Shingon Texts Kūkai, 2004-05 This volume includes five texts by Kūkai On the Differences between the Exoteric and Esoteric Teachings The Meaning of Becoming a Buddha in This Very Body The Meanings of Sound Sign and Reality The Meanings of the Word Hum The Precious Key to the Secret Treasury and two by Kakuban The Illuminating Secret Commentary on the Five Cakras and the Nine Syllables The Mitsugonin Confession On the Differences between the Exoteric and Esoteric Teachings aims to highlight the differences between Exoteric and Esoteric Buddhism and explain why the latter is superior to the former The Meaning of Becoming a Buddha in This Very Body is a collection of discussions and remarks on the possibility of attaining enlightenment in one's lifetime The Meanings of Sound Sign and Reality concerns the problem of expressing ultimate reality through language It extends the connotations of language to embrace all phenomena The Meanings of the Word Hum demonstrates how the entire teachings of Buddhism can be encapsulated in a single word or syllable The Precious Key to the Secret Treasury is an abridged version of the teachings of the Shingon school It discusses the ten stages of Buddhism and how each successive stage overcomes the limitations of previous stages The Mitsugonin Confession is a text recited in the daily services of Shingon temples throughout Japan and reflects the actual conditions of monastic life on Koyasan during its founder Kakuban's lifetime The Illuminating Secret Commentary on the Five Cakras and the Nine Syllables is a work assimilating the Shingon and Pure Land schools from the standpoint of the Shingon teachings established by Kūkai It argues that attaining enlightenment in one's present body through esoteric practices is the same ultimately as being born in the Western Paradise through chanting Amitābha's name Pure Lands in Asian Texts and Contexts Georgios T. Halkias, Richard K. Payne, 2019-03-31 This diverse anthology of original Buddhist texts in translation provides a historical and conceptual framework that will transform contemporary scholarship on Pure Land Buddhism and instigate its recognition as an essential field of Buddhist studies Traditional and contemporary primary sources carefully selected from Buddhist cultures across historical geopolitical and literary boundaries are organized by genre rather than chronologically geographically or by religious lineage a novel juxtaposition that reveals their wider importance in fresh contexts Together these fundamental texts from different Asian traditions expertly translated by eminent and up and coming scholars illustrate that the Buddhism of pure lands is not just an East Asian cult or a marginal type of Buddhism but a pan Asian and deeply entrenched religious phenomenon The volume is organized into six parts Ritual Practices Contemplative Visualizations Doctrinal Expositions Life Writing and Poetry Ethical and Aesthetic Explications and Worlds beyond Samsara Each part is introduced and summarized and each translated piece is prefaced by its translator to supply historical and sectarian context as well as insight into the significance of the work Common and less common issues of practice doctrine and intra religious transfer are explored and deeper understandings of the meaning of pure lands are gained through the study of the celestial cosmological internal and earthly pure lands associated with various buddhas bodhisattvas and devotional figures The introduction by the volume editors ties the diverse themes of the book together and provides a historical background to Pure Land Buddhist studies Scholars of Buddhism and Asian religion including graduate and post graduate students as well as Buddhist practitioners will appreciate the range of translated materials and accompanied discussions made accessible in one essential collection the first of its kind to center on the formerly neglected topic of Buddhist pure lands
