Perspectives on Indo-Caribbean Women's Literature Joy Allison Indira Mahabir, Mariam Pirbhai, 2013 This book is the first collection on Indo Caribbean women s writing and the first work to offer a sustained analysis of the literature from a range of theoretical and critical perspectives such as ecocriticism feminist queer post colonial and Caribbean cultural theories The essays not only lay the framework of an emerging and growing field but also critically situate internationally acclaimed writers such as Shani Mootoo Lakshmi Persaud and Ramabai Espinet within this emerging tradition Indo Caribbean women writers provide a fresh new perspective in Caribbean literature be it in their unique representations of plantation history anti colonial movements diasporic identities feminisms ethnicity and race or contemporary Caribbean societies and culture The book offers a theoretical reading of the poetics politics and cultural traditions that inform Indo Caribbean women s writing arguing that while women writers work with and through postcolonial and Caribbean cultural theories they also respond to a distinctive set of influences and realities specific to their positioning within the Indo

Caribbean community and the wider national regional and global imaginary Contributors visit the overlap between national and transnational engagements in Indo Caribbean women s literature considering the writers response to local or nationally specific contexts and the writers response to the diasporic and transnational modalities of Caribbean and Indo Caribbean communities

Palestinian Literature and Film in Postcolonial Feminist Perspective Anna Ball,2012 Palestinian Literature and Film in Postcolonial Feminist Perspective is the first sustained study of gender consciousness in the Palestinian creative imagination Drawing on concepts from postcolonial feminist theory Ball analyses a range of literary and filmic works by major creative practitioners including Michel Khleifi Liana Badr Annemarie Jacir Elia Suleiman Mona Hatoum and Suheir Hammad and reveals a hitherto unrecognized trajectory in gender consciousness under development in the Palestinian imagination from the start of the twentieth century The book explores how these works resonate with questions of power identity nation resistance and self representation in the Palestinian imagination more broadly and asks how these gender conscious narratives transform our understanding of Palestine s struggle for postcoloniality Working at the cusp of postcolonial feminist and cultural enquiry Ball seeks to open up vital new directions in the interdisciplinary study of Palestine

Dance of Life Gail

Fincham,2012-04-22 In recent years the work of Zakes Mda novelist painter composer theater director and filmmaker has attracted worldwide critical attention Gail Fincham s book examines the five novels Mda has written since South Africa s transition to democracy Ways of Dying 1995 The Heart of Redness 2000 The Madonna of Excelsior 2002 The Whale Caller 2005 and Cion 2007 Dance of Life explores how refigured identity is rooted in Mda s strongly painterly imagination that creates changed spaces in memory and culture Through a combination of magic realism African orature and intertextuality with the Western canon Mda rejects dualistic thinking of the past and the present the human and the nonhuman the living and the dead the rural and the urban He imbues his fictional characters with the power to orchestrate a reconfigured subjectivity that is simultaneously political social and aesthetic Globalization, Utopia and Postcolonial Science Fiction E.

Smith,2012-09-10 This study considers the recent surge of science fiction narratives from the postcolonial Third World as a utopian response to the spatial political and representational dilemmas that attend globalization The Postcolonial Jane

Austen You-Me Park,Rajeswari Sunder Rajan,2015-03-24 This volume offers a unique contribution to both postcolonial studies and Austen scholarship by examining the texts to illumine nineteenth century attitudes to colonialism and the expanding Empire revealing a new range of interpretations of Austen s work each shaped by the critic s particular context exploring the ways in which the study of Austen s novels raises fresh issues for post colonial criticism Bringing together work by highly respected critics from four continents and a range of disciplines this newly paperbacked volume allows sometimes surprising and always fascinating new insights into some of the most frequently studied and best loved novels in the English language Postcolonial Mythology and Ethnic Self-Canonization in Biafran Fiction and Activism Abba

Abba,2025-08-12 Postcolonial Mythology and Ethnic Self Canonization in Biafran Fiction and Activism explores the ways in which communities that have been marginalized in colonial discourses attempt to reconstruct their identities histories and narratives through the use of postcolonial myths The deconstruction of stereotypes and creation of self referential myths often play a crucial role in empowering marginalised communities to reassert their cultural identity and reclaim their cultural symbols with narratives of counter history Relying on the experience of the Igbo and the Nigeria Biafra War event the book demonstrates how ethnic groups in Africa articulate their resistance against subalternity Through literary historical and archival analyses it offers an unbiased reading of postcolonial mythologies and counter mythologies in Biafran literature and activism and how they contribute to a broader understanding of colonialism ethnic minoritization and ethnic self canonization With its robust analysis the book sets new benchmarks for scholars researchers teachers and students in humanities and social sciences especially literature history political science and anthropology for re reading ethnicity and rethinking the timeless value of inter ethnic communication The Power to Name Stephanie Newell,2013-07-15 Between the 1880s and the 1940s the region known as British West Africa became a dynamic zone of literary creativity and textual experimentation African owned newspapers offered local writers numerous opportunities to contribute material for publication and editors repeatedly defined the press as a vehicle to host public debates rather than simply as an organ to disseminate news or editorial ideology Literate locals responded with great zeal and in increasing numbers as the twentieth century progressed they sent in letters articles fiction and poetry for publication in English and African language newspapers The Power to Name offers a rich cultural history of this phenomenon examining the wide array of anonymous and pseudonymous writing practices to be found in African owned newspapers between the 1880s and the 1940s and the rise of celebrity journalism in the period of anticolonial nationalism Stephanie Newell has produced an account of colonial West Africa that skillfully shows the ways in which colonized subjects used pseudonyms and anonymity to alter and play with colonial power and constructions of African identity

