Presenting Adrian Chiles and Christine Bleakley Henry Lightfoot, 2011-02-07 Adrian Chiles and Christine Bleakley are the most popular presenting team on British TV today and with their new role as hosts of ITV's Daybreak the revamped GMTV it looks like their stars are continuing to rise Chiles had been fronting BBC's The One Show since it was first aired in 2006 but when Bleakley joined the following year it quickly became clear that they were a magical combination For almost three years they thrilled audiences and with their easy banter and laid back style they made The One Show a firm favourite in the early evening schedule This fascinating biography studies the careers of the presenters from Bleakley's childhood in Northern Ireland and first job in radio to Chiles rise through the ranks presenting Working Lunch The Apprentice You're Fired and Match of the Day 2 It examines what exactly it is that makes them what can only be described as a dream team

I'll Be 10 Minutes Phil Baker, Phil Baker has done so many things in his life including working in the music industry he has been a professional musician and a composer he has worked in construction and event management he was a radio station manager and a bodyguard amongst other things He entertains so many friends and fans with his stories that he decided to put it all in a book from the day he was born to lockdown His life could have changed its path many times and here's his story

Cult British TV comedy Leon Hunt, 2015-11-01 This book is the first sustained critical analysis of Cult British TV comedy from 1990 to the present day The book examines post alternative comedy as both cult and quality TV aimed mostly at niche audiences and often possessing a subcultural aura comedy was famously declared the new rock n roll in the early 90s It includes case studies of Vic Reeves and Bob Mortimer and the sitcom writer Graham Linehan It examines developments in sketch shows and the emergence of dark and cringe comedy and considers the politics of offence during a period in which Brass Eye Sachsgate and Frankie Boyle provoked different kinds of media outrage Programmes discussed include Vic Reeves Big Night Out Peep Show Father Ted The Mighty Boosh The Fast Show and Psychoville Cult British TV Comedy will be of interest to both students and fans of modern TV comedy

Be Funny or Die Joel Morris, 2024-03-07 Comedy is a game that all humans play There are big social prizes if you win but it is easy to end up with custard pie on your face or worse Comedy can soothe our pain vent our anger make us feel less alone and provide the answer to life's most difficult questions such as What do you call a man with a seagull on his head It's a social glue but it can also be divisive and the joke is on us if we don't understand how it works So what are the rules How does comedy do its magic and why does it matter Join professional comedy writer Joel Morris on a hilarious journey into the hidden world of shared laughter where he reveals the mechanisms that make jokes work and what comedy can teach us about ourselves Offering astute analysis of everything from stand up to slapstick and sitcom to spoof Morris examines comedic patterns rhythms and dynamics to uncover the algorithms that secretly underpin comedy Packed with gags and examples of comedy at its best plus some invaluable tips on how to master that b dum tish timing Be Funny or Die is a fascinating investigation into how our species has developed and mastered this essential art form where laughter is the universal language and only the funniest survive

Cliff Theatre Record ,2002 British Television Edward Buscombe,2000 OXFORD TELEVISION STUDIES General Editors Charlotte Brunsdon and John Caughie Oxford Television Studies offers international authors both established and emerging an opportunity to reflect on particular problems of history theory and criticism which are specific to television and which are central to its critical understanding The perspective of the series will be international while respecting the peculiarities of the national it will be historical without proposing simple histories and it will be grounded in the analysis of programmes and genres The series is intended to be foundational without being introductory or routine facilitating clearly focused critical reflection and engaging a range of debates topics and approaches which will offer a basis for the development of television studies British television has been a success story One factor in this success has been the distinctive institutional structure of British broadcasting a mix of state regulated and publicly funded services with commercial services This book attempts to give a broad overview of British television by examining both the institutional framework and the programmes that it has produced A range of reprinted writings from the work of acknowledged experts is supplemented by specially commissioned essays on such key topics as sport and British television in the global context It will be a key text for all students taking courses on British television and broadcasting Love Hurts Fraser Marr,Neil Jeffries,2012-01-27 Most relationships between a fan and a favourite football team go way beyond the casual Almost always that relationship is a torrid steamy and passionate love affair A love affair that rarely lives up to expectations A love affair that seldom satisfies and most of the time just plain hurts So it is for supporters of Leeds United a club with a big reputation secured in the late 1960s and early 70s but tarnished in the 80s and rebuilt only partially in the 90s Come the start of the 1996 97 season Leeds were a Premiership club on paper but on the pitch looked far from it The supporters groaned and the new board acted swiftly manager Howard Wilkinson being replaced by the once disgraced George Graham The football world watched as the former Arsenal supreme sought to rebuild both Leeds and his own reputation All the club had was time hope and the love of its fans Love Hurts tells the story of some of those fans It is a diary of one extraordinary season told and photographed in a uniquely personal way by two men for whom following Leeds is a labour of love requiring hours of motorway travel to matches offering variable amounts of torment and despair of ecstasy and humour The book pulls no punches and points the finger whether the team wins or loses No quarter is given and no fan of any team who reads is can fail to recognise the joy and pain it contains Time Out Film Guide ,2007 Sight and Sound ,2004 VideoHound's Golden Movie Retriever Jim Craddock,2001-08
