working in a close knit community of artists and writers while making his living as an optician Ralph Eugene Meatyard American Mystic by esteemed art historian Alexander Nemerov is a groundbreaking study of Meatyard s work creative thinking and sources of inspiration Given rare access to the personal library in which Meatyard had tellingly annotated works of fiction poetry and other pages of personal significance Nemerov examines the artist s process of creating characters and staging dreamlike scenes American Mystic also considers the artists and writers whose work influenced Meatyard such as

 Ralph Eugene Meatyard Judith Keller,2002 Ralph Eugene Meatyard Ralph Eugene Meatyard,Guy Davenport,International Center of Photography,2004 The photographs of Ralph Eugene Meatyard defy convention they have been called visionary surrealistic and meditative Whatever the label these evocative images of friends and family and the natural world around his home illustrate a delicate psychology of human interaction Meatyard was trained as an optician a profession that he maintained all his life in Lexington Kentucky he bought a camera in 1950 for the sole purpose of photographing his first born son But shortly thereafter he joined the Lexington Camera Club and developed a friendship with his photography teacher Van Deren Coke as well as a circle of local writers and photographers including Guy Davenport Thomas Merton Wendell Berry Jonathan Williams and Minor White Family and friends freely participated in Meatyard s staged and mysterious images which often involve masks and abandoned spaces and obliquely reference social political and cultural issues A key subject in Meatyard s work is the natural environment which is featured in his Light on Water series in which long exposures seem to create calligraphic texts and his No Focus series in which he deliberately photographed stems and twigs out of focus In one of his last series titled Motion Sound the pictures were made by moving the camera gently creating multiple exposures of the woodland scenes that suggest abstract sound patterns The book accompanies an exhibition organized by ICP Assistant Curator Cynthia Young with acclaimed writer and Meatyard friend Guy Davenport who also wrote the text Also included are the exhibition history chronology and bibliography Ralph Eugene Meatyard Center
