Comics and Novelization Benoît Glaude, 2023-05-24 This book opens a novel perspective on comics and literature interactions It claims that the two artistic media have always maintained a mutual emulation for as long as they have coexisted in media culture To demonstrate this the present research does not focus on literary adaptations in comics form but rather on a literary corpus that remains virtually unexplored comics related novels The purpose of this volume is to inventory French comics related novels and to study them Within the limits of the French speaking world this book pieces together a literary history of bande dessinée through its novels from the nineteenth to twenty first centuries Although the comic strip including the aptly named graphic novel has sometimes been regarded as the disciple of an unsurpassable literary model do these understudied adaptations in novel form not rather indicate a mutual relationship or even an emulation between the two media

Rebirth of the English Comic Strip David Kunzle, 2021-07-29 Rebirth of the English Comic Strip A Kaleidoscope 1847-1870 enters deep into an era of comic history that has been entirely neglected This buried cache of mid-Victorian graphic humor is marvelously rich in pictorial narratives of all kinds Author David Kunzle calls this period a rebirth because of the preceding long hiatus in use of the new genre since the Great Age of Caricature c 1780 c 1820 when the comic strip was practiced as a sideline Suddenly in 1847 a new post-Tiffany comic strip sparks to life in Britain mostly in periodicals and especially in Punch where all the best artists of the period participated if only sporadically Richard Doyle John Tenniel John Leech Charles Keene and George Du Maurier Until now this aspect of the extensive oeuvre of the well-known masters of the new journal cartoon in Punch has been almost completely ignored Exceptionally George Cruikshank revived just once in The Bottle independently the whole serious contrasting Hogarthian picture story Numerous comic strips and picture stories appeared in periodicals other than Punch by artists who were likewise largely ignored Like the Punch luminaries they adopt in semirealistic style sociopolitical subject matter easily accessible to their lower middle class readership The topics covered in and out of Punch by these strips and graphic novels range from French enemies King Louis Philippe and Emperor Napoleon III to farcical treatment of major historical events the Bayeux tapestry 1848 the Great Exhibition of 1851 and the Franco-Prussian War in 1870 Artists explore a great variety of social types occupations and situations such as the emigrant the tourist fox hunting and Indian big game hunting dueling the forlorn lover the student the artist the toothache the burglar the paramilitary volunteer Darwinian animal metamorphoses and even nightmares In Rebirth of the English Comic Strip Kunzle analyzes these much neglected works down to the precocious modernist and absurdist scribbles of Marie Duval Europe's first female professional cartoonist
