Short Letter Long Farewell 1st Edition:

Short Letter, Long Farewell Peter Handke, 2025-09-23 Nobel Prize winner Peter Handke's novel Short Letter Long Farewell tells the story of a young Austrian evidently modeled on the author on a harrowing month's journey across the United States. The book opens in Providence where a letter awaits the unnamed narrator from his estranged wife Judith. I am in New York it says. Please don't look for me. It would not be nice for you to find me. As the novel proceeds however it gradually becomes clear that Judith is pursuing him not vice versa pursuing with the intent to kill. He spends a day in New York then goes on to Philadelphia where he joins an old flame and her daughter. The trio drives to St. Louis still shadowed by Judith partly to escape her and partly to face her the narrator strikes out west on his own to Tucson where he is robbed by Judith's agents then up to the Oregon coast where a roadside showdown takes place and a gunshot echoes over the Pacific. I seem to have been born for horror and fear. Handke's narrator confesses. As the narrator and Judith maneuver toward their coastal rendezvous his life itself may depend on whether he has achieved enough in the flesh and in the mind to confront the pistol trembling in her hand. AB Bookman's Weekly, 1994

Politics of the Self Richard W. McCormick, 2014-07-14 Richard McCormick examines the concepts of postmodernity and postmodernism as they apply to West Germany discussing them against the background of cultural and political upheaval in that country since the 1960s rather than exclusively in the more familiar setting of intellectual history. Considering six literary and cinematic texts that are marked by a preoccupation with the self and subjectivity he underscores the crucial influence of feminism on writers and filmmakers and on the postmodern. In a broad international context he describes the conflicting forces that affected the West German student movement the rationalistic tradition of the Weimar Left and more irrational influences such as French existentialism and surrealism as well as the American Beat movement and rock roll and shows how these forces played themselves out so that dogmatic Marxist Leninism was repudiated in favor of a New Subjectivity. At the center of the discussion are the novels Lenz by Peter Schneider Class Love Klassenliebe by Karin Struck and Devotion by Botho Strauss and the films Wrong Move written by Peter Handke and directed by Wim Wenders Germany Pale Mother by Helma Sanders-Brahms and The Subjective Factor by Helke Sander. The author shows how ongoing attempts to attack the separation of emotion from reason life from art the private from the public and the personal from the political brought about changes in outlook from the 1960s to the early 1980s that are related to the rise of new political movements ecology nuclear disarmament and feminism. Words and Music Judith Beniston, Geoffrey Chew, Robert Vilain, Jon Hughes, Modern Humanities Research Association, 2010 The chronological range covered by the individual essays is more than two hundred years from the Classical Enlightenment to the early twenty first century Some of the studies encompassed by this volume undertake the analysis of one composer s settings of a particular poet s work albeit with rather more critical rigour Others trace the ways in which a literary text is modified and adapted before and as it develops as one of the principal components of an opera Several share new insights into the complex relationships of individual works with the literary and musical traditions out of which they emerge or which they transform and renew or set such works in the political contexts of their genesis or reception often using a key historical moment a turning point or a snapshot as the starting point for a wide ranging investigation In some cases the words and the music are those of the same composer the relationship here shedding light on the process of composition itself Literary works are often scrutinized for the light they shed on a musician s creative processes but the importance of music to writers as audiences but also as amateur or even semi professional practitioners is no less important as an investigative standpoint

Dissipatio H.G. no one else living or dead in that city of holy plutocracy with its fifty six banks and as many churches He d left the metropolis to escape his fellow humans and their struggles and ambitions but to find that the entire human race has evaporated in an instant is more than he had bargained for Meanwhile life itself the rest of nature is just beginning to flourish now that human beings are gone Guido Morselli s arresting postapocalyptic novel written just before he died by suicide in 1973 depicts a man much like the author himself lonely brilliant difficult and a world much like our own mesmerized by money speed and machines Dissipatio H G is a precocious portrait of our Anthropocene world and a philosophical last will and testament from a great Italian outsider

Memoirs from Beyond the Grave: 1800-1815 François-Réne Chateaubriand,2022-09-27 The second part of an infamous memoir about life in the time of Napoleon by a rebellious literary celebrity In 1800 Fran ois Ren de Chateaubriand sailed from the cliffs of Dover to the headlands of Calais He was thirty one and had been living as a political refugee in England for most of a decade at times in such extreme poverty that he subsisted on nothing but hot water and two penny rolls Over the next fifteen years his life was utterly changed He published Atala Ren and The Genius of Christianity to acclaim and epoch making scandal He strolled the streets of Jerusalem and mapped the ruins of Carthage He served Napoleon in Rome then resigned in protest after the Duc d Enghien s execution putting his own life at tremendous risk Memoirs from Beyond the Grave 1800 1815 the second volume in Alex Andriesse s new and complete translation of this epic French classic is a chronicle of triumphs and sorrows narrating not only the author s life during a tumultuous period in European history but the parallel life of Napoleon In these pages Chateaubriand continues to paint his distinctive self portrait in which the whole history of France swirls around the sitter like a mist of dreams

Lady Macbeth of Mtsensk Nikolai Leskov,2020-10-13 A new collection of the renowned Russian writer s best short work including a masterful translation of the famous title story Nikolai Leskov is the strangest of the great Russian writers of the nineteenth century His work is closer to the oral traditions of narrative than that of his contemporaries and served as the inspiration for Walter Benjamin's great essay The Storyteller in which Benjamin contrasts the plotty machinations of the modern novel with the strange melancholy but also worldly wise yarns of an older slower era that Leskov remained in touch with. The title story is a tale of illicit love and multiple murder that could easily find its way into a Scottish ballad and did go on to become the most popular of Dmitri Shostakovich's operas. The other stories all but one newly translated present the most focused and finely rendered collection of this indispensable writer currently available in English.
