

The background is a painting of a dumpsite. In the foreground, there is a large pile of trash, including a brown cardboard box, a white plastic container, and various pieces of debris. A red object, possibly a piece of clothing or a bag, is visible on the right side of the trash pile. In the middle ground, there is a line of trees and a fence. In the background, there is a dense forest of tall, thin trees under a dark, overcast sky.

Shooting Rats At The Bibb County Dump:

Shooting Rats at the Bibb County Dump David Bottoms, 1980-01-01 Shooting Rats at the Bibb County Dump David Bottoms, 1980 David Bottoms William Walsh, 2014-01-10 The South has a long tradition of great writers who remain in the South transforming the local landscape into a universal one Currently Poet Laureate of Georgia David Bottoms is one of the South's most revered poets The fifteen critical essays in this collection set out to examine the images and themes revealed in his poetry and fiction Topics include the role of rebirth and resurrection the presence of faith in the poems masculinity and gender and race in the South Southbound Ernest Suarez, T. W. Stanford, Amy Verner, 1999 There's a real flowering I think of southern poetry right now assembling at the edges of everything This observation by Pulitzer Prize winning poet Charles Wright reflects upon the continuing vibrancy and importance of the southern poetic tradition Although the death of James Dickey in 1997 left southern poetry without a recognizably dominant voice an array of other vibrant voices continue to be heard and recognized Southbound Interviews with Southern Poets provides a glimpse of the many poets who promise to keep southern poetry vital into the twenty first century Show Me Your Environment David Baker, 2014-01-22 The sense of place and connection to it as seen through the lens of environmental conscience The Made Thing Leon Stokesbury, 1999-01-01 The second edition features twelve new poets as well as new work by Donald Justice T R Hummer Dave Smith Pattiann Rogers Andrew Hudgins Henry Taylor Gerald Barrax Rodney Jones and others Among the new additions are Mark Jarman Cathy Smith Bowers and Charlie Smith Many teachers realize that the best way to get their students to relate to poetry is to show them poems that contain landscapes and subjects they understand and can identify with Leon Stokesbury has put together a richly varied collection used in classrooms not only in the South but all over the country as a means of studying the important influence of southern poetry on American literature With the publication of the second edition of The Made Thing Stokesbury has marked the end of the twentieth century and the rise to prominence of southern writers This collection serves as a substantial sampling of poets whose works span more than five decades and who explore the rich personal and cultural history that extends beyond the boundaries of the South The New Georgia Encyclopedia Companion to Georgia Literature Hugh Ruppersburg, 2011-08-15 Georgia has played a formative role in the writing of America Few states have produced a more impressive array of literary figures among them Conrad Aiken Erskine Caldwell James Dickey Joel Chandler Harris Carson McCullers Flannery O'Connor Jean Toomer and Alice Walker This volume contains biographical and critical discussions of Georgia writers from the nineteenth century to the present as well as other information pertinent to Georgia literature Organized in alphabetical order by author the entries discuss each author's life and work contributions to Georgia history and culture and relevance to wider currents in regional and national literature Lists of recommended readings supplement most entries Especially important Georgia books have their own entries works of social significance such as Lillian Smith's Strange Fruit international publishing sensations like Margaret Mitchell's Gone

With the Wind and crowning artistic achievements including Jean Toomer's Cane The literary culture of the state is also covered with information on the Georgia Review and other journals the Georgia Center for the Book which promotes authors and reading and the Townsend Prize given in recognition of the year's best fiction This is an essential volume for readers who want both to celebrate and learn more about Georgia's literary heritage A Scrap in the Blessings Jar David

Bottoms, 2023-10-04 A Scrap in the Blessings Jar a volume of new and selected poems by David Bottoms captures the evolution of the poet's spiritual quest over the past fifty years A native and longtime resident of Georgia Bottoms draws inspiration from the American South and his work examines themes related to family dynamics the woods animals fishing and music in an effort to as he once told an interviewer reveal something about the hidden things of the world the vague or shadowy relationships and connections that exist just below the surface of our daily lives This book charts his progression from tightly wrought naturalistic narratives to works that reflect his shifting conception of the interplay between memory the present and the metaphysical At heart Bottoms remains a storyteller who employs figurative language to discover the extraordinary in the seemingly mundane and whose poetry explores the depths of our existential condition and common humanity A Way of Happening Fred Chappell, 2013-12-17

One of our most acclaimed and versatile authors Fred Chappell is comfortably at home in fiction poetry and literary criticism A Way of Happening gathers his essays and reviews of contemporary poetry Chappell considers new writers as well as more established authors including Alfred Corn William Matthews A R Ammons Linda Pastan Julia Randall Cornelius Eady Alan Shapiro and many others And there are essays on the plight of the critic Thanks but No Thanks and the delicate role of the writing teacher First Night Come Round Again

Hard Lines Daniel Cross Turner, William Wright, 2016-04-01 A collection of contemporary poems exploring the grit of work love and the land down South Daniel Cross Turner and William Wright's anthology Hard Lines Rough South Poetry centers on the darker side of southern experience while presenting a remarkable array of poets from diverse backgrounds in the American South As tough minded as they are high minded the sixty contemporary poets and two hundred poems anthologized in Hard Lines enhance the powerful genre of Grit Lit The volume gathers the work of poets who have for some decades formed the heart of southern poetry as well as that of emerging voices who will soon become significant figures in southern literature These poems sting our senses into awareness of a gritty world down South hard work hard love hard drinking hard times but they also explore the importance of the land and rural experience as well as race gender and class based conflicts Readers will see hear for poetry is meant to ring in the ears and feel for poetry is meant to beat in the blood there is plenty of raucousness in this anthology And yet the cultural conflicts that ignite southern wildness are often depicted in a manner that is lyrical without becoming lugubrious mournful but not maudlin Some of these poets are coming to terms with a visibly transforming culture a roughness in and of itself Indeed many of these poets are helping to change the definition of the South The anthology also features biographical information on each poet in addition to further reading
