Private Hong Kong Where East Meets West:

Private Hong Kong Sophie Bengé, 1997 This work provides a look behind the closed doors of Hong Kong's most extravagant and unusual homes revealing the interior style that has given the island its reputation for excess exoticism and masterly application of East meets West aesthetics East Meets West in Dance John Solomon, Ruth Solomon, 2016-01-08 East Meets West in Dance chronicles this development in the words of many of its best known and most active exponents This collection of articles provides a theoretical discussion of the promises and pitfalls inherent in transplanting art forms from one culture to another it offers practical guidance for those who might want to participate in this enterprise and explains the general history of the dance exchange to date It also identifies the differences that are unique to specific cultures such as the development of theatrical forms arts education and the status of artists This is a first examination of a phenomenon that has already touched most people in the arts community worldwide and that none can afford to ignore A lively dialogue has evolved over the last few decades between dance professionals performers teachers and administrators in the United States and Europe and their counterparts in Asia and the Pacific rim East Meets West Kyōng-dong Kim, Hyōn-jin Im, 2007 Over the past few decades East Asia developments in terms of production population and trade have shown remarkable dynamics Ensuing changes in these regions of non Western civilization are commonly interpreted in terms of a successful adaptation of modernity However experiences such as the regional crisis in 1997 and the tragic incident of September 2001 more than ever ask for more intensive civilizational dialogues and urge us to carefully consider the implications of capitalist development in the East Asian context's This book deals with the issues of Asian values civilizational encounters between East and West and the development of capitalism and its culture in East Asian countries Its focus on inter civilizational exchanges and the intricate interplays between civilizational and capitalist dynamics helps us to better understand our human story and history East Meets West Daniel A. Bell, 2000-05-08 Is liberal democracy a universal ideal Proponents of Asian values argue that it is a distinctive product of the Western experience and that Western powers shouldn't try to push human rights and democracy onto Asian states Liberal democrats in the West typically counter by questioning the motives of Asian critics arguing that Asian leaders are merely trying to rationalize human rights violations and authoritarian rule In this book written as a dialogue between an American democrat named Demo and three East Asian critics Daniel A Bell attempts to chart a middle ground between the extremes of the international debate on human rights and democracy Bell criticizes the use of Asian values to justify oppression but also draws on East Asian cultural traditions and contributions by contemporary intellectuals in East Asia to identify some powerful challenges to Western style liberal democracy In the first part of the book Bell makes use of colorful stories and examples to show that there is a need to take into account East Asian perspectives on human rights and democracy The second part a fictitious dialogue between Demo and Asian senior statesman Lee Kuan Yew examines the pros and cons of implementing Western style democracy in

Singapore The third part of the book is an argument for an as yet unrealized Confucian political institution that justifiably differs from Western style liberal democracy This is a thought provoking defense of distinctively East Asian challenges to Western style liberal democracy that will stimulate interest and debate among students of political theory Asian studies and international human rights Learning Marketplace, The: East Meets West In Singapore Prem Kumar,2015-09-23 In Asia we are witnessing an era where the pendulum of power seems to be swaying towards the East with the rising strength of China and India and Singapore is at the crossroads between these populous nations Although Singapore may appear to be the most westernized country in Asia she is nevertheless a multi cultural Asian society Having the most open economy in the world Singapore is plugged into the global marketplace of education and learning The development of human capital is used as a strategic economic driver to internationalize and transform education for sustainable competitive advantage Singapore s education system regarded as one of the consistently best performing in the world offers a unique opportunity to explore issues where eastern and western culture values beliefs learning and knowledge systems converge clash and at times diverge This book is meant to extend our knowledge on the role of learning often overlooked and taken for granted as the air that we breathe but which constantly transforms our lives and reshapes societies It is the first book that deals with the dichotomy of east and west going beyond the traditional learning and education framework to other areas such as economic socio cultural political and technological dimensions that impact Singapore It puts together key topical issues and explores the underbelly of how a small resourceless independent city state like Singapore stays ahead of the learning curve even while facing increasingly intense global competition where the discovery and emergence of new systems for empowerment and independence and the resulting creation of new knowledge and modes of communication are challenging traditional boundaries between the virtual and real world East Meets West John Adago,2014-02-01 An account of how the philosophy of the East came to be so integrated into the everyday lives of millions in the West this book focuses on a select group of men and women who endeavored tirelessly to inject Eastern wisdom into a lacking Western worldview From G I Gurdjieff and P D Ouspensky who first perceived a missing element in Western thought through Maharishi Mahesh Yogi who introduced meditation to the West to Shantananda Sarawati who taught the philosophy of nondualism to Francis Roles and Leon MacLaren this history looks at the lives and work of those individuals who were primarily responsible for bridging the cultural divide The book also discusses the author s own experiences with a number of teachers and organizations that have taught meditation Eastern philosophy and the Fourth Way Creativity: When East Meets West Sing Lau,Anna Na Na Hui,Grace Yan Chak Ng,2004-08-02 What actually is creativity And what contributes to its conceptualization and development For decades these and other questions have fascinated researchers educators parents and laypeople alike and equally so in the East and West This interesting collection of articles is an attempt at exploring and answering the above questions from both the Eastern and Western perspectives Readers may find some answers stimulating and others

bewildering This is in fact the reality and fascination of creativity research and education It is hoped that readers will share the joy of reading such a road map Forever Hong Kong Ching Kwan Lee,2025-08-12 How did Hong Kong long an affluent and depoliticized hub of global capitalism become the center of popular anticolonial protest Ching Kwan Lee provides a reflective history and vivid ethnography of an improbable decolonization movement exploring what drives Hong Kongers pursuit of a future built on democracy justice and self determination Chinese Style Sunamita Lim,2006 Take the popular decorating concept of Feng Shui to a whole new level with authentic information on how to create a Chinese aesthetic Learn how to alleviate clutter and increase the flow of chi the universal life force discover ways of integrating Chinese furniture and decorative arts to decorating styles and stroll through a rich collection of images from homes museums and galleries

