauty of Living Twice Sharon Stone, 2021-03-30 NEW YORK TIMES BEST SELLER Sharon Stone tells her own story a journey of healing love and purpose Not your typical Hollywood autobiography Brutally honest restless and questing O The Oprah Magazine Sharon Stone one of the most renowned actresses in the world suffered a massive stroke that cost her not only her health but her career family fortune and global fame In The Beauty of Living Twice Stone chronicles her efforts to rebuild her life and writes about her slow road back to wholeness and health In a business that doesn't accept failure in a world where too many voices are silenced Stone found the power to return the courage to speak up and the will to make a difference in the lives of men women and children around the globe Over the course of these intimate pages as candid as a personal conversation Stone talks about her pivotal roles her life changing friendships her worst disappointments and her greatest accomplishments She reveals how she went from a childhood of trauma and violence to a career in an industry that in many ways echoed those same assaults under cover of money and glamour She describes the strength and meaning she found in her children and in her humanitarian efforts And ultimately she shares how she fought her way back to find not only her truth but her family's reconciliation and love Stone made headlines not just for her beauty and her talent but for her candor and her refusal to play nice and it's those same qualities that make this memoir so powerful The Beauty of Living Twice is a book for the wounded and a book for the survivors it's a celebration of women's strength and resilience a reckoning and a call to activism It is proof that it's never too late to raise your voice and speak out

Living in the Dash Marilyn Beattie, 2024-10-21 If you have ever gone to a graveyard and walked among the tombs you would notice that each headstone has certain information on it regarding the life of the person who is buried there

Included in that information is the date of birth and the date of death Between those two dates is a dash That dash though quite small is extremely large in significance for in that little dash is the sum total of the days that person existed on earth Some dashes represent a life that was short and others show a life lived well into the nineties or even past a hundred years The thread of life is exceedingly fragile and we are always just one heartbeat away from eternity from the moment of our conception until we take our last breath The reality of that fact should cause us to want to make the most of our choices while we can because once we have lived up all the days of our dash and we stand before God our right to choose ceases We must strive to make choices that are in harmony with God s plan and purpose for our life in order to live to our utmost potential But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise and the elements shall melt with fervent heat the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness 2 Peter 3
