Shipwrecked The True Adventures Of A Japanese Boy:

Shipwrecked! Rhoda Blumberg, 2003-01-07 For use in schools and libraries only In 1841 rescued by an American whaler after a terrible shipwreck leaves him and his four companions castaways on a remote island 14 year old Manjiro learns new laws and customs as he becomes the first Japanese person to set foot in the United States Shipwrecked! Rhoda Blumberg, 2001-02-28 This is Manjiro's sketch of the desolate island of Torishima where he was marooned for six months with four other fishermen He signed it John Mung the name he was given by Americans Shipwrecked! Rhoda Blumberg, 2001-02-28 In the 1800s the Japanese government had strict isolation laws By decree foreigners and ideas from outside Japan were forbidden So when fourteen year old Manjiro and four other fishermen were shipwrecked on a small rocky island three hundred miles from shore they wondered if they would ever be allowed to return home Celebrated author Rhoda Blumberg regales us with Manjiro's exciting true story He was the first Japanese person to come to the United States and his impressions of the country give us vivid glimpses of midnineteenth century American life He even took part in the Gold Rush In a surprising twist of fate Manjiro became a hero in Japan playing an important role in opening his country to westerners Told here by a brilliant storyteller with a passion for history Manjiro's biography is a fast paced historically accurate inspiring true life adventure Japan and American Children's Books Sybille Jagusch, 2021-06-18 Drawing from the Library of Congress's massive collection this volume takes readers on a fascinating and informative journey through nearly 200 years of American children's books and periodicals depicting life in Japan from fanciful travelogues full of exotic stereotypes to serious works about wartime atrocities Published by Rutgers University Press in association with the Library of Congress The Read-Aloud Handbook Jim Trelease, 2006-07-25 A New York Times and million copy bestseller the classic handbook on reading aloud to children revised and updated Recommended by Dear Abby The New York Times and The Washington Post for three decades millions of parents and educators have turned to Jim Trelease's beloved classic to help countless children become avid readers through awakening their imaginations and improving their language skills Now this new edition of The Read Aloud Handbook imparts the benefits rewards and importance of reading aloud to children of a new generation Supported by delightful anecdotes as well as the latest research The Read Aloud Handbook offers proven techniques and strategies and the reasoning behind them for helping children discover the pleasures of reading and setting them on the road to becoming lifelong readers Booktalking Around the World Sonja Cole, 2010-10-21 This text contains convenient ready to go booktalks for contemporary fiction and nonfiction books set in every continent around the globe useful for librarians and other educators of grades three through nine A public librarian introducing young readers to stories from around the world A social studies teacher wanting to offer students extra credit on a unit about ancient Greece A Spanish teacher who needs to generate some excitement and interest about Hispanic culture All of these educators can achieve their goals by utilizing the internationally themed booktalk suggestions in this text Booktalking Around the World

Great Global Reads for Ages 9 14 This collection of booktalks and book lists is designed to be an invaluable resource for teachers as well as school and public librarians seeking geographically themed booktalks for newer books published from 2000 2010 Because studying the countries of the world is a major part of most school curricula this book will support or extend this important curricular area All the booktalks in this collection are aimed at children aged 9 14 All seven continents are represented but the United States is excluded Victorian Animal Dreams Deborah Denenholz Morse, Martin A.

Danahay, 2017-05-15 The Victorian period witnessed the beginning of a debate on the status of animals that continues today This volume explicitly acknowledges the way twenty first century deliberations about animal rights and the fact of past and prospective animal extinction haunt the discussion of the Victorians obsession with animals Combining close attention to historical detail with a sophisticated analytical framework the contributors examine the various forms of human dominion over animals including imaginative possession of animals in the realms of fiction performance and the visual arts as well as physical control as manifest in hunting killing vivisection and zookeeping The diverse range of topics analyzed from a contemporary perspective makes the volume a significant contribution to Victorian studies The conclusion by Harriet Ritvo the pre eminent authority in the field of Victorian animal studies provides valuable insight into the burgeoning field of animal studies and points toward future studies of animals in the Victorian period The Mother of All Booklists William Patrick

Martin, 2014-12-24 The Mother of All Booklists The 500 Most Recommended Nonfiction Reads for Ages 3 to 103 is written for parents grandparents and teachers unfamiliar with the bewildering array of award and recommended reading lists This book is a long overdue composite of all the major booklists It brings together over 100 of the most influential book awards and reading lists from leading magazines newspapers reference books schools libraries parenting organizations and professional groups from across the country The Mother of All Booklists is to reading books what the website Rotten Tomatoes is to watching movies the ultimate one stop synthesizing resource for finding out what is best Mother is not the opinion of one book critic but the aggregate opinion of an army of critics Organized into five age group lists each with one hundred books preschoolers ages 3 5 early readers ages 5 9 middle readers ages 9 13 young adults ages 13 17 and adults ages 18 The Mother of All Booklists amalgamates the knowledge of the best English language booklists in the United States including a few from Canada and Great Britain Each of the 500 books is annotated describing the contents of the book and suggesting why the book is unique and important Each includes a picture of the book cover Guiding Readers Through

Non-Fiction Dave Leochko, Tom Rossi, 2007 Written for grades 4 7 teachers and students Guiding Readers Through Non Fiction is an easy to use resource It provides essential background information on the nature of nonfiction and how to use nonfiction in small guided reading groups The book is filled with many ready to use student handouts graphic organizers rubrics assessment checklists and planning guidelines In this resource you will find teaching suggestions and strategies to help students engage with various forms of nonfiction necessary information for implementing guided reading practices in the classroom effective strategies to incorporate successful small group instruction in the classroom plans and suggestions for structuring the guided reading lesson Promoting Great Reads to Improve Teen Reading Lucy Schall, 2015-02-12

Support current educational initiatives with a ready to use tool that will help you with selection motivation and skill building relative to titles published within the last five years New demands by Common Core and other national and state standards mean teachers and librarians need support in pairing high interest content with skill building that speaks to those standards This hands on research based resource will help Covering 100 titles it guides you to topics themes values and activities that meet national and state standards The book s organization by genres topics and themes will enable librarians to serve customers with specific requests and help teachers build thematic units Focusing on recent young adult fiction and nonfiction 2010 2014 the guide offers a succinct plot summary links to popular themes and genres indication of reading levels and an engaging booktalk for each title It also includes guidelines for further promoting each book and extending knowledge through discussion The author a former middle and high school teacher demonstrates how you can foster close reading through paraphrasing comparison and response and explains how to strengthen critical thinking among teens Lists of related titles and notes on gender appeal can be used for readers advisory