Project Management in Construction Anthony Walker,2015-04-20 As with all previous editions of Project Management in Construction this sixth edition focuses on systems theory as the approach suitable for organizing and managing people skilled in the design and completion of construction projects It discusses the many competing paradigms and alternative perspectives available for example in relation to differentiation and integration as well as the emerging study of temporary organizations and its relevance to construction project management Whilst encompassing the need to develop further theoretical aspects of construction project organization theory this edition has also enhanced the application of organization studies to practical issues of construction project management More emphasis has been placed on the added complexity of construction project management by issues surrounding clients and stakeholders and the control and empowerment of project participants Additional focus has been placed on sustainability issues as they impinge on construction project management on reworked views on supply chain management and on developments in partnering together with clarification of the shifting terms and definitions relating to construction organization structures and their uses Lonely Planet Hong Kong Lonely Planet, Museum Processes in China Chui-fun Selina Ho,2025-10-01 This book challenges the museum enterprise in China as a state monopoly and considers it as a new cultural agency that has emerged in the early twenty first century Following a constructive and multi perspectival approach it discusses the roles of political and cultural economic agents museum intermediaries and museum publics in the interlinked processes of regulation cultural production and consumption and the issues of identity and representation faced by the art museums in the Greater Pearl River Delta Region It broadly traces the art museum from its origin as a tool of nationalism and adoption as a vehicle of modernization in both nationalist and early communist periods until its role in the present as it reflects the contested and alternative representations diverse publics and fissured identities of the post economic reform period of China Principles of Social Psychiatry Craig Morgan,Dinesh Bhugra,2010-03-04 Social psychiatry is concerned with the effects of the social environment on the mental health of the individual and with the effects of the person with a mental disorder on his her social environment The field encompasses social interventions prevention and the promotion of mental health This new edition of Principles of Social Psychiatry provides a broad overview of current thinking in this expanding field and will be a source of ideas both in research and for the management of mental disorder. It opens by putting social psychiatry in perspective within both psychiatry and the social sciences. From the patient's perspective the outermost influence is the culture in which they live followed by their neighbourhoods, workmates and friends and family. The next section considers how we conceptualize the social world from families through cultural identity and ethnicity to the wider social environment. The book reviews the social determinants and consequences of the major mental disorders before considering interventions and service delivery at various levels to mitigate these. It closes with a review of the social impact of mental illness around the world and a thoughtful essay by the editors on the current state of social psychiatry and where it is heading.

Mathematics Education and Technology-Rethinking the Terrain Celia Hoyle, Jean-Baptiste Lagrange, 2009-10-09. Mathematics Education and Technology Rethinking the Terrain revisits the important 1985 ICMI Study on the influence of computers and informatics on mathematics and its teaching. The focus of this book resulting from the seventeenth Study led by ICMI is the use of digital technologies in mathematics teaching and learning in countries across the world. Specifically it focuses on cultural diversity and how this diversity impinges on the use of digital technologies in mathematics teaching and learning. Within this focus themes such as mathematics and mathematical practices, learning and assessing mathematics with and through digital technologies, teachers and teaching, design of learning environments and curricula, implementation of curricula and classroom practice, access, equity and socio-cultural issues and connectivity and virtual networks for learning serve to organize the study and bring it coherence. Providing a state of the art view of the domain with regards to research, innovating practices and technological development, Mathematics Education and Technology Rethinking the Terrain is of interest to researchers and all those interested in the role that digital technology plays in mathematics education.

Dreams + Disillusions CJ Lim, Luke Angers, 2024-04-25. Dreams Disillusions explores the plethora of ideas and ideologies that have shaped and reshaped cities in profound ways. However, unlike a conventional title on the history of urbanism and architecture, its research fluctuates between the world of concrete reality and the multiple universes that exist in lucid, prose-poetic visions and the outrageous imaginations of history's greatest and most famous minds. In their thoughts are the foundations for political trends and new civilisations, alternative mappings and unlikely phenomena. The six chapters reveal dreams that were fundamental to the origin of great cities, underpinning the stories of the many lives within and how, through circumstance or manipulation, fortunate coincidence or planned perfection, desires are sometimes left defeated and disillusioned. Myth and belief, Tradition and logic, Revolution and marginalisation, Ignorance and hubris, Sins and excess, Seasons and climate. Continuously interacting, shifting to enlighten and to enrage, these themes combine critical thinking with deep-rooted influences and new agencies that are a true sign of the times. The 18 illustrated speculations provide an abundance of curious imaginings, diverse provocations and satirical criticism. While there are distinctions between dreams and disillusions, could virtues be made of sins or sensitivity be borne from hubris Could progress advocate tradition or should we re attempt revolutions formerly experienced as disillusionments Whether by bold gestures or by subtle attrition cities are continually re written crucibles for the human condition In this book we develop a better understanding of the discourse of cities tailored to the determining factors of climate resources and humanity s idiosyncrasies to address a world in crisis The July 1 Protest Rally Joseph Y.
