Media and the Politics of Offence

Anne Graefer,2019-07-03 This book explores different forms of mediated offence in the context of Trump's America Brexit Britain and the rise of far right movements across the globe In this political landscape the so called right to offend is often seen as a legitimate weapon against a political correctness gone mad that stifles free speech Against the backdrop of these current developments this book aims to generate a productive dialogue among scholars working in a variety of intellectual disciplines geographical locations and methodological traditions The contributors share a concern about the complex and ambiguous nature of offence as well as about the different ways in which this so called negative affect comes to matter in our everyday and socio political lives Through a series of instructive case studies of recent media provocations the authors illustrate how being offended is more than an individual feeling and is instead closely tied to political structures and power relations Creative and Sexual Science O. Society Verse by American Writers Ernest De Lancey Pierson,1887 Hope and Kinship in Contemporary Fiction Gero Bauer,2024-01-11 Explores the emphasis that contemporary novels films and television series place on the present arguing that hope emerges from the potentiality of the here and now rather than the future and as intimately entangled with negotiations of structures of belonging Taking its cue from an understanding of hope as connoting an organizing temporality one which is often presumed to be projecting into a future Hope and Kinship in Contemporary Fiction challenges this understanding arguing that hope emerges in practices of relationality in the present disentangling hope from a necessary correlation with futurity Through close readings of contemporary works including The Road The Walking Dead Cloud Atlas Sense8 The People in the Trees and A Little Life Gero Bauer investigates how these texts explore structures of kinship as creative and affective practices of belonging and care that claim spaces beyond the heterosexual reproductive nuclear family In this context fictional figurations of the child often considered the bearer of the future are of particular interest Through these interventions into definitions of and reflections on fictional manifestations of hope and kinship Bauer s analyses intersect with queer theory new materialism and postcritical approaches to literature and cultural studies moving towards counterintuitively hopeful readings of the present moment Lippincott's Monthly Magazine ,1893 5000 Episodes and No Commercials David Hofstede,2011-11-09 Groundbreaking Does for TV shows what Leonard Maltin s guides do for movies Forget movies Sales of TV DVDs are outpacing all other categories according to Video Store magazine The Simpsons 24 Lost Desperate Housewives Alias even old chestnuts like Columbo and Home Improvement are blowing out of the stores as fans and collectors rush to buy their favorite shows compact and complete How do buyers know which shows are the best which season contains that favorite moment which episode features that guest star They don t not without their trusty copy of 5 000 Episodes No Commercials which gives full information on every sitcom and drama released on DVD whether in season by season sets individual episodes best of compilations specials or made for TV movies Almost 500 pages of listings include year of original airing information on audio and video quality extras Easter eggs and more Every couch potato is sure to heave up off the sofa just long enough to buy 5 000 Episodes No Commercials Catalog of Copyright Entries ,1945 The Poets and Verse-writers of Maryland George Corbin Perine,1898
