Shipping and Trade in the Java Sea Region, 1870-1940 L.J. Touwen, 2021-10-01 Extremes in the Archipelago

L.J. Touwen, 2021-08-04 In the late colonial period 1870-1942 the Outer Islands of Indonesia formed a dynamic area. The economic development of these islands outside Java is analysed in this book by focusing on the enormous increase in trade after 1900. The Outer Islands are described individually and as a group, paying special attention to regional differences. The core of the study is to examine the effects of trade, foreign and domestic, on economic development. Although the economic policy of the colonial government played a role in the gradual formation of a national economy, it did little to advance the relatively backward regions of the Outer Islands. As one of the largest and most tumultuous economies in Southeast Asia, Indonesia nowadays attracts a lot of international attention. This book will serve the study of the diverse and dynamic economic history of late colonial Indonesia, which profoundly influenced post-war events and the formation of a national state.

Historical Dictionary of Indonesia Audrey Kahin, 2015-10-29 A wide flung archipelago lying between the Pacific and Indian Oceans, Indonesia is the world's most populous Islamic country. For over two thousand years it was a crossroads on the major trading route between China and India, but it was not brought together into a single entity until the Dutch extended their rule throughout the Netherlands East Indies in the early part of the 20th century. Declaring its independence from the Dutch in 1945, the Republic of Indonesia was ruled by only two regimes over the next half century. Throughout the years, the country has continued to be dogged by an inefficient bureaucracy and by perpetual problems of corruption. However, since 2004, Indonesia has successfully carried out four direct elections for president together with an equal number of elections for legislative bodies at all levels of government and has finally in 2014 elected a president with no ties to either the military or to the previous authoritarian power structure. This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Indonesia contains a chronology, an introductory essay, appendixes, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 900 cross-referenced entries on important personalities, politics, economy, foreign relations, religion, and culture. This book is an excellent access point for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about Indonesia. Historical Dictionary of Indonesia R. B. Cribb, Audrey Kahin, 2004

Indonesia is Asia's third largest country in both population and area, a sprawling tropical archipelago of some 180 million people from hundreds of ethnic groups with a complex and turbulent history. One of Asia's newly industrializing countries, it is already a major economic powerhouse. In over 800 clear and succinct entries, the dictionary covers people, places, and organizations as well as economics, culture, and political thought from Indonesia's ancient history up until the recent past. Includes a comprehensive bibliography, maps, chronology, list of abbreviations, and appendix of election results and major office holders. This second edition has been thoroughly updated and expanded to cover the events that have occurred in Indonesia's history in the past fifteen years. Shipping and Trade in the Java Sea Region, 1870-1940 Jeroen Touwen, 2001 The Java Sea Region was the scene of increasing flows of shipping and trade during the late colonial period It was an arena of intense competition between Indonesian Chinese and European shipping in both foreign and interregional trade This dynamic process can now be studied in detail for the first time on the level of individual ports archipelago but rather to provide an insight into the way in which civil engineering evolved in the former colony At the same time an impression is inevitably given of the effect which all of that had upon Dutch civil engineering in general Bouwen in de Archipel Wim Ravesteijn, Jan Kop, 2004 NEHA bulletin , 2002
