Sheltered Life:

Living a Sheltered Life Paul Cummings, 2019-12-31 As I reflected on working in a Teen Challenge Youth Emergency Accommodation Shelter I began to realize that in serving others I too had been greatly served I didn't work at the shelter to receive blessings or any such thing My understanding was that I worked there to help others less fortunate than I in obedience to God's will for my life But I did get blessed Abundantly It's a spiritual dynamic that when we serve others we are also served As I served the homeless youth in Brisbane Australia God served me through those very same homeless teenagers The lives and issues I faced were used by God to grow and mature me as a Christian Without knowing it themselves different residents were used by God to speak to my heart and teach me his ways It came through reminders of God's grace toward me in my adolescent years I gained insights on how to grow the ministry using scriptural leadership principles I also saw the power of prayer in action God used all those things and more to give direction and purpose to my life and work I went to serve others and God served me