Postcolonial Custodianship Filippo Menozzi, 2014-02-05 This book engages with current developments in postcolonial research exploring notions of cultural transmission tradition and modernity authenticity cross cultural aesthetics and postcolonial ethics The author considers the ethical responsibility of the postcolonial intellectual enhancing our understanding of this topic through the concept of custodianship which may be defined as a responsibility towards the other in forms of cultural and literary inheritance The author introduces custodianship as a central theme and a vital question for the committed intellectual today proposing original interpretations of major postcolonial texts by key figures including Anita Desai Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Mahasweta Devi and Arundhati Roy Through close reading and historical analysis Postcolonial Custodianship reveals that a practice of custodianship has always been an essential element of these writers ethical engagement yet in a way that has never been explored The author contends that the question of custodianship should not be seen as a merely negative designation it is by redefining the very meaning of custodianship that the ethical dimension of postcolonialism can be rediscovered

Language and Translation in Postcolonial Literatures Simona Bertacco, 2013-12-17 This collection gathers together a stellar group of contributors offering innovative perspectives on the issues of language and translation in postcolonial studies In a world where bi and multilingualism have become quite normal this volume identifies a gap in the critical apparatus in postcolonial studies in order to read cultural texts emerging out of multilingual contexts The role of translation and an awareness of the multilingual spaces in which many postcolonial texts are written are fundamental issues with which postcolonial studies needs to engage in a far more concerted fashion The essays in this book by contributors from Australia New Zealand Zimbabwe Cyprus Malaysia Quebec Ireland France Scotland the US and Italy outline a pragmatics of language and translation of value to scholars with an interest in the changing forms of literature and culture in our times Essay topics include multilingual textual politics the benefits of multilingual education in postcolonial countries the language of gender and sexuality in postcolonial literatures translational cities postcolonial calligraphy globalization and the new digital ecology The Dynamics of Intersubjectivity Faten Haouioui, 2021-10-11 This collection revises subjectivity in the light of postmodern theories of the subject The contributors gathered here present and discuss a number of different but interrelated subjectivities As such they reconceptualize the theory of subjectivity according to various texts and contexts such as the subjectivity of discourses the subject under subjugation and the intersubjective construction of the other It introduces a dynamic subjectivity to minority literature colonial postcolonial texts and travel literature to name but a few The dynamics of intersubjectivity provide a space for subjectivities to negotiate and interrelate Moreover this collection shows that intersubjectivity is hybrid yet flexible by nature The Oxford Handbook of Global Realisms Vaysman, 2025-11-04 Realism is an artistic practice that aims to faithfully represent reality Historically it has been practiced across different media from early pictorial art and epic oral narratives through literature and visual arts to film music and digital media However an understanding of what it means to faithfully represent reality is not universal rather it varies from culture to culture The Oxford Handbook of Global Realisms approaches realism as a transnational transhistorical and intermedial global phenomenon It brings the diversity of global realisms to the fore showcasing previously underrepresented and marginalized theories practices forms and media of realist cultural production Contemporary Perspectives in English Language Studies: Linguistics and Literature (Penerbit USM) Sarjit Kaur, Shakila Abdul Manan, 2014-11 Discussing contemporary perspectives and new developments in the field of English language studies has gained ascendancy in view of the fact that such concerns about learning and teaching English make important contributions to society Such discussions are of critical importance in today's globalised societies and more needs to be done towards collaboratively presenting the growing wealth of quality research in linguistics and literature Linguists and scholars continue to champion the need to interrogate the discourse of literary and language texts using a number of critical frameworks that help sensitise readers to the ideological nature of literary discourse and the ways in which certain dominant ideas of nation race ethnicity and gender are ratified or challenged Readers need to be constantly challenged to think interpret and evaluate differing views and perspectives The collection of chapters in this book explores contemporary issues and perspectives in linguistics and literature among educators and researchers whose primary focus is to examine the manner in which English is used for various educational purposes from traditional curriculum demands to answering broader questions about human knowledge global citizenship and social engagement
