Shipping And Shipbuilding In Atlantic Canada 18201914:

Canadian History: Beginnings to Confederation Martin Brook Taylor,Doug Owram,1994-01-01 In these two volumes which replace the Reader s Guide to Canadian History experts provide a select and critical guide to historical writing about pre and post Confederation Canada with an emphasis on the most recent scholarship Cover Maritime Capital Eric W. Sager,Gerald E. Panting,1996 In this final volume of the Atlantic Canada Shipping Project Sager and Panting argue that the decline of the shipping industry was not as has commonly been assumed the inevitable result of the conversion from wood and sail to iron and steam They show that the merchant class in failing to maintain a merchant marine built and owned in their region contributed in no small way to the Maritimes present state of underdevelopment Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Maritime History at the Crossroads Frank Broeze,2017-10-18 This volume seeks to critically review the contemporary state of maritime historiography as it stands at the volume s publication date of 1995 The volume is comprised of thirteen essays each focused on the recent research into the maritime concerns of a particular geographical location listed as follows Australia Canada China Denmark Germany Greece Ibero America India the Netherlands the Ottoman Empire Spain the United States and a final chapter concerning historians and maritime labour in Britain Australia and New Zealand One concern made evident by the collection is the lack of stable identity and cohesive aims within maritime history the subject holds many conflicting definitions and concepts The purpose of this volume is to explore the recent developments in maritime history plus the growth of scholarly interest to provide a beacon and stimulus for future work and to clearly direct and define maritime historiography toward a solid position in the field of history The Atlantic Region to Confederation Phillip Buckner,John G. Reid,2017-06-22 Nearly thirty years ago W S MacNutt published the first general history of the Atlantic provinces before Confederation An outstanding scholarly achievement that history inspired much of the enormous growth of research and writing on Atlantic Canada in the succeeding decades Now a new effort is required to convey the state of our knowledge in the 1990s Many of the themes important to today s historians notably those relating to social class gender and ethnicity have been fully developed only since 1970 Important advances have been made in our understanding of regional economic developments and their implications for social cultural and political life This book is intended to fill the need for an up to date overview of emerging regional themes and issues Each of the sixteen chapters written by a distinguished scholar covers a specific chronological period and has been carefully integrated into the whole The history begins with the evolution of Native cultures and the impact of the arrival of Europeans on those cultures and continues to the formation of Confederation The goal has been to provide a synthesis that not only incorporates the most recent scholarship but is accessible to the general reader The book re assesses many old themes from a new perspective and seeks to broaden the focus of regional history to include those groups whom the traditional historiography ignored or marginalized Shipbuilding on Prince Edward Island Nicolas De Jong,Marven E. Moore,1994-01-01 This detailed examination of wooden shipbuilding on Prince Edward Island traces the industry's cycles of prosperity and decline and describes the types of vessels built production profiles and market orientation Accounts of shipbuilding at the community level reveal the local impact of financing and constructing vessels and document how the industry facilitated the distribution of timber and agricultural surpluses Published in English Canadian History: Confederation to the present Martin

Brook Taylor,Doug Owram,1994-01-01 In these two volumes which replace the Reader's Guide to Canadian History experts provide a select and critical guide to historical writing about pre and post Confederation Canada with an emphasis on the most recent scholarship Cover At the Ocean's Edge Margaret Conrad,2020-06-16 At the Ocean's Edge offers a vibrant account of Nova Scotia's colonial history situating it in an early and dramatic chapter in the expansion of Europe Between 1450 and 1850 various processes sometimes violent often judicial rarely conclusive transferred power first from Indigenous societies to the French and British empires and then to European settlers and their descendants who claimed the land as their own This book not only brings Nova Scotia's struggles into sharp focus but also unpacks the intellectual and social values that took root in the region By the time that Nova Scotia became a province of the Dominion of Canada in 1867 its multicultural peoples including Mi'kmaq Acadian African and British had come to a grudging unequal and often contested accommodation among themselves Written in accessible and spirited prose the narrative follows larger trends through the experiences of colourful individuals who grappled with expulsion genocide and war to establish the institutions relationships and values that still shape Nova Scotia's identity Historical Atlas of Canada: The land transformed, 1800-1891

Geoffrey J. Matthews,Don Measner,1987-01-01 Uses maps to illustrate the development of Canada from the last ice sheet to the end of the eighteenth century Atlantic Canada Margaret Conrad,James Hiller,2001 Having long combined a profound sense of place pride and optimism with a fatalistic resignation today the people of Atlantic Canada are increasingly coming to share a determination to overcome their position as poor cousins within the Canadian federation Atlantic Canada tells the story of the region from its geological origins through its settlers Aboriginal and European to their descendants lives on a series of margins first of the French and British empires then of Confederation now of the global free market

Mediterranean Wooden Shipbuilding Apostolos Delis,2015-10-27 In Mediterranean Wooden Shipbuilding Economy Technology and Institutions in Syros in the Nineteenth Century Apostolos Delis analyses the wooden shipbuilding industry of the port of Syros an important maritime and commercial crossroad in the nineteenth century eastern Mediterranean The main axes of analysis are the economic technical and institutional aspects of the industry in relation to the wider international context of shipping and trade Based on unpublished archival sources multi language secondary literature and the employment of interdisciplinary theoretical tools Apostolos Delis not only highlights the national and international significance of Syros shipbuilding industry but also contributes novel material to our knowledge of wooden shipbuilding in the Mediterranean
