In the Studio Brian R. Jacobson,2020-07-21 Studios are at once material environments and symbolic forms sites of artistic creation and physical labor and nodes in networks of resource circulation They are architectural places that generate virtual spaces worlds built to build worlds Yet despite being icons of corporate identity studios have faded into the background of critical discourse and into the margins of film and media history In response In the Studio demonstrates that when we foreground these worlds we gain new insights into moving image culture and the dynamics that quietly mark the worlds on our screens Spanning the twentieth century and moving globally this unique collection tells new stories about studio icons Pinewood Cinecitt Churubusco and CBS as well as about the experimental workplaces of filmmakers and artists from Aleksandr Medvedkin to Charles and Ray Eames and Hollis Frampton
