Expanding Notions of Assessment for Learning Bronwen Cowie,Judy Moreland,Kathrin Otrell-Cass,2013-02-11 Assessment for learning AfL is bound up with students becoming autonomous lifelong learners who are active participants in the classroom and beyond This book explores teacher and student experiences of AfL interactions in primary science and technology classrooms Working from a sociocultural perspective the book s fundamental premise is that AfL has a contribution to make to students developing identities as accomplished learners and knowers The focus is on understanding and enhancing teacher practices that align with the spirit of AfL The following points are illustrated AfL interactions are multifaceted multimodal and take place over multiple time scales Student learning autonomy is promoted when teachers provide opportunities for students to exercise agency within a system of accountabilities Teacher pedagogical content knowledge plays a pivotal role in teachers being able to respond to students Productive AfL interactions are reflective of the way a particular discipline generates and warrants knowledge The book will be of interest to teachers and educational researchers who want to examine AfL from a theoretical and a practical perspective Contracts, Performance Measurements, and Accountability in the Public Sector Gavin Drewry,Carsten Greve,Thierry Tanquerel,2005 This book addresses issues to do with public accountability audit and performance measurement that are both highly topical and of crucial importance to the theory and practice of public administration in an era of contractualized public management The literature on public sector contracting covering both hard agreements ones that are legally enforceable and soft agreements enforced by negotiation and mutual trust has been growing for some time and the present book adds a primarily European perspective on contracting performance based management and accountability One important aspect of this study is its recognition that those responsible for monitoring public services and holding them to account have had to an increasing extent to reconcile tensions between on the one hand the need for strong oversight and on the other the encouragement of innovation and risk in an increasingly competitive and entrepreneurial public service culture Following an introductory overview by the three editors the book is in three parts The first part deals with the theory and practice of performance measurement and evaluation the second part provides a series of specific case studies of audit and accountability in a variety of countries and contexts the third part offers some wider cross cutting perspectives Based on the work of the EGPA permanent study group on the history of contractualization Contracts Performance Measurement and Accountability in the Public Sector draws upon the wide expertise and research interests of academics and practitioners from the United Kingdom Denmark Switzerland Belgium Sweden and the USA Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,1997-07-29 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya Resident Aliens Stanley Hauerwas,William H. Willimon,2004-04-01 In this bold and visionary ebook two leading Christian thinkers explore the alien status of Christians in today s world and offer a compelling new vision of how the Christian church can regain its vitality battle its malaise reclaim its capacity to nourish souls and stand firmly against the illusions pretensions and eroding values of today s world Hauerwas and Willimon call for a radical new understanding of the church By renouncing the emphasis on personal psychological categories they offer a vision of the church as a colony a holy nation a people a family standing for sharply focused values in a devalued world The Things that Make for Peace Jesse P. Nickel,2021-02-08 This study offers fresh insight into the place of non violence within Jesus ministry by examining it in the context of the eschatologically motivated revolutionary violence of Second Temple Judaism The book first explores the connection between violence and eschatology in key literary and historical sources from Second Temple Judaism The heart of the study then focuses on demonstrating the thematic centrality of Jesus opposition to such eschatological violence within the Synoptic presentations of his ministry arguing that a proper understanding of eschatology and violence together enables appreciation of the full significance of Jesus consistent disassociation of revolutionary violence from his words and deeds The book thus articulates an understanding of Jesus nonviolence that is firmly rooted in the historical context of Second Temple Judaism presenting a challenge to the seditious Jesus hypothesis the claim that the historical Jesus was sympathetic to revolutionary ideals Jesus rejection of violence ought to be understood as an integral component of his eschatological vision embodying and enacting his understanding of i how God s kingdom would come and ii what would identify those who belonged to it

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1994-02 The United Nations Madrid International Plan of Action on Ageing Marvin Formosa,Mala Kapur Shankardass,2023-02-23 The United Nations Madrid International Plan of Action on Ageing

MIPAA offers a bold new agenda for handling the issue of ageing in the 21st century. It focuses on three priority areas: older persons and development, advancing health and well-being into old age, and ensuring enabling and supportive environments. This book brings together global perspectives on the MIPAA and focusses on and assesses the success and failures of governments to implement its recommendations. Despite its pivotal importance in international ageing policy, the MIPAA has been relatively neglected by academics in their writings and studies. This book mitigates this analytical and empirical cavity. Each chapter focuses on one specific geographical region and addresses five key themes: national ageing situation twenty years of MIPAA, ensuring ageing with dignity, healthy and active ageing in a sustainable world, and priorities for the future. It presents an overall summary of the findings, future challenges and opportunities related to ageing, recommendations for future actions to be taken, and policy adjustments needed. The authors also present lessons that were learnt from managing the impact of COVID-19 on older people together with an outlook on the most immediate priorities for the future so that the recommendations in the MIPAA are achieved in post-COVID-19 and sustainable ethical scenarios. An important contribution towards the advancement of ageing policy, the book will be indispensable to students and researchers of gerontology, ageing and health. It will also be of interest to policy makers, geriatricians, dementia care specialists, social policy makers responsible for ensuring active and healthy ageing, and all public sector departments which have specific responsibilities towards improving the quality of life of older adults.

Edited by world-renowned experts, this unprecedented volume addresses the theological debates, methodological complexities, and future directions of this emerging field. Contributions from both established and emerging scholars describe key theoretical approaches, discuss how different empirical methods are used within theology, explore the links between qualitative research and adjacent scholarly traditions, and more. The companion discusses how qualitative empirical work changes the practice of theology, enabling a disciplined attention to the lived social realities of Christian religion and what theologians do.
