Makoto Fujimura Makoto Fujimura, 1996 Hours Makoto Fujimura, Dillon Gallery, 1998 Restoring All Things John Stonestreet, Warren Cole Smith, 2015-04-28 It's easy to get discouraged by the headlines. It can often feel as if God has left the building like we are on our own. We want to believe God's promises to us and we search for signs of his continuing restoration of the world in which we live. Now with passion and heart, two leading experts on Christianity and culture cut through the chaos and uncertainty to show readers how God is powerfully active and intensely engaged in fulfilling his promise to restore all things unto himself. Through inspiring real-life stories of justice, mercy, love, and forgiveness in our midst, Smith and Stonestreet present a God who is intimately involved in his creation and using his church to work out the redemption of this world.

Soul Work Lowell W. Busenitz, 2023-02-10 Work is an amazing catalyst for flourishing with God. It can be a spiritual facilitator that enables you to see, touch, feel, taste, and smell the God who is already there. Your entrepreneurial pursuits present an abundance of opportunities for you to flourish spiritually. In Soul Work: Finding God in Your Entrepreneurial Pursuits, Lowell Busenitz helps you overcome those obstacles in your workplace that may hinder you from experiencing the fullness of Christ. Building from a biblical foundation, he shares a new paradigm for enhancing your relationship with God through your job. Instead of bringing your faith to your workplace, find God in your workplace by learning how to identify God in your work. How to discover Jesus' deep interest in your work. How your work can deepen your faith.

A New Heaven and a New Earth J. Richard Middleton, 2014-11-25 In recent years, more and more Christians have come to appreciate the Bible's teaching that the ultimate blessed hope for the believer is not an otherworldly heaven; instead, it is full-bodied participation in a new heaven and a new earth brought into fullness through the coming of God's kingdom. Drawing on the full sweep of the biblical narrative, J. Richard Middleton unpacks key Old Testament and New Testament texts to make a case for the new earth as the appropriate Christian hope. He suggests its ethical and ecclesial implications, exploring the difference a holistic eschatology can make for living in a broken world.

The Sacredness of Secular Work Jordan Raynor, 2024-01-30 From a leading voice in the faith and work movement and author of Redeeming Your Time comes the revolutionary message that God sees our daily work in whatever form it takes with far more value than we ever imagined. The Sacredness of Secular Work does an extraordinary job of being both personally relevant and more importantly biblically faithful. Randy Alcorn, New York Times bestselling author of Heaven, asks: Does your work matter for eternity? Sadly, most believers don't think so. Sure, the 1 percent of the time they spend sharing the gospel with their co-workers matters. But most Christians view the other 99 percent of their time as meaning very little in the grand scheme of things. But that's not how God sees it. Jordan Raynor, a leading voice in the faith and work movement and bestselling author, offers a revolutionary message about how our daily jobs, from baristas and entrepreneurs to stay-at-home parents and coaches, have intrinsic and eternal value. In The Sacredness of Secular Work, he reveals unexpected ways our work truly matters. In these pages, you'll discover how a low regard of our work limits our understanding of God and His Kingdom Inspiring ways your work can reveal God s kingdom on earth here and now Surprising strategies for ensuring your vocation has an eternal legacy Vital insights on what God s view of work tells us about heaven Combining research Scripture and storytelling Jordan Raynor proves that work in its diverse forms is one of the primary activities that brings God delight This biblical perspective will set you free to pursue your passions and skills and perhaps for the first time experience the Creator s delight in the work of your hands A Theology of Creation Thomas S. Hibbs,2023-08-15 This book provides the first sustained philosophical treatment of Pope Francis s Laudato Si and articulates a theology of creation to recover our place within the cosmos In the encyclical Laudato Si Pope Francis discerns beneath the imminent threat of ecological catastrophe an existential affliction of the human person who is lost in the cosmos increasingly alienated from self others nature and God Pope Francis suggests that one must reimagine humanity s place in the created cosmos In this ambitious and distinctive contribution to theological aesthetics Thomas S Hibbs provides the basis for just such a recovery working from Laudato Si to develop a philosophical and theological diagnosis of our ecological dislocation a narrative account of the sources of the crisis and a vision of the way forward Through a critical engagement with the artistic theory of Jacques Maritain Hibbs shows how certain strains of modern art both capture our alienation and anticipate visions of recovered harmony among persons nature and God In the second half of the book in an attempt to fulfill Pope Francis s plea for an aesthetic education and to apply and test Maritain s theory Hibbs examines the work of poets and painters He analyzes the work of poets Robinson Jeffers and William Everson and considers painters Georges Roualt a friend to Maritain and Makoto Fujimura whose notion of culture care overlaps in suggestive ways with Francis s notion of integral ecology Throughout this tour de force Hibbs calls for a commitment to an ecological poetics a project that responds to the crisis of our times by taking poets and painters as seriously as philosophers and theologians

Redeeming Transcendence in the Arts Jeremy Begbie,2018-02-14 How can the arts witness to the transcendence of the Christian God Many people believe that there is something transcendent about the arts that they can awaken a profound sense of awe wonder and mystery of something beyond this world even for those who may have no use for conventional forms of Christianity In this book Jeremy Begbie a leading voice on theology and the arts employs a biblical Trinitarian imagination to show how Christian involvement in the arts can be shaped by the distinctive vision of God s transcendence opened up in and through Jesus Christ Annual Bibliography of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). Northcott, 2010-02-15 This book records a set of dialogues between scientists theologians and philosophers on what can be done to prevent a global slide into ecological collapse It is a uniquely multidisciplinary book that exemplifies the kinds of cultural and scholarly dialogue urgently needed to address the threat to the earth represented by our super industrial civilization The authors debate the conventional account of nature conservation as protection from human activity In contrast to standard accounts they argue what is needed is a new relationship between human beings and the earth that recovers a primal respect for all things This approach seeks to recover forgotten resources in ancient cultures and in the foundational narratives of Western civilization contained in the Bible and in the culture of classical Greece

The Reformation Pierre Berthoud, Pieter J. Lalleman, 2017-09-07 The papers in this volume are less a commemoration of the Reformation than a discussion of its meaning in the era after 2017 What is celebrated in 2017 is not the Reformation as such but the beginning of the Reformation It was the dynamics of the new theology of Luther and Calvin that caused a radical change with global effects Reformation is not just an historical event but an ongoing movement of renewal and change The message of the Reformation constantly challenges us to think through positions actions attitudes and programs This book presents contributions from eleven experts from all over Europe who deal with their various topics on the conviction that the essence of Luther s theology does not need to be adapted to make it relevant The papers originated at the 2016 conference of the Fellowship of European Evangelical Theologians which was held in Lutherstadt Wittenberg Secular, Sacred, More Sacred Stuart Brooking,Paul Branch,Federico G.
