

A scenic sunset over a body of water. The sky is filled with warm, orange and yellow clouds, with the sun low on the horizon. The water reflects the colors of the sky. In the foreground, there are large, dark rocks covered in green moss or algae, and a sandy beach. In the distance, a wooden pier with a covered pavilion extends into the water. The title "LOVE BROKE THROUGH" is written in large, brown, serif capital letters across the upper part of the image.

Douglas Canfield,Maja-Lisa von Sneidern,2003-04-17 The Broadview Anthology of Restoration and Early Eighteenth Century Drama Concise Edition with twenty one plays is half the length of the full anthology without compromising its breadth Concentrating on plays from the heyday of 1660 1737 it focuses on Restoration drama proper and Revolution drama with a selection from the early Georgian period and the later Georgian period's laughing comedy. Seven of the nine sub-genres: personal tragedy, tragicomic romance, social comedy, subversive comedy, corrective satire, menippean satire, and laughing comedy of the full anthology are represented with the preponderance of exposure given to the jewel of this theatre: its comedy. Each play is fully annotated and prefaced with an historical introduction. Also included are a general introduction, a statement of procedures, and a glossary.

The Broadview Anthology of Restoration and Early Eighteenth-Century Drama J. Douglas Canfield, Maja-Lisa von Sneidern, 2001-05-31 This is the first new full scale anthology of Restoration and eighteenth century drama in over sixty years. Concentrating on plays from the heyday of 1660-1737, it focuses especially on Restoration drama proper 1660-1688 and Revolution drama 1689-1714, with a smaller selection of plays from the early Georgian period 1715-1737 and a glimpse at the later Georgian period's laughing comedy 1770s and 80s. It includes nine sub-genres: heroic romance, political tragedy, personal tragedy, tragicomic romance, social comedy, subversive comedy, corrective satire, menippean satire, and laughing comedy, with the preponderance of exposure given to the jewel of this theatre: its comedy. The core canonical plays from the era from Dryden's All for Love and Behn's The Rover to Congreve's The Way of the World and Sheridan's School for Scandal are all here, but so are a remarkably wide range of non-canonical works. There are many more plays by women than in any previous general anthology of drama of the period. Also included are a number of works from the neglected 1660s whose comedies feature delightful subversive levelling folk elements. In all, there are forty-one plays, each is fully annotated and prefaced with an historical introduction. Also included are a general introduction, head notes for each genre, and a glossary.
