ShockDecember 21 Horror Movies In 48 Hours:

ShockJuly , Subversive Horror Cinema Jon Towlson,2014-03-13 Horror cinema flourishes in times of ideological crisis and national trauma the Great Depression the Cold War the Vietnam era post 9 11 and this critical text argues that a succession of filmmakers working in horror from James Whale to Jen and Sylvia Soska have used the genre and the shock value it affords to challenge the status quo during these times Spanning the decades from the 1930s onward it examines the work of producers and directors as varied as George A Romero Pete Walker Michael Reeves Herman Cohen Wes Craven and Brian Yuzna and the ways in which films like Frankenstein 1931 Cat People 1942 The Woman 2011 and American Mary 2012 can be considered subversive Hardcore Horror Cinema in the 21st Century James Aston,2018-08-23 The first of its kind this study examines the exemplars of hardcore horror Fred Vogel s August Underground trilogy Shane Ryan s Amateur Porn Star Killer series and Lucifer Valentine s vomit gore films The author begins with a definition and critical overview of this marginalized subgenre before exploring its key aesthetic convention the pursuit of realist horror Production practices exhibition and marketing strategies are discussed in an in depth interview with filmmaker Shane Ryan Audience reception is covered with a focus on fan interaction via the Internet Dad Made Dirty Movies Jordan Todorov,Joe Blevins,2020-10-05 Strippers zombies fugitives and jewel thieves These were just some of the characters who inhabited the weird wild films of director Stephen C Apostolof in the 1960s and 1970s But Apostolof s own life was every bit as improbable as the plots of his lurid movies Escaping the clutches of the communists in his native Bulgaria he came to America in 1952 and decided on a whim to reinvent himself as a Hollywood filmmaker right down to the cigars sunglasses and Cadillacs He produced a string of memorable sexploitation classics including the infamous Orgy of the Dead Along the way he married three times fathered five children and forged a personal and professional relationship with the notorious Ed Wood Jr Drawing on rare archival material and interviews with those who knew him best this first biography of Apostolof chronicles the life and career of a cult film legend Rediscovering U.S. Newsfilm Mark Garrett Cooper,Sara Beth Levavy,Ross Melnick,Mark Williams,2018-06-14 The twentieth century generated tens of thousands of hours of American newsfilm but not the scholarly apparatus necessary to analyze and contextualize them Assembling new approaches to the study of U S newsfilm in cinema and television this book makes a long overdue critical intervention in the field of film and media studies by addressing the format s inherent intermediality its mediation of events for local national and transnational communities its distinctive archival legacies and consequently its integral place in film and television studies more broadly This collection brings fresh contemporary methodologies and analysis to bear on a vast amount of material that has languished in relative obscurity for far too long

Rape-Revenge Films Alexandra Heller-Nicholas,2014-11-21 Often considered the lowest depth to which the cinema can plummet the rape revenge film has been dismissed as exploitative and sensational catering to a demented demographic Only on such rare occasions as Ingmar Bergman s The Virgin Spring John Boorman s Deliverance and Quentin Tarantino s Death

Proof has the rape revenge movie transcended what is commonly assumed to be its intrinsically exploitative nature and moved into the mainstream This critical overview reassesses that viewpoint by exploring a variety of themes as well as the elements that this type of film has in common The author discusses an array of films directed by noteworthy directors from several countries demonstrating that diverse and often contradictory treatments of sexual violence can exist simultaneously

The Turn to Gruesomeness in American Horror Films, 1931-1936 Jon Towlson,2016-09-12 Critics have traditionally characterized classic horror by its use of shadow and suggestion Yet the graphic nature of early 1930s films only came to light in the home video DVD era Along with gangster movies and sex pictures horror films drew audiences during the Great Depression with sensational content Exploiting a loophole in the Hays Code which made no provision for on screen gruesomeness studios produced remarkably explicit films that were recut when the Code was more rigidly enforced from 1934 This led to a modern misperception that classic horror was intended to be safe and reassuring to audiences The author examines the 1931 to 1936 happy ending horror in relation to industry practices and censorship Early works like Murders in the Rue Morgue 1932 and The Raven 1935 may be more akin to The Texas Chain Saw Massacre 1974 and Hostel 2005 than many critics believe

Horror Films of the 1980s John Kenneth Muir,2010-07-28 John Kenneth Muir is back This time the author of the acclaimed Horror Films of the 1970s turns his attention to 300 films from the 1980s From horror franchises like Friday the 13th and Hellraiser to obscurities like The Children and The Boogens Muir is our informative guide Muir introduces the scope of the decade s horrors and offers a history that draws parallels between current events and the nightmares unfolding on cinema screens Each of the 300 films is discussed with detailed credits a brief synopsis a critical commentary and where applicable notes on the film s legacy beyond the 80s Also included is the author s ranking of the 15 best horror films of the 80s

Ghost Movies in Southeast Asia and Beyond ,2016-08-09 Ghost Movies in Southeast Asia and Beyond explores ghost movies one of the most popular film genres in East and Southeast Asia by focusing on movie narratives the cultural contexts of their origins and audience reception In the middle of the Asian crisis of the late 1990s ghost movies became major box office hits The emergence of the phenomenally popular J Horror genre inspired similar ghost movie productions in Korea Thailand Taiwan Hong Kong the Philippines and Singapore Ghost movies are embedded and reflected in national as well as transnational cultures and politics in narrative traditions in the social worlds of the audience and in the perceptual experience of each individual They reflect upon the identity crises and traumas of the living as well as of the dead and they unfold affection and attraction in the border zone between amusement and thrill secular and religious worldviews This makes the genre interesting not only for sociologists anthropologists media and film scholars but also for scholars of religion

Alien Roger Luckhurst,2019-07-25 A legendary fusion of science fiction and horror Ridley Scott s Alien 1979 is one of the most enduring films of modern cinema its famously visceral scenes acting like a traumatic wound we seem compelled to revisit Tracing the constellation of talents that came together to produce the film Roger Luckhurst examines its origins as a monster movie script called Star Beast dismissed by many in Hollywood as B movie trash through to its afterlife in numerous sequels prequels and elaborations Exploring the ways in which Alien compels us to think about otherness Luckhurst demonstrates how and why this interstellar slasher movie this old dark house in space came to coil itself around our darkest imaginings about the fragility of humanity This special edition features original cover artwork by Marta Lech
