Horns, Hogs, and Nixon Coming Terry Frei, 2016-02-16 On December 6 1969 the Texas Longhorns and Arkansas Razorbacks met in what many consider the Game of the Century In the centennial season of college football both teams were undefeated both featured devastating and innovative offenses both boasted cerebral stingy defenses and both were coached by superior tacticians and stirring motivators Texas s Darrell Royal and Arkansas s Frank Broyles On that day in Fayetteville the poll leading Horns and second ranked Hogs battled for the South west Conference title and President Nixon was coming to present his own national championship plaque to the winners Even if it had been just a game it would still have been memorable today The bitter rivals played a game for the ages before a frenzied hog callin crowd that included not only an enthralled President Nixon a noted football fan but also Texas congressman George Bush And the game turned improbably on an outrageously daring fourth down pass But it wasn't just a game because nothing was so simple in December 1969 In Horns Hogs Nixon Coming Terry Frei deftly weaves the social political and athletic trends together for an unforgettable look at one of the landmark college sporting events of all time
